Now and Then in Boston.

It is doubtful if the patriots ever dreamed that the steeple on their meeting house would ever be used to aid in announcing the returns of a red hot municipal election.—Boston Record.

The Patent office is some $7,000,000 ahead on revenue from patents, nearly $1,000,000 last year alone. Considering the measureless, multiplied millions of blessings and dollars from inventions, and considering the silent tragedy and despair of poor inventors, this seems like seething the lamb in its own mother's milk.—New York Press.

Vindictive.

"That" spluttered Mr. Jones. "That nut had a worm in it."

"Here," urged a friend, offering him a glass of water, "drink this and wash it down."

"Wash it down!" growled Jones. "Why should I? Let him walk!"—Everybody's.

A Timorous Admission.

I'd like to be a boy and plan Youth's joys once more; but just the same I'd rather be a hard-worked man Than mingle in a football game.—Washington Star.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when medicine is so much needed as in the spring. The blood is impure and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples, boils and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength.

The best spring medicine, according to the experience and testimony of thousands annually, is

Hood's Sarsaparill:

It purifies and enriches the blood, cures eruptions, builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets known as Sarsalab.

Mrs. Russell Sage has offered half a million dollars to the American Bible Society if an equal amount can be raised. The time limit on this offer expires on the last day of the present year.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Why?

"Pop?"

"Yes, my son."

"Why is it that a rooster makes more noise crowing than a hen does cackling, and he don't even lay a corner-stone?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Constipation

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you, I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity." B. P. Fisher, Rossmore, Ill.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent. Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Grip. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C. C. C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.

Two "Green" Reporters.

The inexperienced reporter is likely to have an undeveloped "news sense." Every one will recall the story of the journalist who was sent to report a fashionable wedding. He returned an hour or so later empty-handed. When asked what happened, he said, "Nothing at all; the groom didn't come." A writer in Lippincott's Magazine recounts an incident not dissimilar.

At a certain school of journalism a part of the practical work is to do regular reporting. One time a student was sent in haste to "cover" a railroad wreck at a town a few miles away.

It grew to be almost time for the paper to go to press, and still no word from the young man on the assignment. In desperation, the dean of the school telegraphed to ask why the story was not forthcoming. The reply was:

"Too much excitement. Wait till things quiet down."

KASPARILLA

This sterling household remedy has long been recognized as the best and safest Blood Purifier, the most successful prescription for spring humors and such disorders of the blood as boils, pimples, pustules, blotches, sores and cutaneous eruptions. Kasparilla is admitted to be the best remedy for that lack of energy and the peculiar debility so prevalent during the close of winter and the opening of spring. For derangements of the digestive organs it is a natural corrective, operating directly upon the liver and alimentary canal, gently but persistently stimulating a healthy activity. Its beneficial influence extends, however, to every portion of the system, aiding in the processes of digestion and assimilation of food, promoting a wholesome, natural appetite, correcting sour stomach, bad breath, irregularities of the bowels, constipation and the long list of troubles directly traceable to those unwholesome conditions. Kasparilla dispels drowsiness, headache, backache and despondency due to inactivity of the liver, kidneys and digestive tract. It is a strengthening tonic of the highest value.

Dr. Carl Webber, still practicing in New York City, performed in 1886 the first operation for appendicitis. There was no knowledge of stomach cuttings at that time. The operation was performed without antiseptics. The instruments and appliances were comparatively primitive. The patient is alive and well in New York to-day.

Kempson's Paw Paw Pills cook the liver into activity by gentle methods. They do not scour, gripe or weaken. They are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves; invigorate instead of weaken. They enrich the blood and enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it. These pills contain no calomel; they are soothing, healing and stimulating. For sale by all druggists in 10c and 25c sizes. If you need medical advice, write Manypen's Doctors. They will advise to the best of their ability absolutely free of charge. MANYPEN'S, 222 and Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. Send for free trial package.

The Return.

Anthony Drexel, Jr., shortly after the announcement of his engagement to Miss Marjorie Gould, dined at the Knickerbocker Club in Fifth avenue. Mr. Drexel, apropos of parsimony coupled with great wealth, said:

"We have in Philadelphia a notoriously mean millionaire. This man, while dressing the other morning, looked closely at his valet's legs. Then he said:

"Those are very good trousers, Thompson. Did I give them to you?"

"Yes, sir," said the valet; "last month, sir."

"Well, here's a quarter for you," said the millionaire. "I'll have them back."

His Felicitations!

"Maudie," said Algy. "I told Bivins of our engagement the other day."

"What did he say?"

"Well, you just ought to have heard him."

"Did he congratulate you?"

"Did he congratulate me? Well, I should simmer!"

"What did he say?"

"O, you oughtn't to ask me that."

"Yes, but I want to know."

"Well, he—er—said, 'you lucky dog!'"

Those Old, Old Questions.

"Taw, a man says 'I lie.' If he lies he tells the truth, and if he tells the truth he lies, doesn't he?"

(With a groan.) "My boy, that was an old gag in the days of Socrates. You'll be asking me next who wrote 'The Beautiful Snow,' or whether it's true that the consumer pays the tax!"—Chicago Tribune.

Easy to Win Back Your Health

It is not a very hard task to get back to the "highway of health" provided you act promptly at the first sign of weakness or ill-health and assist Nature in every way possible. Then this calls for the friendly aid of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters immediately. Delay or experimenting with unknown remedies only aggravates matters, prolongs your sickness and makes it just so much harder to win back your health. Thousands of people, who know from actual experience, keep a bottle of the Bitters handy at all times, and a few doses at the right time always wards off a sick spell. Try this plan today. It is excellent in cases of Poor Appetite, Heartburn, Belching, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Biliousness, Spring Ailments, Impure Blood, Malaria, Fever and Ague. Insist on having Hostetter's.
