MRS. V. A. MCKNIGHT

J. N. Morris, of Lebanon, was doing business in Scio, the first of the week.

Nevertheless last Saturday morning was stormy, the grange was fairly well attended.

Another beautiful line of spring and summer dress goods and trimmings at Wesely and Cain.

Scio now has an up-to-date photographic tent. The boys expect to be here for a month.

Real estate has commenced moving since there is a prospect of a railroad coming to town.

Salted salmon, codfish, smoked herring and cromarty bloaters, during lenten season, at W. Grocery.

Wm. Manis and family, of near Stayton, were guests of his brother-in-law, Wm. Brenner, last Sunday.

A large line of boys and youths suits in all the latest styles for spring have just arrived at Wesely and Cain.

We understand that S. Philippi has purchased the old creamery lot and intends to erect a wool warehouse thereon.

Garden seeds from A to Z. Seeds that are true to name and that grow. Guaranteed, or money back by J. F. Wesely.

Restaurant privileges will be open to everybody, at the fairgrounds during the Fair, upon the payment of a license of $20.

We notice that Gilbert McDonald was looking at one of Morrison's new buggies as if he had some notion of buying. Wonder who the girl is?

Make your hens lay by feeding Prussian Poultry tonic, bone, shell, granite and alfalfa meal. For sale at Wesely's Grocery.

Farmers are now ready and anxious for sunshiney weather. Their plowing is now about all through and seeding weather is wanted.

It is stated that W. E. Arnold has exchanged some Albany property with J. N. Morris, of Lebanon, for the hotel building on the south side.

Keep your eye on the south side corner and see the new additions which will be added continually to the stock of goods. I will be in a position, in a few days to give you some bargains in hardware, cutlery and ranges which will be an eye opener. Yours for square dealing, N. I. MORRISON

A few settings of pure bred Buff Orpington eggs, at $2.00 per setting of 16. Eggs only from the selected birds are offered for sale. If you want eggs from hens that look well and lay well get a few of these and you will not regret it. J. F. WESELY.

Thomas Large announces that it is his purpose to buy and ship all kinds of stock, such as cattle, hogs, sheep, etc., and that it is his purpose to pay the highest market price therefor. So anybody having marketable stock for sale, will do well to see him before disposing of it to others. His headquarters is at Scio, where a letter or telephone message will reach him.

Two new buggies and a hack have been added to the livery stable equipment recently.

Just in, a swell line of Packards $4 and $5 low shoes for men in colors green black and tan, at Wesely and Cain.

E. C. Peery has a somewhat gorgeous sign on the south side of his drug store building. It is so plain that he who runs may read. Chester Coffey was the artist.

Walter Bilyeu has severed his connection with the Scio condensery and has accepted a position up at the Fred Gooch mills. He and family moved up there this week.

FOR SALE—I have about fifty bushels of big potatoes to sell at 35 cents per bushel. Also 100 bushels of corn at 80 cents per bushel. H. FALTUS, 2 miles from Scio up Thomas creek.

Wm. Brenner and Fred Jones returned from a visit to Portland, last Saturday evening. Must have been a fire while they were there, from the looks of their head gear.

The C. & E. railroad is to be extended from Yaquina City to Newport, at once. Passengers for the seaside will then not be subjected to the tiresome boat ride, over there.

As many Scioans, as possible, should attend the open river convention, at Albany, to meet this Thursday, April 14. An open river means much to the upper Willamette valley.

Oregon mines, especially those up about Gates, are attracting the attention of eastern capitalists. Something will be doing in the Gates district, during the coming summer.

R. Shelton last week sold the Reed block in South addition to Scio to Louisa C. Alexander, consideration $800. Mrs. Alexander will improve and occupy this property as her home.

The Farmers Meat Market will pay the highest market price for beef, mutton, veal, pork, hides and eggs. They don't want the earth, but they do want your produce and are willing to pay for it.

MARRIED—At the Baptist parsonage in Albany, by Rev. S. A. Douglas, on Tuesday, April 12, Mr. Joseph Oupor and Mrs. Emma Stam, both of this city. Their many friends extend their congratulations.

Full line of vetch, red, white and alsike clover, timothy, rye grass, rape seed, red top, alfalfa seed, etc., in fact everything in the seed line at the very lowest possible price. Seeds sold for cash only, at J. F. Wesely's Grocery.

For Sale—We have no more White Leghorn Cockerels for sale, for all are sold. But we have and will have White Leghorn eggs per setting of 15 for $1. No purer stock of this breed can be found any where. We also have a few pedigreed Poland China pigs for sale yet. Trappist Fathers, Scio Ore.

Our car load of sash, doors, porch posts, paints, oils and all kinds of building paper is now in, and if you are going to need anything in this line, come and figure with us before you buy, we can save you money, which will convince you when you compare other prices with ours.

CHAS. WESELY

I have been the means of cheaper fencing to the farmers and will be the means of lower prices and more trade at Scio than ever before. Get prices elsewhere and compare with mine, considering the quality of the goods. N. I. MORRISON, K. of P. building at the south end of the bridge, Scio Ore.

April 12, is a day that Scioans have come to regard as being next door to notorious. It has not arrived to the dignity of being declared a holiday, by the city council; yet it is a day which is impressed upon the minds of the people. They will not forget it, and expect some sort of a celebration. It is Doug's birthday.

We have a full line of sash, doors, porch posts, glass, paints, oils, building paper and brushes. We invite you to come in and get our prices before you buy, as we will unload carload of paint, sash, and doors this week, so we are in a position to give you better price than our competitor. Again remember that we buy direct from the factory in car lots.

CHAS. WESELY

I don't send away for anything which I can manufacture at home. I build window frames, turn porch posts, or prepare anything for the house in the way of mill work right here at home and at prices which cannot be competed with by planing mills in other towns, if freight to Scio is considered. I can buy sash and doors as cheap as anybody and am willing to sell upon a small margin of profit. Come and see me before you buy elsewhere and you will not regret it. N. I. MORRISON, Proprietor Scio Planing Mills.
