John Sims talks of building cement walks about his residence.

Jim Bilyeu turned up, Monday morning, after a visit to the Rose fair.

Ben Gooch has closed up school work, at Corvallis, and is again mixing pills for E. C. Peery.

Raise fruit instead of bugs, worms and moss, by using Lilly's Best Tree Spray. At Wesely's Grocery.

Everybody seems to regret the failure of our railroad project, those in the country as well as the towns people.

A knocker or two can do more damage to a town or community than a half-dozen public-spirited citizens can build up.

Why is Morrison & Neal turning out so many buggies and runabouts? Because they have the best and sell them at reasonable prices.

Our farmers, generally, carry a broad grin upon their faces, this is because of the copious showers of rain which has fallen lately.

W. S. Carpenter, of this city and LeRoy Gadsage, of West Seio, expect to attend the Grand Encampment of the G. A. R. at Astoria, next week.

It was reported on our streets Monday, that John Osborn, of Turner, died. He lived in Seio a few months ago and was quite an old man.

There will be a meeting of the Farmers Cooperative and Educational Union, in Seio on Saturday, July 1 p. m. All members and interested are requested to be present.

THE HOT TOWN

Sudden Death

William Job Crabtree, of Crabtree, died suddenly at that place, on last Monday afternoon, under somewhat peculiar circumstances. He had a quarrel with J. W. Hiron, husband of the school teacher at that place, about the teacher, and picked up a rock, in his anger. It was taken away from him and he said he would be good, but immediately rushed for another rock, when Mr. Hiron took hold of his arm, when Mr. Crabtree fell dead.

He has had heart disease, for some time and had been receiving medical treatment therefor.

Wool Pool Brings 20¢

The Seio wool pool, about 4500 fleeces was sold, Wednesday afternoon, for 20¢ cents per pound; A. R. Jacobs of the Oregon City woolen mills being the purchaser. There were three other bidders present. This is regarded as a good sale, when the dull condition of the wool market is considered. Between $5000 and $6000 will be scattered among our wool growers in consequence.

Patronize home manufacture, provided you can do as well as at other places. If not, send away for your building material. I can give you prices which cannot be beat at any other planing mill in the county. Try me for prices on your doors, windows, posts, brackets, frames, mouldings, etc. N. I. Morrison.

W. F. Herin, head counsel of the Southern Pacific, he of unsavory reputation down in California, was one of the principal speakers at the O. A. C. Quarter Centennial exercises, at Corvallis, this week. Mr. Herin is a graduate of Corvallis college before it became the Oregon Agricultural college. Sometimes a man is not so bad as he is painted and this may be the case with Mr. Herin.

Shelton could not resist the temptation of the Portland Rose show, so the morning train of last Friday found him a passenger Portlandward.

Miss Imogene Gill, our deputy postmistress, attended commencement exercises at Corvallis, last week. During her absence Mrs. W. F. Gill has looked after postal matters.

The Farmers Meat Market will pay the highest market price for beef, mutton, veal, pork, hides and eggs. They don't want the earth, but they do want your produce and are willing to pay for it.

Seio merchants should make it known goods can be bought at Seio as cheap as at any of our neighboring towns.

We should encourage people to come here for their supplies, in every way possible.

son should not be allowed to go without some substantial road leading to West Seio. County should furnish a rock for this locality. There is an abundance of rock for road building.

Every citizen should remember that the next meeting of the Linn county Grange Council is booked to meet at Seio, on Saturday, July 2. Let everybody come with well filled lunch baskets. There will be a lot of people over from Albany and other points and they will be sure to bring their appetites with them.

Morrison & Neal have been the means of lowering prices from 10 to 100 per cent, on all kinds of hardware, not only in Seio, but at other points they have come to our prices. You cannot get out of giving them the credit for the reduced prices.
