FAIR NOTES

The exhibit of fine needle work deserves special mention, there being a larger and better display than in former years. A number of articles were contributed by ladies from neighboring towns.

The embroidery done by ladies over 60 years of age attracted special notice, being work that is very trying to eyes of elderly people.

Two embroidered shawls, one in tan silk, the other in black, the work of two Bohemian ladies were something new in the exhibits.

The little lovers of doll clothes were charmed by the diminutive doll set of crocheted work.

The sofa pillows, hand painted, crocheted, wool, embroidered, and drawn work all seemed to be of the finest quality.

Waists, infant's dresses, corset covers, skirts, toilet sets, handkerchiefs of fine embroidery work were pleasing to the eye.

The talling, net work, battenburg and point lace were excellent showings. The great skill in execution and design would surely please the eye of a con-noisseur.

A new feature this year was the fine needle work by girls under 14 years of age. This can be made an interesting feature in the future if the girls will only respond.

To Our Subscribers

Before the present management purchased this paper arrangements had been made to change the form of the paper by cutting out the ready print obtained from Portland and making the News an all home print paper. This was to have been the last issue in the present form. We believe it best to carry out the plans already made and next week the News will appear as an all home 6 column folio instead of a five column quarto. We believe what the people want is local news and that there will be little or no objection to the cutting out of ready-print material which few ever look at.

Just Arrived at Wesely & Cains, a large line of children, ladies and misses sweater coats.

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

Santiam Farm Topics

The American pie eater is not dead yet.

Our lovely September rain is highly appreciated by all our neighbors, excepting the hop pickers, who now wish the other side of their bread was buttered.

Several of our neighbors have left for the hop yards.

William Paul, who imported some fine brood mares and colts from England, received $40 in prizes on them at the Linn county fair.

Jobe and Isaac Crabtree, who lately returned to their native home after 50 years absence, are now living happily together as old bachelors of 79 and 83 years of age.

We had two cow buyers thru this section picking up every good cow available at $40 to $60.
Cows will soon be out of reach of common people.

Uncle Pitt Wallace is making some improvements on his farm and residence since he got him a new wife. They are living quite cosily.

The pie eater got into a little scrap up at the fair. As he is a little blind in one eye and can't see any out of the other, he got into a hornets nest and thought they were horse flies. Some fellows off a ways taking observations thought he was playing "hilow" jack and the game with his new hat.

Poe Shelton made a flying trip to Buena Vista Sunday.

Farmers are now hauling their oats to market at Crabtree while they are 49 cents per bushel.

Mrs. Flora Hart of Albany is visiting with her mother, Mrs.
Phoeby Turner.

Santiam Farm sends a cordial invitation to the editor and wife of the News to come out by the 10th of October and eat grapes, as we have a goodly variety to pick over and we would very much appreciate a visit from them.

Shelburn Items

Not long ago Asa Hirons killed a chicken hawk which measured 4 feet 2 inches.

This school district considers itself very fortunate in having been able to secure Hon. Wm.
Miller as teacher for the coming year.

Lon McLain and Alfred Blatchford returned home Saturday from Plainview where they have been a few weeks harvesting.

Theron and Earl Russell, two young men well known in this vicinity, returned last week from Grass Valley where they have been during the summer.

Mrs. Curran of Albany spent a few days last week with Mrs.
Blatchford.

Frank Miller and wife of Gooch came down last to attend the fair.

Last week a number of persons were heard wishing for rain, but now that it has come we hear complaints about wet weather.

Clair McLain spent a few days this week at Macleay.

Mill City Items

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes returned from the Scio fair Saturday.
They were well pleased with what they saw. If the rain had come before the fair, more people would have gone down. The damage from fire was great and ranchers did not dare leave even for a day.

James Dawes is well pleased with prize awarded him on his colt. There are several more horses that are prize winners around town.

Mr. Quinn was seen Sunday riding up and down the county road in a sulky exercising his thoroughbred.

The fires at Gates and Niagara did no particular damage. They did much good burning out dead trash. One homestead cabin up the Santiam was burned.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Herbert Schroder and the lady who taught school in their district.

Miss Verna Geddes has gone to Eugene and will attend the music department of the State University.

Royal Shaw has bought the front part of the Shahare place and the front part of the T. B.
Barnes place and will plat the same as an addition to Mill City.
He is building a sidewalk to the property.

There are improvements galore being made in this country. T.
Hennes has built a new house and barn, Bassett a fine barn, Mr. Hutchins a barn, Messrs Paul and Fred Homer have built new residences.

The mill company is rebuilding camp 6. They intend to do a bigger business than before.

A box car was smashed into kindling wood recently while the train men were switching.

Eph Hennes has gone to the Conerde Lene mines in one of which he has an interest. He expects to make a big strike soon and then he has promised to take J. R. Geddes and a few old time friends around the world free, and what is more he will do as he says.

Improvements are being made on the school grounds making ready for school to begin on the 18th inst.

KORN KOB

Lost—On fair grounds, handkerchief with door key tied to it, also stripped purse. Please leave at this office.

The News will publish the remainder of the fair report next week as much of the copy came in too late for this issue.

Wesely & Cain have a fine large display case for showing wash silks, making it easy to find the color and shade you are looking for.

A. P. Russell of Macleay, was a visitor to the fair and while here hunted up the editor and contributed to the News' subscription fund. Mr. Russell was formerly a resident of Scio.

Diarrhoea is always more or less prevalent during September. Be prepared for it. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is prompt and effectual. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.

Mr. Clark of Clark's Mill came to Scio last Wednesday and brought our printing force home from their camping trip up Thomas creek, where they had gone for a week's outing. As they returned two or three days ahead of time and in charge of one of the citizens of the locality, it looks a little auspicious.

J. F. Prochaska, the south side merchant, recently bought three acres off the Wm. May place and is now building what will be one of the nicest residences in that part of town. The cement foundation is now in and ready for the carpenters. It will have six rooms, a bath room and two porches. Let the good work go on.
