LOCAL BREVITIES.

Men's Sox, Ties, Handkerchiefs—a new line, at Wesely & Cain's.

Scio is beginning to need an automobile doctor and hospital for injured machines.

Big reduction sale on mens and boys suits, hats and dress shirts at Wesely & Cain's.

The cherry fair at Salem, is reported to have been a greater success this year than ever.

Schillings Best. You know what. Guaranteed or your money back by Wesely's Grocery.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gill arrived at the home of his father, J. R. Gill of this city, last Saturday.

The best line of fancy and staple groceries in the Valley, at living prices at Wesely's Grocery.

Last Sunday was the hottest day of the year in Scio. Thermometers registered 95 and 96 degrees of heat.

Save your chicks by using Lee's Germezone Diamond and Lilly's Best chick feed, at Wesely's Grocery.

This is the kind of weather which causes one to appreciate ice. Scio ought to have a small ice plant. It would pay.

The base ball game scheduled for last Sunday failed to materialize. Evidently the Shaw boys considered the day too hot to play ball.

Work on the dam at the head of the race is progressing in a satisfactory manner. In a few days there will be water in abundance for power purposes.

The drowning of Miss Taylor and Mr. Francis, on Wednesday of last week, near Albany, was a distressingly sad event. They were two of Albany's most respected young people.

Morrison & Neal handles one of the very best binders on the market. It is guaranteed in every way, and more than any other machine. Call and examine before making your purchase.

NOTICE—Anyone wishing to have grain ground, will please bring the same in soon, as we will have to shut the mill down for repairs about July 15 for about ten days. The Scio Milling Company.

Steve Philippi's dander was up this week, caused by a couple of our town dogs getting at his band of sheep and scattering them about. Some were badly bitten but none were killed outright.

The Farmers Meat Market will pay the highest market price for beef, mutton, veal, pork, hides and eggs. They don't want the earth, but they do want your produce and are willing to pay for it.

P. A. Young, of Albany, recently drove his automobile from Portland to Albany in three hours and fifteen minutes. This is the record, so far, and is faster than the time made by any train on the Southern Pacific.

LOST—On July 4th in Lacombe grove, a purse containing $15 in gold and some silver. A reward of $5 will be given the finder. For description call on or write to, J. H. Hassler, Crabtree, Ore. Home phone 255 Scio, Ore.

New line of fancy clocks at Wesely & Cain's, from $1 to $8.50.

Dr. Prill has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the legislature.

R. L. Devaney and Dr. Prill drove over to Albany, Monday, in Devaney's auto in one hour.

Newton Crabtree, aged 64 years, probably the oldest native of Linn county, registered as a democrat, Tuesday morning.

E. C. Roberts, of Lebanon, who will have charge of the assembling of the agricultural exhibit for the fair, came over Tuesday.

Almost as much opposition to prize fight moving pictures is being manifested all over the country as was made against the fight itself.

Next week the NEWS man will be absent. Our local pages will depend upon others. We hope our correspondents will aid them by sending in news letters.

The Marion lake party, of which Joe Wesely is guide and chief fisherman started on their trip yesterday (Thursday) morning. There will be great stories to tell when they get back, but they are fishermen and—

Our automobile owners make so many trips to various places that they do not give our local news gatherer time to give them a personal. We did learn, however, that Jack Bilyeu and family went up to Halsey, last Saturday.

Lebanon has filed a complaint with the railroad commission, of the passenger service between that city and Albany. The complaint alleges that the trains are irregular and that the passenger coaches are insufficient for the traffic.

A number of our citizens have expressed a desire that T. M. Holt should stand for the office of county commissioner. Mr. Holt is an expert road builder, a successful business farmer and, should he consent to stand, the NEWS will gladly support him.

The Linnhaven Orchard company, whose holdings are up in the Lacombe country, are dividing the same into ten-acre lots preparatory to selling the same. These lands are said to be equal to Hood river or Rogue river lands for the growing of apples. Scio has thousands of acres equally as good.

Quite a little excitement was caused, last Monday morning, by a bovine quadruped of the male persuasion who refused to be either lead or be driven. He took refuge in the creek and it required about all the men and dogs in town to get him out. Finally Tom Large managed to get hold of the rope and Bill Brenner behind with a pitchfork persuaded his majesty that it was more comfortable to travel than to stand still.

A baby came to our house, last Monday. The little fellow was entirely unexpected. In fact the NEWS family has quit the baby business some years ago. Nevertheless, we have a baby. It is quite two months old, is white and exceedingly bright for its age. It is our purpose to raise the little chap up in the ways of truth and soberness and in a way that will not bring the blush of shame to its owners, for it is only a little baby dog.

We regret to learn that Fred Sommers was seriously hurt while assisting in the building of a new barn he is erecting, last week. One of his ankles was crushed and one or two of his ribs broken. The damage aside from the pain and inconvenience is more important just at this time when harvest is at hand, than it would be at other times of the year. So far as we know, at the present writing, he is getting along as well as could be expected. Dr. Prill thinks he will not have a stiff ankle.

On going into his office Monday afternoon, Hon. W. R. Bilyeu found a man at his desk writing furiously upon a piece of paper, which was shown him when completed and another begun. Mr. Bilyeu saw that something was the matter with the fellow, who claimed to want some advice. He succeeded in notifying Sheriff Smith, who came and took charge of the fellow who, upon investigation was learned to be John M. Kerby, who had escaped from the asylum and was being hunted. He was taken to the jail and kept for an attendant of the asylum. Kerby has been in the asylum for six years.—Albany Democrat.

To Members of Linn County Fair Association

The annual season tickets for members are now ready and can be secured at the Scio State Bank.

Please call for your ticket before August 28, as no ticket will be issued after the fair opens to members.

Crabtree Collings

Miss Edna Meyers, who has been working in Portland for some time, has returned to her home.

Last Saturday morning Jacob Bilyeu and daughters, Misses Winnie and Ethel and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Auderway and little son Hollis, went up to the Gaines mill on Roaring river after blackberries. They returned home Sunday morning but their pails were empty.

Rev. Helemas, of Lacombe, held church services at Crabtree Sunday night.

Mr. Chatfield was a visitor at Bud Bilyeu's Sunday and he was, also, looking over his new farm.

Bessie Wadol returned home Sunday night from a several weeks visit at Vancouver, Washington.

Mr. Easton went down to near Turner, Sunday, on a visit.

Marion Thomas is very poorly.

Crabtree is almost at a standstill about the high school.

THE BOOST TOWN

The Progress of Insurgency

A high note in Republican politics was struck last week by Gifford Pinchot and James A. Garfield at St. Paul. The insurgency which La Follette began and has fought for steadily, and toward which Cummins, Dolliver, Murdock and a handful of other Republican leaders in western states have turned, is vitalized as a national movement by those speeches. They hold aloft the old Republican banner of moral ideals, under which the Republican party originally won in American politics the place it has long since justly forfeited and is now beginning visibly to lose. Whether purposely or not, Mr. Pinchot's speech sketches in broad outline, and Mr. Garfield's accentuates, the issues in our politics which have torn the Democratic party hopelessly asunder and at last pulling the Republican party apart. The development of those issues is apparently leading on to a complete national realignment of parties, with privileged interests on one side and a genuine democracy, alive with moral ideals, on the other. What the attempted extension of slavery was to American politics in the fifties, the obstruction of trade by tariffs and of original production by land monopoly, promise to be to American politics now; and in that connection the Pinchot and Garfield speeches have much the sound of a clarion call.—Ex.

"Drop In Any Time."

One of the pitfalls of friendship is the standing invitation. It is easy and pleasant to say: "Come whenever you like, my dear! We shall be delighted to see you at any time; don't stand on ceremony—come whenever you are this way." But let those who receive such invitations beware. It stands to reason that an unexpected visit cannot always be convenient—the hostess is in the midst of something or other and "not fit to be seen," or her husband has rushed home to take her out somewhere and she would rather go than stay at home and entertain her dearest friend, or the luncheon or the dinner is a makeshift—very nice, so far as the family is concerned, but not exactly suitable to set before visitors. The hostess tries to be nice, but can't help showing her vexation or embarrassment. The guest perceives something indefinable in the atmosphere and is accordingly constrained, and every one is uncomfortable. Yet people still go on giving and accepting standing invitations.—New York Tribune.

From Bad to Worse.

A gentleman was admiring his pigeons the other afternoon when he heard a curious "thud" and saw one of his birds drop from a window sill to the ground.

Turning round, the gentleman was just in time to see a small boy in the lane drop a catapult and run.

After a short chase the culprit was caught.

"You young scoundrel!" ejaculated the angry owner of the pigeon. "What do you mean by coming and shooting my birds?"

"Please, sir, I didn't mean to do it," whined the captive. "I—I didn't shoot at the pigeon."

"Come, come," said the gentleman, "don't make matters worse. I saw the bird fall, and if you did not aim at it how came you to hit it?"

"Please, sir," blubbered the boy, "the pigeon got in the way. I—I was aiming at the winder."—London Tit-Bits.
