RAISIN DAY

April 30, 1910 is the day set apart as an annual event by the people of California in which all are asked to join by eating raisins in the form of "Raisin Bread" or in any form that may be desired. The object of this special day is to create a wide-spread raisin sentiment that will result in a greater demand for that fruit, and to direct the attention of all good housewives to the excellence of the raisin as an article of food. The good people of the Northwest are invited by their neighbors to participate in the pleasant custom and "break" raisin bread on April 30.

Some merchants put up a great howl about sending to Ward, Sears & Mont' for their goods, but still the same merchants will send away for goods which are manufactured at home; and I will furnish them the goods at Portland prices, if they will buy as large orders; thereby they will save the freight. But such action would help build up Scio, something which is not wanted by a few tackheads. I will sell goods which will draw trade to our beautiful little city, which has wonderful prospects ahead in the near future.
