DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful Cascares for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascares' for their wonderful composition. I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail, and I find that Cascares relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year."

In Other Words.

"The situation was funny enough to make a horse laugh," said the Chicago girl.

"Indeed!" exclaimed the Boston maid. "I never witnessed an equine cachinnation."

PISO'S is the name to remember when you need a remedy for COUGHS and COLDS

WHEN A MAN IS A FAILURE.

When he values success more than character and self-respect.

When he has no confidence in himself nor in his fellow men.

When he does not try to make his work a little better each day.

When he loves his own plans and interests more than humanity.

When he tries to rule others by bullying instead of by example.

When he knows that he is in the wrong, but is afraid to admit it.

When his friends like him for what he has more than for what he is.

When he values wealth above health, self-respect, and the good opinion of others.

When he is so busy doing that he has no time for smiles and cheering words.

When he is so burdened by his business that he finds no time for rest and recreation.

When he lets a day go by without making some one happier and more comfortable.

When he envies others because they have more ability, talent, or wealth than he has.

When he becomes so absorbed in his work that he cannot see that life is greater than work.

When he does not care what happens to his neighbor or to his friend so long as he is prosperous.

The Heavy Heart.

Great calamities do not embitter existence. It is the petty vexations, the small jealousies, the little disappointments, that make the heart heavy and the temper sour. Don't let them. Anger is pure waste of vitality. It helps nobody and hinders everybody. No woman does her best except when she is cheerful. A light heart makes busy hands and keeps the mind free and alert. No misfortune is so great as one that sours the temper.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

FASHION HINTS

A neat dress for morning is made on the most simple of lines. It is one piece in style, and depends entirely for trimming effect on the contrasting material used in the collar and cuffs.

PEOPLE AND THINGS.

The harpy eagle of Brazil feeds exclusively on monkeys.

London has 2,150 miles of streets and 390 miles of tramways.

Eighty-seven in every hundred Canadian farmers own their own farms.

Cooked food is sold from automobiles in the streets of Paris, Berlin and Moscow.

Six arc lamps installed in a London theater, in 1873, were the first electric lamps used commercially in that city.

Costa Rica is solidly on a gold basis and experiences none of the disadvantages of fluctuations in the price of silver for exchange.

The latest estimate placed on the wheat crop in Chile for the harvest of 1910 fixes the yield at 23,542,000 bushels—a big gain over 1909.

Though blessed with the most fertile soil and most favorable climate in the world, the United States produce less wheat an acre planted than England, Germany or Holland.

Newitt C. Baldwin, the oldest official of the Methodist Church in Verona, N. J., estimates that he has walked 25,000 miles in going from his home to the church and back in the last fifty-five years. His home is one mile from the church.

The declared exports from Smyrna to the United States increased from $2,413,937 in 1908 to $3,793,825 in 1909. Opium shipments increased from $411,684 to $1,091,950 and carpets from $149,278 to $349,129, and tobacco from $257,831 to $430,136.

Mrs. Mary Bruen, mother of the Reverend J. de Hart Bruen, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Belvidere, N. J., is 84 years old and has spent seventy-two years of her life in teaching Sunday school. At present she has charge of a Bible class in her son's church.

Maurice Maeterlinck, whose literary craft is a marvel of the present day, and who has just produced in London the successful drama, "Bluebird," is a delightful talker to one or two friends. When faced by half a dozen or more he becomes as shy as a school-girl and cannot be driven into speech.

The Real Thing.

Fred, aged three, had been a naughty boy, and his mother had punished him. He felt very much hurt and complained to his auntie about his mamma's spanking him. Auntie said: "It is not you that mamma spanks, but a little devil inside of you who makes you do naughty things." After sitting very still for five minutes he said: "It beats all how it hurts me when that devil gets spanked."—The Delineator.

Physician's First Thought.

A physician was driving along the street when his horse took fright and ran away. He was thrown violently to the sidewalk, and knocked senseless. Presently he recovered a little from his unconsciousness, and, noticing the crowd which had gathered about him, remarked: "What's the matter, gentlemen? Anybody hurt? I'm Doctor B—, Can I be of any service?"

Possibly Greatest of All Tasks.

Louisa M. Alcott once wrote: "To rear ten virtuous children, put ten useful men and women into the world and give them health and courage to work out their own salvation is a better job done for the Lord than winning a battle or ruling a state."

One Thing That Will Live Forever.

PETIT'S EYE SALVE, first box sold in 1807, over 100 years ago, sales increase yearly. All druggists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y.

Cradles Unfashionable.

Cradles are going out; children are not wearing them any more. People tell us that rocking is unhygienic; babies, according to modern idea, should go to sleep naturally in a stationary germ-proof bed, with antiseptic pillows and sanitized rattle. Sentiment may save the cradle for a little while, but sooner or later it will go to the dusty attic along with the hair-cloth sofa. Maybe the infant of to-morrow will bear up somehow under these accumulated misfortunes, will struggle along somehow to maturity, but what about the artists, the poets, the song writers? What a world of sentiment and melody has been woven around the theme of the mother and the gently rocking cradle! What kind of song will the poor poet of the future be able to make about an enamelled iron crib with brass trimmings?—Success Magazine.

Always Worth Waiting For.

If success seems abominably slow in being attained, it is worth while remembering that the quickest and surest way to render it absolutely impossible to give up trying for it, or to try for it like some people act when they find themselves in deep water—throw their arms and feet all about in desperation.

Pleasant News for Author.

A local author went to the library to get a copy of his own latest book. He had a friend with him. "Is 'Pate and Posing' in?" he inquired. "Yes, sir," answered the librarian, promptly. "But how do you know without looking?" "It's never been out yet!"—Cleveland Leader.

No Protection for Seagulls.

Seagulls have increased in numbers so enormously in Devonshire, and have caused so much damage to fish, that the Devon Sea fisheries committee has passed a resolution in favor of the removal of protection from the birds and their eggs. It was estimated that one gull ate ten fish in twenty-four hours.—Pall Mall Gazette.

In Gracious June.

June is God's aim to the poor. He feeds them with the sweet air, he clothes their naked bodies with the warmth of the sunshine. I never feel inclined to be charitable in June. It seems to me that heaven has taken it off my hands, and I am sorry for no one.—From "Gathered Leaves" of Mary E. Coleridge.
