AWARDS OF PRIZES FOR HOP EXHIBITS.

Conditions That Will Govern In This Class.

Awards of prizes will be made according to the following rules for hops entered in the second international barley and hop prize exhibition to be held at Chicago, Oct. 12-22, 1911:

The awards will consist of twenty-one prizes, the highest amounting to $150.

For the purpose of prize distribution each distinct hop growing section (foreign or domestic) will constitute a class by itself. The following American sections are recognized as distinct for this purpose: (1) New York state, (2) California, (3) Oregon, (4) Washington, (5) British Columbia.

Hops grown outside of these sections will be considered as belonging to that section which conforms most closely to their districts geographically and climatically, in the discretion of the committee on awards.

All samples of hops must be certified to have been grown by the exhibitor.

The amount of hops offered for exhibit must be at least ten pounds, with six clusters of about twelve cones each.

YOU

NEED

An abstract BEFORE you buy property—its an absolute necessity if you want to know about the validity of your title.

Honestly, to buy a piece of real estate without an abstract is taking a blind chance on being sold an expensive piece of litigation.

OUR abstracts are correct and complete.

Public Sales

In public sales there is a difference. Live stock auctioneers are not all alike. The better the salesman the bigger are your returns. There is profit, security and satisfaction in doing business with a good auctioneer.

See R. Shelton for dates and terms or write me at Halsey, Ore. R. T. Sudtell, auctioneer. Nov. 18

Remove! Sale

Am compelled to tear down my old warehouse to make room for my new building. Have no place to store all my goods so will sell at bargain prices to reduce stock. Come and see us. Do it now. Chas. Wesely.
