Ren Smith of South Coos river brought a parsnip to town last week which measured six feet one inch in length. This is certainly a record breaker.—Marshfield News. (Either that, or Marshfield harbors the biggest liar in the world.)

We will have a sample automobile in our store in a few days which we will be glad to show you. If you are interested, do not buy until you see the Michigan car; the best going for the money.—Chas. Wesely. 28

E. C. Peery was up from Portland Thursday and Friday shaking hands with friends and looking after business interests. Mr. Peery is looking forward longingly to the time when he may return to Scio, establish himself on a chicken ranch and throw dull care to the winds.

The San Jose scale and other pests are spreading very fast among the fruit trees of our county and every one should make arrangements to spray at least one time between now and before the buds open, with the regular lime and sulphur solution. A formula will be published later in this paper.

C. U. Sandoz, late of Nebraska who was here looking the country over a few weeks ago, returned recently and bought the Alexander farm. His family arrived from Corvallis last Thursday evening and they have taken up their residence at their new home. Mr. Sandoz thinks our winter weather compares very favorably with that of Nebraska.

Miss Birdella Brenner called the young ladies of Scio to her home last Thursday to organize a sewing club for the younger set. The eight charter members, Miss Birdella Brenner, Mrs. Rolla Shelton, Miss Julia Kopecky, Miss Hazel Easton, Mrs. Roy Mac Donald, Mrs. Shack MacDonald, Miss Vesta Long and Mrs. Ben Gooch, all complained of having a fine time. The pill-roller's wife will entertain the T. E. C. next Thursday.

Mrs. Francis Arnold of Albany is spending a few days visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gill and friends of Scio.

There will be a local institute held at Brownsville on Saturday, February 17. State Supt. Alderman will be one of the speakers.

Citizens of Crabtree say a good general store is badly needed at that place and would no doubt do a thriving business.

The News acknowledges receipt of a beautiful calendar this week from R. M. French & Son, the popular jewelry store of Albany.

The Stayton Mail last week said, tomorrow is groundhog day, and no one seems to care a continental in Oregon. Winter is about over anyhow, so let him see his shadow and be hanged.

What about those fruit trees on your farm, have you pruned them? If not you should get at it at once as it will soon be time to do your spraying, and the pruning should be done before that time arrives.

The Lakeview Herald says that Lakeview last year broke all previous building and development records and the present year promises to excel the past in both number and character of business houses erected.

Do you want to stop that pain? If so get one of Dr. D. P. Ordway's plasters from Mrs. V. Richardson for 25c. It will relieve all classes of rheumatism, lung complaints and bronchial troubles, cramps, kidney complaint and all other aches and pains. 24p4

The weather report for Linn county for the month of January was as follows: The highest temperature reached was 57 and the lowest 21 above zero. The average highest was 47.7 and the average lowest was 37.7; rainfall 9.29 inches, and no snow at all.

A hawk swooped and caught a bird near the Sischo home, but lost his prize almost as suddenly as he had seized it. A big young Thomas cat saw the hawk and got busy immediately. He sprang into the game, frightened the hawk almost out of his wits, picked up the bird which had been dropped, and with a growl of satisfaction, carried it under the house and ate it.—Myrtle Creek Mail.

J. A. Craft, of South Scio precinct, was in the city yesterday and today looking up his political fences somewhat. Mr. Craft is an aspirant for county assessor on the Republican ticket. He was born in Linn county, his parents having come to Oregon in the early 60s, crossing the plains with an ox team. This is his first aspiration for public office, having been engaged for the most part in farming and stock raising all his life, in which line he has been eminently successful.—Albany Herald.

Chiropractic

Chiropractic is based upon the principles: 1. The nerves are the life. 2. Displacement of vertebrae cause pressure on nerves. 3. Pressure on nerves causes disease.

Chiropractic is a drugless system of healing and does not resemble hydrotherapy, hypnotism or magnetic healing. Chiropractic is not osteopathy, but reaches diseases that osteopathy cannot reach.
