

Needs for the Home

Rugs, Carpets, Linoleum, Matting, Portiers, Lace Curtains, etc.

We are prepared to show you a very choice collection of house furnishings. Our showing of rugs being very carefully selected and are rich in color and design and are priced very reasonably.

The Lace Curtain department includes a large and varied assortment of designs and qualities from 50 cents to $10 per pair.

Bissell's carpet sweepers in several different qualities

S. E. YOUNG & SON

ALBANY, OREGON

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Men's Sox, Ties, Handkerchiefs—a new line, at Wesely & Cain's.

BORN—On July 2, 1910, to the wife of D. B. Smith of Thomas, a daughter. The new store on the south side, is now enclosed.

Big reduction sale on mens and boys suits, hats and dress shirts at Wesely & Cain's.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Gill, of Lebanon, spent the 4th with home folks in this city.

S. W. McFarland came up from Oregon City, Wednesday for a day or two stay.

E. C. Peery left for a trip up the C. & E. on condensery business, Wednesday.

The Albany Democrat claims that the celebration in that city on the 4th was a success.

Schillings Best. You know what. Guaranteed or your money back by Wesely's Grocery.

Haying is now getting under full blast. The price for loose hay delivered will be around $10 per ton.

The Albany Herald has, probably suspended publication; at least it is absent from our exchange table.

Josiah Flinn, a Linn county pioneer, who resided over near Albany for many years, is now a resident of Scio.

A. E. Randall and W. A. Ewing went up to the Brettenbush hot springs, yesterday, for a few weeks outing.

Julia Kopecky, Beatrice Devaney, Mrs. R. L. Devaney, A. C. Vernon, Jas. A. Dart and Emma Dart are the Scioans attending the Summer Normal at Albany.

People want to come to Scio to live but cannot find a habitation. A dozen modern cottages would find tenants in a short time. Some of our local capitalists should supply the need.

NOTICE—Anyone wishing to have grain ground, will please bring the same in soon, as we will have to shut the mill down for repairs about July 15 for about ten days. The Scio Milling Company.

The Farmers Meat Market will pay the highest market price for beef, mutton, veal, pork, hides and eggs. They don't want the earth, but they do want your produce and are willing to pay for it.

J. F. Wesely has erected a barn on his little farm which would be a credit to a city home. Joe expects to build a cottage, next year which, it is safe to say, will be one of the handsomest homes in this locality.

LOST—On July 4th in Lacombe grove, a purse containing $15 in gold and some silver. A reward of $5 will be given the finder. For description call on or write to, J. H. Hassler, Crabtree, Ore. Home phone 255 Scio, Ore.

Mr. Daniel J. Lagen, representative of the Rural Spirit, was doing business in Scio, last Saturday. While here he inspected both the Fair grounds and the Condensery and was very much pleased with each. He thinks that we will have a large increase of track horses over last year, at the coming Fair.

Again can the hum of the wood saw be heard in Scio.

New line of fancy clocks at Wesely & Cain's, from $1 to $8.50.

The country is apt to be afflicted with "too much Johnson" for a spell.

W. W. Crawford and son George, of Tallman, came over to doctor Fred Bilyeu's auto Wednesday.

Make money from your hens by feeding Lee's Egg Maker, bone, shell and grit. At Wesely's Grocery.

The NEWS has not heard of an accident occurring in this vicinity and but one or two fights on the 4th.

The best line of fancy and staple groceries in the Valley, at living prices at Wesely's Grocery.

Mr. N. Young expects to go to Tygh Valley, in a few weeks, intending to spend next winter at that place.

Save your chicks by using Lee's Germozone Diamond and Lilly's Best chick feed, at Wesely's Grocery.

The Ladies Improvement Club has purchased a number of handsome well finished seats for use in the city park.

Mrs. Haman Shelton is reported by her physician, Dr. Prill, to be holding her own with some encouraging indications.

The foundation of the Richardson cottage is now ready and construction of the building will commence in a short time.

Walter Peterson, of Lebanon, was exhibiting a two-headed calf and a two-headed-six-legged goat in Albany on the 4th.

The receipts at the Albany post office during the past year were $18,194.72 an increase over last year of $2,543.82.

Scio's emasculated ball team, like Jim Jeffries, went down to defeat over at Stayton on the 4th. The score was Stayton 5, Scio 2.

Jim Jeffries has retired to his alfalfa farm. He made a mistake when he came out from retirement to fight "Mistah Johnsoning."

It is time now to begin selecting grasses and grains for the Fair. Let the exhibit, in this particular line, be as complete as possible.

From reports and what the NEWS man has been able to see, the crops in Linn of all kinds will be better than for a number of years.

The Darkies prayed for the success of Johnson. This may or may not be regarded as a proof that prayer is answered, just as one looks at it.

I have a car of extra Star A Star shingles. They are extra nice. Price, $2.50 per M. Call and examine before buying elsewhere.

N. I. MORRISON

When work begins on the dam, our town will be without both lights and water for a few days. Our citizens should be unusually careful and watchful about fire.

All-steel window screens which you can leave in the window and which will not interfere with raising or lowering the window, for sale at the Scio Planing Mill. N. I. Morrison.

A representative of the Tebault real estate firm was showing some possible land purchasers about in this vicinity Wednesday. He reported that they had made several sales, lately.

Bills are out for a match game of ball on the Scio grounds, next Sunday, between our local team and an aggregation from Shaw, Marion county. The Shaw team is said to be fast and a good game is assured.

But little money was wagered on the Reno fight in Scio and most every one who made a wager was sorry for it. Those that bet on Jeffries were sorry they lost and those who bet on Johnson were sorry they won.

Shelburn established a sort of electric car service on the 4th, from there to Stayton. The car was primitive in origin, many of which will be in use during the next few days. Its ordinary every day name is "hay-rack," the motive power was four equine quadrupeds and the juice was a buckskin whip in the hands of the jehu. The passenger list embraced a majority of the population of Shelburn's leading citizens and numbered 35. A splendid time was reported.

Jim Bilyeu was a Jeffries backer and in order to get the wire reports at first hands, went over to Albany, last Monday afternoon. But the expected victory for Jeffries was not flashed over the wires and Jim like about one-half of the bettors, came out on the losing end. As he failed to return on the following morning, the boys who stayed at home, concluded that he was dead and out of respect to the deceased, decorated his office door with crape with a paper attached thereto bearing the words "Dead but not Forgotten."

Neighbor- hood News

West Scio Items

T. V. Reed and son, Clyde, of Portland, were visitors at W. J. Burden's last Sunday and contemplate moving up a little later on.

Miss Vera Nodine from Union, Ore., visited a few days last week with her uncle J. C. Winston.

Southern Pacific painters are fixing up the depot here in fine shape this week.

Paul Tompkins was home over Sunday and the Fourth, returning to his work in Portland Tuesday, a. m.

At a recent meeting of school district No. 68—James Arnold was elected clerk, Al Arnold and Frank Shores directors.

Roe Phillips and wife spent the Fourth at Stayton, and report a very good time, especially in meeting with their old time friends and schoolmates.

Mrs. McLoughlin, nee Quigley, who with her husband has been for several weeks visiting at her old home here, have now gone to Salem to reside.

C. Dunigan and family of Portland are visiting at Paul Tompkins. He is a mail-carrier in the Rose City, and is now taking his annual vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Young arrived here last Sunday night from Alberta, Canada, looking for a warmer place to spend the remainder of their days, and have decided to settle down here and build up a home at once.

Twenty-seven West Scioans, went over to the Santiam on the fourth, for a picnic, swinging, bathing, songs and recitations, interspersed with all kinds of good things to eat was the order of the day, and everybody had a good time.

EVANDA

Central Willamette Medical Society Meeting

The next meeting of this society will be held at Scio on Thursday evening, September 1, at the pavilion on the fair grounds.

This will be an open meeting for the benefit of the public, and the subjects under consideration at this time are those in which the people should all be interested.

Dr. Calvin S. White, State Health officer, of Portland, will present the following subject: "Water Supplies and their Relation to Typhoid Fever."

Dr. Morell, V. S., of Corvallis, will present a paper on: "Tuberculosis in Cattle, and Tests for Same."

Wisconsin Brook Trout

J. F. Wesely received, yesterday, 30,000 Wisconsin brook trout which were planted in Thomas and Crabtree creeks. The little fellows arrived in good condition and required 10 ten-gallon milk cans to convey them from the fish car to the planting grounds.

Our local fishermen should give the newly planted fish every protection possible. No better fish swims than the eastern brook trout.

Livery Stable Changes Hands

Last Saturday J. L. Calavan went over to Lebanon and completed the sale of his livery barn, stock and fixtures to James Pound. The barn had belonged to Lee Bilyeu and J. L. Calavan, each owning half. Mr. Pound sold his farm, situated two miles east of Lebanon to Mr. Bilyeu receiving the barn and stock in payment. Mr. Calavan received cash for his interest.

Elmer Young and two friends, Messrs Buffton and Clark came up from Portland, last Saturday evening for a couple of days fishing. Chas. Warner acted in the capacity of chap-erone, piloting the fishermen to the sporting grounds. But for some reason their baskets were not overburdened with speckled beauties. The thoughts of the trio must have been directed Renoward. It was a case of too much Johnson.

Mr. John Seigmund, ex-county recorder of Marion county, passed through town, last Sunday en route for Lebanon.

Before You Purchase Your Spring Suit

You owe it to yourself to come in and see the extraordinary values we offer. Not only does the price talk, but remember we are the style and quality shop of Linn Co.

You are welcome whether you desire to purchase now or not. Look over our line, then you will know when you are right. Our time is yours.

We never disappoint

THE BLAIN CLOTHING CO.

ALBANY

OREGON

OFFICERS	DIRECTORS
PRESIDENT, W. F. Gill.	J. J. Barnes, W. F. Gill,
SECRETARY, C. A. WARDEN	J. A. Bilyeu, J. R. Barnes,
	C. A. Warner.

Scio Milling Company

SUCCESSORS TO
SCIO ROLLER MILLS

INCORPORATED DECEMBER 28, 1904.

We do a General Custom Milling Business. Flour and Feed on Sale. Wheat Bought and Exchanged for Flour. We are in the Field for Business and Will Treat You Right

Spend the Summer

AT

Newport, Yaquina Bay

The Only Beach in the Pacific Northwest

Where the pretty Water and Moss Agates, Moonstones, Carnelians and Rock Oysters are found.

Out Door Sports of All Kinds

Including Hunting, Fishing, Boating, digging Rock Oysters, Surf Bathing, Riding, Autoing, Canoeing and dancing. Pure mountain water and the best of food at low price. Fresh crabs, clams, oysters, fish and vegetables of all kinds daily. Ideal Damping Grounds with strict sanitary regulations, at nominal cost.

Low Round-Trip Season Tickets

From all points in Oregon, Washington, and Idaho on sale daily.

THREE DAY-SATURDAY TO MONDAY RATE

from S. P. points, Portland to Cottage Grove inclusive, including branch lines; also from all C. & E. stations Albany and west. Good going Saturday or Sunday, and for return Sunday or Monday

Sunday Excursion Rate of $1.50

from Albany, Corvallis and Philomath, with corresponding low rates from points west, in effect all summer. Call on any S. P. or C. & E. Agent for full particulars as to rates, train schedules, etc., or write to

WM. McMURRAY

General Passenger Agent

Portland, Oregon