The Domestic Band.
Father is an adept at blowing his own trumpet, while mother is equally expert at harping on one string. Mother-in-law has to play second fiddle, and Aunt Jane leads a humdrum existence. Grandpa gives every night a solo on his nasal organ, without stops; uncle spends his time in wetting his whistle, John is fond of his pipe, and Emily is forever ringing the changes on her lovers—and I'm a bit of a lyre myself.—Judge.

Restoring Ivory.
To restore ivory carvings that have become discolored, expose them under glass to the rays of the sun, after having removed the dust by brushing them with warm water and soap. Turn them from time to time, so that all sides will be equally bleached.

Conscious of Superiority.
"Bliggins seems exceedingly self-confident." "Yes. He has just bought an encyclopedia and feels that if he doesn't know more than any of the rest of us he can whenever he chooses."

Terrible Suffering
Eczema All Over Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. Inez Lewis, Haring, Maine.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood diseases and builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

A Portrait of Charles Anthon.
His outward personality was unique and impressive. He was a trifle under the average height, erect as an Indian and inclining to portliness. His head was superb and his features strong and finely cut. He was punctiliously neat in his dress, the style of which was never varied. A short sack coat hung straight from his ample shoulders, merging in front into a black satin vest and an expanse of spotless linen, relieved only by a very small gold pin, the whole surmounted by a black satin stock and a high standing collar with rounded corners.—Columbia Quarterly.

Honor Trees and Plants.
The Siamese always offer libations to trees before cutting them down. The natives of Sumatra pay special honor to certain trees supposed to embody the wood spirits, while the inhabitants of the Society Islands pay similar respect to some plants.

STARED AT PROF. BRANEFOG
Absent-Minded Pedagogue Didn't Know Whether He Had Put Baby or Wife's Hat in Oven.

The people didn't merely look at Professor Branefog—they stared. He knew he was absent-minded at times, and he wondered whether he had rubbed his face with boot polish instead of cold cream after he had shaved, or whether he had forgotten to change his dressing-gown for his frock-coat.

But a kindly policeman put things right. "Are you aware, sir, that you are carrying a joint of beef in your arms?" he asked.

"Goodness me!" said the professor. "I knew something was wrong. My wife told me to put her Sunday hat on the bed, to place this roast in the oven, and to take the baby and the dog for a walk."

"You've not put the baby in the oven, surely?" said the law's guardian. "I put something in it," said Branefog; "but I don't know whether it was the baby or the dog."

With bated breath they hurried to the professor's house. Here, on the bed, lay the baby and the dog; but it was just as bad for Branefog. It was his wife's Sunday hat that was in the oven!

FORCE OF HABIT.

Prospective Purchaser—Is that a good automobile?
Dealer (who used to sell horses)—Why, sir, that automobile is so gentle it will eat out of your hand.

Have Us Bluffed.
"You give your opponent an advantage if you let him know you are afraid," remarked the moralizer.
"Perhaps," rejoined the demoralizer, "that is why the microbes find us such easy marks."

Its Nature.
"It is a wonder that oil is such a big affair in the days' news."
"Why should it not be?"
"Because it is such a puerile matter."

No Stint.
Miss Gabbles—Yes, I invariably weigh my words.
Mr. Hunt—Well, it's a safe bet that you have never been accused of giving short weight.

Pessimistic.
"I think my boy will be a poet when he grows up."
"Oh, don't be pessimistic; he may turn out to be a useful citizen."

Lack of Courtesy.
"Did the official in the case make an excuse to his convict client for not getting his release?"
"No excuse; didn't even beg his pardon."

Choice of Evils.
"Don't you know," said the young widow, "that a bachelor is an object of public derision?"
"I have heard so," rejoined the old bachelor, "and I have also heard that a married man gets his at home."

Obliging.
"Is this where John Jones lives?"
"No, this is his home; but you can come in and call up his club if you want to."

A Doubtful Member.

In Miss Wood's kindergarten class there were eight pupils, four girls and four boys. One of the boys, however, had not yet reached the estate of kilts not to mention trousers. Accordingly when little Susan Phelps was asked by a visitor to tell how many boys and how many girls there were, her confused reasoning went as follows:

"There's eight, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, Miss Elliott," she replied. "And if he's a girl"—she pointed at one who wore dresses in stead of manly garb—"why, there's five girls, and one, two, three boys. But if she's a boy, there's one, two, three, four girls, and one, two—four boys. She's really a boy, you know Miss Elliott," she confided, in conclusion.—Youth's Companion

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Patriotism.
"I know a fellow," remarked the man on the car, "who says that every time he hears a band play 'Yankee Doodle' he can feel the goose pimples creeping all over him, and yet it takes a precinct committeeman to drag him to polls on registration day."

OLD SOLDIER WISHES TO HELP SUFFERERS FROM KIDNEY, LIVER AND BLADDER TROUBLES.

I am frequently troubled with kidney and bladder trouble, especially in the Spring and Fall. Being an old Veteran of the Civil War, a little exposure or cold settles on my kidneys, and then I am laid up with kidney or bladder trouble. Your Swamp-Root was recommended to me a number of years ago, and I took a number of bottles of it and was more than pleased with the results. I consider Swamp-Root the greatest and best kidney medicine on the market and it never fails to give quick results in kidney trouble, bladder trouble and lame back.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root has done me so much good that I feel if any words of mine will be the means of relieving any poor sufferers, that you are at liberty to use this letter as you see fit.

Yours very truly,
GEORGE W. ATCHLEY.
State of Iowa, Des Moines, Ia.
Polk County, ss.

A. R. Hansen, a retail druggist of this city being first duly sworn deposes and says, that he is well acquainted with George W. Atchley who gave the above testimonial; that said Atchley made and signed said testimonial in my presence and that I have said said Atchley a part of the Swamp-Root referred to in above testimonial. Affiant further says that George W. Atchley is a well known citizen of this city and an honorable man, and that it was Mr. Atchley's desire to give said testimonial.

Subscribed to in my presence, and sworn to before me, this 23rd of March, 1909.

Discontent and Progress.
The pessimist who refuses to believe in any advance is quite as wrong as the optimist who denies that there is any necessity for a forward movement. Now, as always, discontent is a duty, for it is condition precedent to progress. It is not discontent that throws the dynamite bomb; it is despair.—Brander Matthews.

A Contemporary Opinion of Byron.
These poems ("Hours of Idleness") completely prove, that although George Gordon, Lord Byron, a minor, whose portrait we give, may be a gentleman, an orator, or a statesman, unless he improves wonderfully, he can never be a poet.—From the Saturday Review, London, 1867.
