The Man Who Pays His Way

In every newspaper we pick up we are sure to find a gush about the man behind the gun; the man behind the buzz-saw and the man behind the times and the man behind the rents; the man behind the plowshare and the man behind the whistle and the man behind the cars; the man behind the kodak and the man behind the bars; the man behind his whiskers, the man behind his fists, and everything behind has entered on the list. But they have skipped another fellow of whom nothing has been said—the fellow who is even or a little way ahead; who pays for what he gets and whose bills are always signed—he's a darn sight more important than the man who is behind. All we editors and merchants and the whole commercial clan are indebted for existence to this honest fellowman. He keeps us all in business and his town is never dead, and so we take our hats off to the man who is ahead.—Exchange

Good For All

Smile, and the world smiles with you; "Knock," and you go it alone; For the cheerful grin Will let you in Where the "kicker" is never known.

Growl and the way looks dreary; Laugh and the path is bright; For a welcome smile Brings sunshine, while A frown shuts out the light.

Sigh and you "rake in" nothing; Work, and the prize is won; For the nifty man With backbone can By nothing be outdone.

Hustle! and fortune awaits you; Shirk! and defeat is sure; For there's no chance Of deliverance For the chap who can't endure.

Sing, and the world's harmonious; Grumble and things go wrong; And all the time You are out of rhyme With the busy, hustling throng.

Kick, and there's trouble brewing; Whistle, and life is gay; And the world's in tune Like a day in June, And the clouds all melt away.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
