Vain Attempt to Show Off.

A youthful masculine, scarce three years old, was listening to a story by his mother, but despite his devotion to her stories, kept making unaccountable excursions to a clear space on the park lawn and solemnly airing his sole physical accomplishment of a neat somersault. The mother wondered, but asked no questions. Presently, however, the mystery was explained. Another boy, seated near the open space with his parents, rose and walked away. The little acrobat sighed sadly. "I guess he never even saw me," he remarked.

Where Addison Was Married.
St. Edmund's, Lombard street, London, the rectory of which is vacated by the death of omniscient Canon Bonham, had previously possessed literary associations. The register records the marriage of Joseph Addison to the dowager countess of Warwick on August 3, 1719. Dr. Johnson grimly remarks that this match resembled the marriages in which a sultan gives his daughter a man to be her slave; and Addison used to escape from the uncomfortable splendor of Holland house to a modest house at Kensington.

Rubber Planted on Waste Land.
The wide reaches of waste lands on the island of Singapore, which have been of no use since the culture of gambier, coffee, and pepper was given up, are now the scenes of great activity. Rubber plants are being set out over these wastes and seem to do well. In the suburbs of Singapore city a considerable area of swamp land has been drained and converted into a nursery for Para rubber plants, which are sold at a good profit to the planters.

French Woman's Long Sleep.
A curious case is that of a woman in the hospital at Alencon, France, who has been asleep for 30 days, and, unlike most patients who fall into a lethargy, this patient has a perfectly normal temperature. Her teeth are rigidly set, and she has to be fed through a tube, which was introduced with great difficulty, and has been left between her teeth.
How He Knew.
"Love is blind," said the pessimistic looking man, quoting this worn-out chestnut axiom with as much fervor as its originator could have done. "How do you know?" questioned the severe-looking woman with the high cheek bones. "I'm married," said he.

LIVELY SHOW AT PENDLETON.

Frontier Celebration and Roundup Will Be "Wild and Woolly."

Pendleton—The final touches of the program for the Round Up and Frontier celebration which is held at Pendleton this year, September 28 to October 1, have been made, the list of prizes and purses finally decided upon, the wild horses secured, the famous bucking horses secured and everything is ready now. The program with the purses and prizes is as follows:
Bucking contest for the championship of the Northwest: Purse, $125 and silver mounted saddle and championship of the Northwest.
One half of the contestants in this event are entered to ride the first day and one half to ride the second day.
Riders for each day to be determined by lot, horses furnished by the Round Up and riders to draw for mounts. Not less than six of the best riders of the first two days will be chosen by the judges to ride the third day in the final championship riding. Each contestant to ride any horse and as often as the judges may deem necessary; riding to be with plain halter, one end of rope free, with chaps and spurs, no quirt, all riding slick, no saddle trees over 14 inches wide to be used. Purse divided: first, $50 and championship mounted saddle; second, $50; third, $25. Fifty dollars is offered by the management for the best bucking horse; $15 for second; $10 for third, and $5 for fourth.

Steer roping contest for Championship of Northwest. Two men to each entry. The steer to have thirty feet start of the roper. One man to catch the steer by the horns and the other man to throw the rope on his hind feet and hold him. One man dismounts and throws steer and hog-ties him. If the steer is down before the man dismounts he must be allowed to regain his feet before being thrown and tied. Three minutes is the limit on this event.
Wild horse race: This event is open to all. Purse, $200.
This contest is probably the most exciting event of its kind ever seen in the Northwest. The contestant, each with one assistant, is lined up on the starting tape. The gun is fired. He must then rope, saddle, mount and ride his wild horse once around the track.
Pony express race: First prize, $50 cash and silver mounted saddle; second, $30, and third $20. Each rider to have two ponies and one assistant. No race horses can be entered.
Ladies' relay race: First prize, $75 cash and Northwest championship cup; second, $50, and third $25.
Men's relay race (cowpony): First prize, $75 cash and silver cup; second $50 and third, $25.
Packers race: First prize, $25 and Stetson hat; second $15 and third, $10. In this contest the entryman must furnish his own horse, saddle and rope. The load to be packed will be furnished by the management.
These are the main events. The others are: Maverick race each day; barrel race, three races, one each day; cowpony hurdle race; slow mule race; men's cowpony race each day; Ladies' cowpony race each day; ladies' riding contests; ladies' shooting contests; ladies' roping contest; men's riding, roping and shooting contests; Indian squaw races, Indian races, Indian riders and war dancers.
As a side feature there will be Buffalo Vernon, who throws a steer single handed and holds him down with his teeth. This is an event that has been put on at the Cheyenne shows with great success. Vernon rides into the arena on a horse, jumps from the horse to the back of the steer, slips down between the horns, gets a strangle hold and downs the steer. It is wildly exciting.
Special rates of one and one-third fare have been made by all railroads from all points in the Northwest.

Dark blue homespun is used for this early Fall suit. The jacket effect is novel. In front there is a panel from waist to hem, in semi-princess style. Silk is self color is used for banding and there is just a touch of braiding on the waist.

Educational Discipline.
Most persons will find difficulties and hardships enough without seeking them; let them not repine, but take them as a part of that educational discipline necessary to fit the mind to arrive at its highest good.—Charles Bray.

Biliousness

"I have used your valuable Cascarets and I find them perfect. Couldn't do without them. I have used them for some time for indigestion and biliousness and am now completely cured. Recommend them to everyone. Once tried, you will never be without them in the family."—Edward A. Marx, Albany, N. Y.
Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Grip. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C. C. C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.

Tenant's Reward.
A certain landlord called on a tenant one day and said: "Jones, I'm going to raise your rent." "What for?" Jones asked, anxiously. "Have taxes gone up?" "No, not at all," the landlord answered, "but I see you've painted the house and put in a new range and bathtub. That, of course, ought to make it bring more rent."

Drink Dole's Pure Hawaiian Pineapple Juice

The Pure, Refined Juice of "Picked Ripe" Hawaiian Pineapple Bottled Right.

A new product; a new drink; a new appetizer; and a new healthful habit.

It's Pure—Drink it Pure

Nothing has been added to the juice at any stage of the refining process—no sugar, no water, no preservative—literally and absolutely nothing. We simply free the juice from such coarse matter as will filter out and then sterilize it in the bottle.

It's Hawaiian Pineapple

Grown under the tropical skies of Hawaii. The juice of a ripe Hawaiian Pineapple is just a mixture of dew, sunshine and oxygen. It is purer than spring water.

It's the Drink Delightful

Clear as crystal, beautiful as liquid amber, smooth, mellow and satisfying to the taste; Dole's Pure Hawaiian Pineapple Juice is as much an appetizer as a cocktail, which in fact it can easily replace. Non-alcoholic of course.

Where to Find It

Ask the man at the soda fountain for a glass or a bottle; or ask your grocer for quarts, pints or smaller bottles. If you should not easily find Dole's Pure Hawaiian Pineapple Juice, write us for booklet and directions where to get it. Send for this useful menu booklet anyway.
