The members of the Thursday Embroidery Club were called together last week at the home of Mrs. Ben Gooch. A very pleasant afternoon was spent over the many different pieces of embroidery. The hostess served a very nice lunch after which the company was entertained by selections of music. The club will meet today with Mrs. Rolla Shelton.

Our sample automobile is now in, so if you want to be in the ring you will have to have the nifty Michigan car. There will be a good many girls asking for joy rides this summer, as it is leap year; I expect big rush myself and I understand that most of the old maids want a ride in the nifty Michigan car, so come and see us if you are interested and we can help you out.—Chas. Wesely.

That this climate is conducive to long life and hardy old age is exemplified in Grandma Woods of Woods, says the Cloverdale Courier. She is 75 years old and this week rode from Bentley, where she had been visiting, to Woods, in an open wagon, a distance of 35 miles, and stood the trip fine.

Our carload of buggies has just arrived and we have all the samples on display. If you are going to buy something in the buggy line it will pay you to come and see us before you buy, as we can save you money—you may ask why, but remember we buy direct from the factory, that is the point.—Chas. Wesely.

Last Sunday, says the Woodburn Independent, the birds were singing from morning until night, and the croaking of the frogs in the pools alongside the road made an accompaniment which sounded much like spring.

The comfortable financial condition of Yamhill county is well reflected in the brevity of the delinquent tax list. The time is not long past when it required from one to two pages. Now it is less than one column.—Telephone Register.
