Peculiar Rose in English Garden.
Mr. William Tweedle of Stanhope, England, has growing in his garden a novelty in the shape of a bell-shaped moss rose. Gardeners declare that they have never before seen or heard of a moss rose of that color. The bush, which stands four feet high, contains about a dozen buds, besides two or three roses in full bloom.

Good Artificial Marble.
They are now making artificial marble with much success in Sicily. The manufacture is in the shadow of Mount Etna and there common blocks of sandstone are put in a tank containing volcanic asphalt and coal tar and boiled for 24 hours. The stones are then taken out and polished and it is said that it takes an expert to tell them from black marble.

Lots of Fun.
The sweet little sole sister of a large family was asked if she didn't have a lot of fun with the big brothers who were at once her slaves and tyrants, her adoring and adored. "Yes'm," came the surprising response, accompanied by a scrupulous smile, "we have lots of fun always. Sometimes," the wide eyes waxing fascinatingly reminiscent and dreamy, "sometimes they fight me, and sometimes I fight them!"

Humor in Signs.
A New York shop exhibits a card warning everybody against unscrupulous persons "who infringe our title to deceive the public." The shopman does not quite say what he means, any more than the proprietor of an eating house, on the door of which may be read the following announcement, conveying fearful intelligence to the gallant tars who frequent port: "Sailors' vitals cooked here."

The Cost of a Soul.
A recent query sent out as to the cost of saving a soul in Chicago brought some interesting answers. It was found that the Mormons figured on spending $1,500 for every person converted, whereas the Volunteers of America set the cost as low as $5. These were the highest and lowest prices named.

WHITE SERGE IN THE TUB
If Washing Is Done Carefully the Skirt Will Look Like New; Directions.

With the present vogue of white serge suits, a few ideas on their cleaning may be of interest to the woman whose skirts are beginning to show signs of wear.
Have no hesitation whatever about tubbing the skirt. It will shrink, of course, so it may be wise to rip the hem before washing, because, supposing the skirt fits the hips very smoothly at present, then in all probability it will be necessary to draw up the skirt an inch or two to make it set properly over the hips.
This would necessitate cutting it off from the top, and as the skirt will also shrink in length, the rest of the hem will be needed on the bottom and a facing used when making the new hem.

Make a warm suds with water and white soap, adding a little borax. Immerse the skirt and souse up and down, rubbing any very soiled places with the hands.

When clear it should be rinsed in clear lukewarm water and borax, then hung up to dry. First, turn wrong side out and pin to the line at waist-band directly in center front.

Keep the fold down the center front and pin the hem to the line. Then put two or three pins between the belt and hem.

As it dries the folds should be smoothed, and, if necessary, the skirt pulled into shape.

When almost perfectly dry press on the wrong side with a warm iron, put on a skirt hanger and put out in the air or sun.

Carefully done, the skirt will look like new.

The LAUNDRY

The Wash Tub—Did you ever try paraffin for mending a leaky wash tub? When ours sprung a leak some time ago we emptied it, dried it well with a cloth, and poured melted paraffin around the cracks. It has been in constant use ever since without leaking.

When the washing is done the tub should be put upside down on the basement floor, a little water poured over the bottom, and they never will dry out and fall to pieces.

The Wash Boiler.—When putting the boiler away, wipe it as dry as possible and always place it upside down. In this way it will last for years. This hint was given me by an old boiler mender and I never have had to have my boiler repaired since.

To Wash Clothes Lines.—A good way to wash clothes lines is to wind them on a long board and scrub them with a scrubbing brush. You will find that in this way you keep them from getting tangled. It is so hard to wind them when you wash them in the tub.
Fading Caused by Hot Irons.—Fading is caused by too hot irons. The fading of colored articles is due often not to the washing, but the ironing. Too hot irons are used directly on the material and this will fade delicate colors more than any amount of washing. The effect is even worse than strong sunlight. Be sure that the article is evenly dampened and that the iron is only hot enough to smooth the wrinkles properly by firm, even pressure and you will have no more trouble from fading. Skirts must never be ironed across the gores, but up and down; otherwise the fit of the garment is ruined.—Chicago Tribune

To Keep Lettuce Fresh.
Place the lettuce stems downward in a small tin pail, sprinkle with water, put the cover on tightly and set in a cool place. It will keep fresh for days.

Roman Pie.
One-fourth pound cold meat, minced, two ounces of grated cheese, three ounces cooked macaroni, one cooked onion, pepper, salt and mustard, one-half ounce butter, a little vermicelli. Grease a plain mold with the butter and sprinkle the vermicelli over. Line the mold with short crust. Mix all the ingredients together and moisten with a little milk; put it into the mold. Then cover the top with Adjustment.

Divorce is increasing, insanity is increasing, parental authority is declared to be prostrate, the boy is not what he was! Surely we must be heading for the bow-wows, and progressing fast. Not at all. We are merely getting adjusted to the greatest changes in the conditions of human existence that any one generation of men has seen in centuries. And possibly it is true that high prices on food are helping our adjustment by driving some city dwellers back into the country.—Harper's Weekly

Seasickness Nothing New.
One of the most curious errors as to seasickness is that it is a suffering which the sturdier ancients did not know. Really there is plenty of allusion to the trouble in the ancient classics. Above all there was that bout of seasickness which according to Seneca, cost Cicero his life. It was so bad that rather than endure it any longer he put back to land, risking certain death at the hands of Mark Antony's agents if they caught him, as they did. The word "nausea" is Greek, meaning literally "shipptious."

He Made a Hit.
Blinky—"My gracious, old man, you are all banged up." Crankleigh—"You have hit it." Blinky—"What did you do—dispute the right of way with an automobile?" Crankleigh—"No. Took a drop too much." Blinky—"Why, I didn't know you drank." Crankleigh—"I don't. The drop I took was from an aeroplane 20 feet from the ground."

Pigs are troubled by rheumatism more than by any other disease. Its work is so luscious oftentimes and its attacks so various in form that it is not recognized, but it may be set down as a rule that if the pig be afflicted by some mysterious malady, particularly one that incapacitates it in some manner, it is rheumatism.—Country Life in America

Constipation
"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you, I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity. B. F. Fisher, Rossmore, Ill.
