HOUSE FROM A WOODEN BOX

Former Iowa Boy Erects Such a Home in Georgia and Fares Well.

Macon, Ga.—That a wooden box makes a rattling good house for a boy when he hasn't got any place else to go has been demonstrated satisfactorily by Dewey Conley, aged 12, who used to be a "bell-hop" in a Des Moines hotel.

Since Dewey came to Macon, he has been doing odd jobs about town, running errands, helping about restaurants, shoveling snow, anything he can find to do. But it took very close to every cent he made to pay for lodging and meals. So he decided to have a house of his own and do his own cooking. He talked the matter over with his friend, Ed Smiley, a drayman. Smiley lives out on a hill overlooking the Park lake and he told Dewey he could set up his habitation at the corner of his property.

The lad had a few dollars in the bank. It took his entire reserve to settle for the box, put in a door and window, and for an oil stove and small lamp. Heavy blankets are laid on the floor, the cooking utensils being on shelves in the far end. Dewey has slept in his little box house the coldest nights of winter, and declares he never suffered. All the cracks are made rain proof, and once inside, with the door closed, Dewey is as snug as the millionaire in his brownstone habitation.

There isn't much room for exercise in a house five feet by three, and when Dewey wants to cook or sew up his trousers he rolls up his bed to secure a place for the operation.

The young householder fares well on ten cents a day, his bill of fare being potatoes, fried apples, huns, meat now and then and milk or coffee. He has learned to cook all these things well, and enjoys them in camp style better than he would at a fine restaurant.

DECLARE SKIRT DOES NOT FIT

Jurors Give Purchaser $75 Damages and Dressmaker Is Ordered to Pay $100 Costs.

Spokane, Wash.—When a dozen men, sitting as a jury in Judge William E. Huneke's department of the Spokane county superior court, said in a verdict that the skirt of a $75 suit built for Elsie Spangenberg by Mme. Campbell did not fit, a precedent was established in eastern Washington.

The jurors also awarded damages to the extent of $75 to the plaintiff and held the modiste for the costs of the trial, an item of more than $100. Miss Spangenberg donned the offending garment several times during the hearing, while a score of tailors, drapers, dressmakers and employes of suit houses testified for and against the defendant.

Appreciating the fact that the wives of the jurors might have something to say in the case, Judge Huneke cautioned the latter not to discuss the testimony outside of the courtroom.

Non-Sulphurous Himself.

Seeking needed and timely information, she wrote the editor of her Chicago paper and this is what he said and did: "How do you take the old-fashioned spring medicine, sulphur and molasses?" is a question in materia medica passed along to us to answer by the editor of woman's page. But we don't take it, madam. We chase our eldest boy around the barn four or five times, corner him in the hen-house, and he takes it. We don't take it, and never could."—Buffalo Times.

MUNYON.

I AM taking the above text for the reason that I want to instill into the people self-reliance, self-ability, self-sufficiency. I want every person to feel that they are above deception, hatred, selfishness, jealousy, envy or revenge.

I want the person who is pinched by poverty, who has suffered great reverses, who is weighed down with some great sorrow, to become acquainted with the redeeming power of Hope. I want them to take Hope as a companion, as a counselor, as a light, as a medicine, for Hope is an ambassador from God. It is a teacher that shows us the beautiful. It fills our souls with songs and our tongues with praise.

To be hopeful one must be well, and to be well one must be hopeful.

That the lower bowel is responsible for most bodily ills is now being recognized by the leading physicians throughout the world. There is no further excuse for being bilious, for having headaches, for suffering with dyspepsia or indigestion, for putting up with a sluggish or lazy liver, for poisoning the blood as a result of constipation, for Munyon's Paw Paw Laxative Pills are positively correcting all these ailments. They assist in digesting everything that is put into the stomach. They stimulate the liver into activity. They start the secretions of the stomach, which carry off all the bile and poisonous matters through the bowels. They strengthen the lower bowel, so that it contracts itself naturally, without the aid of cathartics or foreign substances.

DOCTORS ADVISED OPERATION—DECIDED TO TRY GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY.

I want to tell you in a few words what your Swamp-Root did for me, believing that my testimony may do some other suffering person a great deal of good.

About six years ago I was dangerously ill, consulted three doctors, all of whom said I had kidney trouble. One of the doctors analyzed my urine and reported that I had gravel, and further said that in order to regain my health and life, an operation would be necessary. I did not want to be operated on as I was afraid that I would not recover. Someone told me of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and said it was a reliable medicine for kidney trouble, so I decided to try it, and I went to Mr. Rose, the druggist, at 303 Central Ave., Minneapolis, and bought a bottle, took it, noticed results and continued taking it until I was entirely cured.

Having been free from any kidney trouble for over six years, I consider that I am absolutely cured and know that Swamp-Root has the credit.

I never fail to tell my friends about your remedy, as I believe it is the best of its kind. Your U & O Ointment is also very good. We are never without a jar in our house.

Yours very truly,
MRS. MARGARET E. ANDERSON,
