The Boy's Dilemma.
"It's awfully hard," says the Philosopher of Folly, "for a boy to choose between getting a good reputation and having a little fun out of life."
Nature Study.
"Now, Tommie, what do you see in the suburbs besides grass, trees, and flowers?" "People goes runnin' to catch their trains."

THE Famous Rayo Lamp
Once a Rayo lamp, always a Rayo lamp.
The Rayo Lamp is a high grade lamp, sold at a low price. There are lamps that cost more, but there is no better lamp made at any price. Constructed of solid brass, nickel plated—solidly built; an ornament to any room in any home. There is nothing known to the art of lamp-making that can add to the value of the RAYO Lamp as a lighting device. Every dealer everywhere. If not at yours, write for descriptive circular to the nearest agency of the

The Perfect Arm.
Measurements of a perfect arm are as follows: The upper arm must be one-third shorter than the forearm. The circumference of the upper arm should be thirteen inches, the forearm nine inches and the wrist six inches.—New Idea Woman's Magazine.

Varied Interests.
"What we want," said the citizen, "is an era of economy."
"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum; "but there is always bound to be more or less altercation about who shall do the economizing."

Terrible Suffering
Eczema All Over Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. Inez Lewis, Haring, Maine.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood diseases and builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

Who Needs.
Just at the busy hour in the evening on the "L." a woman rushed madly into the station. She had just a minute to buy a copy of Life and catch her train.

There was another customer at the news stand when she got there, and, getting impatient, she waved her ten-cent piece in the air and said to the clerk in a frenzied tone: "Give me 'Life,' quick! Give me 'Life.'" then she ranced in her tracks when the clerk continued to wait on the first customer.

"Quick, I want 'Life,'" she repeated forcibly.
"You don't need 'Life,' madam; what you need is air," placidly replied the news agent.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

An Eye-Opener.
A child of strict parents, whose greatest joy had been the weekly prayer meeting, was taken by its nurse to the circus for the first time. When he came home he explained: "Oh, mamma, if you once went to the circus you'd never, never go to prayer meeting again in all your life."—Harper's Magazine.

Strong Winds and Sand Storms

The Only Way.
To try to make others comfortable is the only way to get right comfortable ourselves, and that comes partly of not being able to think so much about ourselves when we are helping other people. For ourselves will always do pretty well if we do not pay them too much attention.—George MacDonald.

Close Observer.
Philip, eight years of age, already is a close if silent observer. In his town a number of men in the past few years have died, leaving their families unprotected. One day Philip's teacher asked him to define the word "widow." "A widow," replied thoughtfully Philip, "is a poor woman with a large family."—Herald.

Stiff neck! Doesn't amount to much, but mighty disagreeable. You will be surprised to see how quickly Hamlin's Wizard Oil will drive that stiffness out. One night, that's all.

Play Before Bedtime.
Give the children their tea early, so that they can have a good play before going to bed. This play will induce a healthy tiredness and sleep will soon follow.

Two Kinds of Love.
From all time man has been haunted by two kinds of love. His soul has been drawn toward a calm and heavenly communion of hearts; his body toward the delight of the senses. The man who has not some time felt both has not completely lived.

How to String Beads.
In stringing any precious beads, and pearls especially, never use a needle. Simply wax the end of the silk and pass it through the hole. The knotting is also an important point. It must be large enough to hold the bead, but not large enough to show. Pearl stringers use an intricate knot of their own, and that is why it is, on the whole, better to have very expensive jewels strung by a professional. When there is a collar or something of the sort to be made, this is absolutely necessary.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.
Your druggist will refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days. 50c.

More Muggers.
The Trance Medium—"You're looking pretty prosperous, Ferdinand—I thought the slate-writing stunt was played out!" Former Slate-Writer—"Oh, I cut that out many moons ago—why, the spirit messages I dispense nowadays are written on souvenir post cards!"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take.

Always Something to Miss.
"I see that a man has succeeded in flying from a ship to shore."
"When they get so that they can fly from shore to a ship there may be some chance for the man who always misses the boat."
"True, but then we'll have to contend with the man who always misses the aeroplane."

The Right to Die.
The man who has killed himself on Monday would on Saturday have wanted to live; but one only kills one's self once. Man's life is made up of past, present and future; so life must be a burden to him, if not for the past, the present and the future, at least for the present and the future. If it is only a burden for the present he is sacrificing the future. The evils of one day do not authorize him to sacrifice the life that is ahead of him. Only the man whose life is unhappy and who could have the certainty—which is impossible—that it will always be so, and that conditions and desires will never change, either through modification of circumstances and situations or through habit and the lapse of time—which again is impossible—only this man would have the right to kill himself.—Napoleon Bonaparte.

His Unfortunate Client.
An Arkansas lawyer was pleading for a client who was on trial for stealing a mule.
"Gentlemen of the jury," he said, "this poor, unfortunate man is sorely beset here. Everything seems against him; but, gentlemen of the jury, if you, in your wisdom, see fit to eliminate the law and the facts, my poor, unfortunate client has a chance."—Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

Dreaming On.
"When I get to the legislature," said Si Simm, "I'm going to make a few speeches 'jes' to show em' I'm wide awake."
"Makin' speeches won't convince nobody," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "'Fears to me like when a feller's been in the legislature a while, talkin' in his sleep comes natural to him."

SWAMP-ROOT.
Is not recommended for everything; but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. At druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it.

Remington .22 REPEATING RIFLE
The popular idea of the .22 calibre rifle is that it is a sparrow gun—a plaything for the little boy.
Not so the REMINGTON .22 Repeater. Hammerless, Solid Breech, built to exactly the same high standard of quality as the big game REMINGTON Repeater, this rifle is a man's rifle, and for the boy who has the making of a man. No rifle to compare with it for target shooting, for crows, hawks, squirrels and other small game of the keener sort.
Whether you are shooting in the field or at the target, never forget that UMC .22 cartridges are essential to the surest results. Straight shooting, hard hitting, sure fire. UMC .22 short, .22 long and .22 long rifle cartridges can be depended upon to be as perfect as any ammunition of any calibre made.
