"I won't, mamma," said the proud young beauty. "If he gets cheery over it I'll give him the clammy flipper the next time he blows in here."—Chicago Tribune.

A Movable Feast.

She has a biscuit-colored hat,
 With plumes of olive green.
 Beneath the mushroom crown so fat
 A bunch of cherries may be seen.

'Tis perched upon her chestnut hair
 Above her shrimp-pink gown.
 And from her little neck so fair
 A chain of oyster pearls hangs down

Her coat is made of Persian lamb,
 And frogs are all the style.
 She doesn't mind at all the 'jam,'
 Because she's got 'em beat a mile.

And scallops, points of every size,
 Go floating round her feet.
 When she goes mincing down the street
 She looks just good enough to eat
 —Harper's Weekly.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

One Woman Has Her Rights.

Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Rafferty were exchanging ideas across the shabby fence which separated their respective domains. The conversation turned on the subject of woman suffrage. The Philadelphia Record quotes the first lady as saying, "Are ye taking much stock in this attempt that a lot of th' wimmin are making to get th' vote fr us, Mrs. Rafferty?"
 "I ain't bothering me head about it," declared Mrs. Rafferty. "I'm satisfied to let Dinny and th' boys do all th' voting for me family. But I do think that a lady shud get a man's pay."
 "Well," replied Mrs. Kelly, "all I kin say is, Mrs. Rafferty, that I get one man's pay, or know the reason why, ivery Saturday night."

Gave Himself Away.

"I've made a discovery about Mrs. Blockaway's husband," said Mrs. Kawber. "At some time in his life he was a professional cook."
 "How do you know?" asked Mrs. Crossway.
 "I happened in there yesterday and found him getting the dinner himself. The girl had left and his wife was sick. He was putting on the table a lot of things he had got at a delicatessen store, and he was doing it properly. If he had been just an ordinary husband, you know, he would have put them all on in the original packages."—Chicago Tribune.

Unavoidable Delay.

These are the telegrams that passed between the publishing house and the owner of the summer resort hotel:
 "What is the reason you have not sent us the copy for the pamphlet announcing your summer opening?"
 "I mailed the copy all right, but the train was delayed several days by snow drifts along the route."—Chicago Tribune.

Probably Accidental.

Mrs. Highmus—I was glad to learn from the report the president read last night that our club is still progressing.
 Mrs. Upmore—Yes; but I thought she made too long a pause between "still" and "progressing."—Chicago Tribune.

Inside Baseball.

The catcher flashed an almost imperceptible signal at the first baseman. The first baseman glanced at the sun.

The pitcher, who had paid no attention to either, then noticed that the third baseman had changed his quid of tobacco to the other cheek.

Whereupon he sent a straight, fast ball right over the plate, and the batter made a two base hit.

It doesn't always work.

Prisoner—Yes, sir; I'm serving a term in the penitentiary for a crime I never committed. The real criminal is still at large. I tell you, it's pretty tough!

Philanthropic Visitor—It ought not to be. The joke isn't on you; it's on the jury that convicted you and the judge who sentenced you. The trouble with you, my friend, is that you don't catch the humor of the situation.—Chicago Tribune.

DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition. I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail, and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year."

Fly Repellent

Drives away Flies, Mosquitoes and Gnats. It protects horses and cattle from attacks of insects, enabling them to feed and sleep in peace. It prevents loss of weight and strength from worry caused by attacks of insects, and from the irritation of their bites and stings. There is a satisfaction in the relief it affords domestic animals from the scourge of maddening parasites and flies, besides the profit in returns. Horses do more work on less feed and cows yield more and better milk when relieved from the frenzy incited by constantly fighting a swarm of voracious, insatiable insects.
