

The Warmer Days

Are going to bring house cleaning and brightening up time. The home must be fresh and clean to be in tune with the sun shining out of doors. Do you know the wonderful change that new curtains and draperies can make? Some very beautiful effects are obtained by using the Colonial Drapery Fabrics in colors to match your walls, etc. The conventional designs that are so popular are shown at this store in large numbers. Cozy corners and window seats covered with these materials are very pretty. Old chairs may be made to look as new by covering. The price is 10 cents to 50 cents per yard.

Room size rugs, $6 to $30
Small size rugs, $1 to $6

Water opaque window shades 35c
Oil " " " 50 to 75c
With Hartshorn fixtures.

Lace curtains $1 to $10 per pair.

Oregon is a good country. Her soil and climate are superb. But high taxes caused, principally by fool legislatures, is giving her a black eye.

We note that S. W. McFarland, who formerly was the proprietor of the pool hall in this city, is now the proprietor of a like institution at Falls City.

Patronize home industries, home merchants, home mechanics, etc., is a good slogan. But some people who join in the slogan, are the best patrons of away from home concerns

It is to be hoped that the same exhibits, which have been at our Fair will not be there, this year, unless the exhibit is stock, which necessarily will be entered in another class.

A good many members of the last legislature have served as members of that body for the last time. They have shown no regard whatever for the interests of the people at large.

Has there ever been a dearth of candidates for the office of circuit Judge? If not wherein was the necessity to make each judge a present of $1000 additional salary?

Cottage Grove has already started petitions out to hold up the U. of O. appropriation bill. Better add the O. A. C., the judges salary increase and several other features, so that the whole bunch can be sent to the bone yard at one gulp.
