That Cold Room on the side of the house where winter blasts strike hardest always has a lower temperature than the rest of the house. There are times when it is necessary to raise the temperature quickly or to keep the temperature up for a long period.
That can't be done by the regular method of heating without great trouble and overheating the rest of the house. The only reliable method of heating such a room alone by other means is to use a PERFECTION
SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER
Absolutely smokeless and odorless which can be kept at full or low heat for a short or long time.
Four quarts of oil will give a glowing heat for nine hours, without smoke or smell.
An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font.
Filler-cap does not screw on; but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached by a chain and cannot get lost.
An automatic-locking flame spreader prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that it can be cleaned in an instant.
The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unscrewed in an instant for reworking. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental. Has a cool handle.

Urine Oil to Remove Cinders.
The man with the cinder in his eye was suffering great pain. Every one had a different method of relief to suggest, but nothing had the desired effect. At length one of the bystanders procured a little olive oil from the lunch room. This was poured into the eye and relief was instant. "I learned that method of dealing with cinders while abroad," said the bystander, "and I guess it is about as effective as anything after all."

A FOLDING CLOTHES RACK
One That Is Easily Made and Will Be Found Valuable on Wash
Day.

To every housewife the folding clothes rack, shown in the illustration, will be of the greatest value on every ironing day, and with the added advantage that it may be folded up and placed in a very small space when not in use, together with its easy construction makes it possible for every housewife to possess one. To build, a center post 2 by 2 inches is first cut and to this are nailed "feet" or a bottom support, these need not be over eight inches long when the rack is unfolded, as shown in the illustration.

It is securely braced from tipping over.
Four small uprights are now cut equal in height to the main upright and these are connected to upright with three or four crossbars upon which the clothes are hung; these are fastened with screws so as to permit the joints to work easily and each set of bars is fastened to one of the four sides of center post or upright. This permits the horizontal bars to be braced up, thus folding the rack into a small space, when not in use.—

HINTS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE Suggestions Regarding Various Phases of Housework That Are Worth Trying.

Rust on steel can be removed by rubbing sweet oil well into the surface. Let it stand two days; then rub the steel with unslaked lime until surface is clean.
When gas mantles are blackened they can be cleared by sprinkling with salt when flame is turned low. Turn light full for a minute and repeat until clear.

Try mixing flour and water for thickening with a fork instead of the usual spoon. It is less likely to turn lumpy.

Iodine stains on woodwork should be removed at once, as they make an ugly spot. Soak up with blotting paper, then rub the spot with a soft cloth moistened in camphor.

As housecleaning time approaches do not forget the use of dampened cloths in furniture-cleaning. Dust is easily removed in this way without streaking woodwork or filling lungs.

To beat furniture put damp, unfitted cloths over the upholstered parts and beat until it is black with dust; then turn to other side. Continue with fresh cloths until no more dust shows.

Learn to know what damp means, especially when used upon polished woodwork. Think it means wet and you will be reviling valuable information as "newspaper rubbish." Dip a cloth in hot water, wring it as hard as you can, then shake it in the air and it should have about the right amount of moisture.

For convenience in dish-washing have a rubber-scraper, also, a chain mop for greasy pots. Dark crash dish-cloth should be supplied for pots and pans and the use of dish towels for-bidden for this purpose.

Ground Rice Pudding.

Steam one-quarter pound of ground rice and one pint of cream a quarter of an hour, then flavor it with vanilla, add one ounce of butter, the yolks of four eggs, let it cool and beat it for half an hour; beat up the whites of the eggs to a froth, which mix in gently; steam a quarter of an hour.
Serve with one-half pint of boiled custard, having one ounce of soaked and mashed chocolate stirred well into it; pour into the bottom of the dish.
Serve.

Breakfast Dish.

When the cream of wheat is ready to serve chop quickly five bananas, sweeten with a little confectioner's sugar and a teaspoon of lemon juice, and pass through a sieve. Serve this with the wheat, with or without cream.

Veal and Peas.

Take 15 cents' worth of veal, stew until tender, take from liquor and cut in small pieces, put back in liquor and add one cup of peas, season and thicken with flour and milk.

Denouncing a Reincarnation.
Whereas an ignorant upstart in astrology has publicly endeavored to persuade the world that he is the late John Partridge, who died the 28th of March, 1718, these are to certify all whom it may concern, that the true John Partridge was not only dead at that time, but continues so to the present day. Beware of counterfeits, for such are abroad.—From a London Newspaper, 1718.

Home and Happiness.
To earn money and pay bills seems to occupy most of a man's time, and he wonders why his home isn't hap-

Net Up-to-Date.
The historic town of Bladensburg, Md., had a good bit of fun poked at it by reason of its alleged sleepiness.
For instance, the story is told that a Bladensburg merchant was dozing in his shop one day when a little boy came in with a pitcher and asked for a quart of milk. The merchant yawned, stretched himself, half opened his eyes, and then, in the most injured tone, said: "Gee whiz, Ain't there nobody that sells milk in this town but me?"

Catching On.
Timid Lover (glancing at his watch) —Well, I must be going, Miss Dora.
Time presses. Miss Dora (lowering all patience)—"I suppose so—nothing else presses! . . . How dare you! Stop.
George, you are musing my hair."
