The Girl Who Lives Alone

whether she attends college or goes to business, needs the Perfection Oil Heater. It will heat a cold, cheerless boarding house or dormitory room and make it livable. It is always a ready help in the many things women do for themselves in their rooms. With the damper top opened it will heat water for tea or cocoa; it will dry the small articles that a woman prefers to wash herself in her own room. It will quickly heat an iron or curling tongs; quickly dry wet shoes or skirts—an ever ready help for the woman who lives alone, dependent on her own resources. The

PERFECTION
SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

Is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. It will burn nine hours with one filling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless; has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unscrewed in an instant for reworking. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Curiously Expressed.
Curious ways of expressing ideas in English may be expected from foreigners, as, for instance, when the Frenchman, who made a call in the country and was about to be introduced to the family, said: "Ah, so ladies! Zen I would before, if you please, wish to purify mine hands and to sweep mine hair."

Cigar Boxes for Pepper.
Connecticut is an enterprising state. Its chief products in the good old days before the pure food laws were wooden nutmegs and basswood hams. Now she boasts a philanthropist who was recently arrested for grinding up cigar boxes and selling the result as pepper.

There is no use trying to keep well with imperfect digestion, clogged bowels and sluggish liver. Take a short course of the Bitters. It always corrects such ills and greatly improves your general health.

Blood Humors

Commonly cause pimples, boils, hives, eczema or salt rheum, or some other form of eruption; but sometimes they exist in the system, indicated by feelings of weakness, languor, loss of appetite, or general debility, without causing any breaking out.

They are expelled and the whole system is renovated, strengthened and toned by Certainly Annoying.

The Circle Railroad in London describes a circle whose diameter is about 10 miles. In the car was an old and very obese lady, who expressed the utmost solicitude lest she be carried past her station. A passenger assured her that her station was half an hour away, and that he would tell her when they reached it.

"Thank you very much, sir," said the old lady, "but whenever I get out, bein' as 'ow I'm so 'eavy, I back out; an' I ain't more than 'arf way out afore along comes a guard, an' 'e says, 'Look lively there, mum,' says 'e, 'Look lively, an' 'e pushes me back. In again, an' I've been round the circle three times this morning!"

New York's Night Workers.

It is generally supposed that the night workers are few in number, but careful canvases shows that the total number of persons who work after sundown in New York reaches the figure of 53,000. This is equal to the population of each of such cities as Springfield, Mass., Hoboken, N. J., Savannah, Ga., Utica, N. Y., and Elizabeth, N. J.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

A Doubtful Member.

In Miss Wood's kindergarten class there were eight pupils, four girls and four boys. One of the boys, however, had not yet reached the estate of Kilts to mention trousers. Accordingly when little Susan Phelps was asked by a visitor to tell how many boys and how many girls there were, her confused reasoning went as follows:

"There's eight, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, Miss Elliott," she replied. "And if he's a girl"—she pointed at one who wore dresses in stead of manly garb—"why, there's five girls, and one, two, three boys. But if she's a boy, there's one, two, three, four girls, and one, two—four boys. She's really a boy, you know Miss Elliott," she confided, in conclusion.—Youth's Companion.

Proper Fumigation.

To fumigate a room after sickness, paste strips of newspapers over cracks of windows and doors. Remove all living things. Loosen the bedding and carpets. Burn two or three formaldehyde candles (obtained at drug stores) according to directions on the box. Leave room closed six or eight hours. Open and air.

Worth Its Weight in Gold.

It's PETTIT'S EYE SALVE, strengthens eyes of the old, tonic for eye strain, weak and watery eyes. All druggists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y.

Three Hardest Words.

A learned man has said that the three hardest words to pronounce in the English language are "I was mistaken." When Frederick the Great wrote to the senate, "I have just lost a battle, and it's entirely my own fault," Goldsmith says, "his confession showed more greatness than all his victories."

Teacher—What is the meaning of the word "procrustinate?"

Pupil—To put off.

Teacher—Right. Illustrate it in a sentence.

Pupil—I tried to steal a ride on a street car yesterday, but I was procrustinated.—Toledo Blade.

Lock.

"She always was a lucky woman."

"What happened now?"

"A neighbor of hers has bought a vacuum cleaner and she can borrow it whenever she wants to."—Detroit Free Press.

SPLINTERS.

Big income—ship entering the harbor.

Too many people judge the world by their own breadth.

A man can be run down in the street as well as in health.

You want to be sure of your footing before you climb too high.

The increase in the price of leather has made shoes pinch more than ever.

Benness—A woman is always changing her mind. Jenner—Not when she decides that she wants a new gown.

It is a poor friend that will pat you on the back and kick your feet out from under you at the same time.

Boyce—I wonder what makes a dog howl when music plays. Joyce—I don't know, unless the music awakens the flea.

It Would Seem So.

The subjoined item appeared in a French newspaper: "There was found in the river this morning the body of a soldier cut to pieces and sewed up in a sack. The circumstances seem to preclude any suspicion of suicide."
