Stencil Letters Used by Ancients.
Movable characters were known to the ancients; they were used in teaching children to read. The ancients had also stencil letters, which they used to secure a regular style of penmanship. They even made use of plates, thus open-cut, containing an entire page; it was placed on the papyrus to guide the pens of children; "an excellent means," saith Quintilian, "to learn them not to exceed the desired proportions." The Emperor Justinian (A. D. 528) could neither read nor write, an unexampled thing in one of such high rank. When it was necessary for him to sign his name, he had a sheet of gold, through which were cut the letters of his name. "Then," said Procopius, "placing this tablet on the paper, one conducted the hand of the prince, holding the stylus dipped in purple on the type of the different letters, and took away the writing furnished with his signature." The same thing is reported of King Theodoros and of Charlemagne--National Magazine.

Great Expectations.
Now and then a man does something really worthy of praise; but the trouble with the critter is that he gets into a blue funk if he isn't perpetually reaping verbal bouquets for the thousand and one unimportant and very ordinary samples of his handiwork.

MOTHER OF LARGE FAMILY

Tells How She Keeps Her Health--Happiness For Those Who Take Her Advice.

Scottville, Mich. -- "I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house."

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has helped her."

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to your wonderful medicine." -- Mrs. J. G. JOHNSON, Scottville, Mich., R.F.D. 3.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for woman's ills known.

When the West Awoke.
The Great West stirred in his sleep. Then he awoke and looked about him. "Talk about the caterpillar and the butterfly," he exclaimed; "I was the great American desert when I lay down for a half century nap, and I wake to find myself in the garden spot of the world."

Why cough? Stop it!

Stop coughing! Coughing rasps and tears. Stop it! Coughing prepares the throat and lungs for more trouble. Stop it! There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. Stop it! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a medicine for coughs and colds, a regular doctor's medicine. Sold for seventy years. Use it! Ask your doctor if this is not good advice.

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia. We wish you would ask your doctor about correcting your constipation by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Unwise Comment.
How much wiser would a man appear if he reserved his comments. The other day a woman said, "I hear that Valenciennes lace is going to be the wear again." "Is it?" growled her husband. "I'll bet you an old well, then, it's something that doesn't cost a cent under 37 cents a yard." And his wife, seeing that he had a cinch, was silent, and would not stay in and call him.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

By No Means a New Fad.
"I am afraid Mrs. Wapping is a termagant," remarked Mrs. Pilcher. "Indeed," said Mrs. Bluntson, with a slight elevation of her eyebrows. "Some people take up every new fad that comes along."

Live Telegraph Poles.
In Nevada the telegraph poles in damp, low-lying situations have taken root and flourished. They are of cottonwood, and planted with the bark upon them. In some parts of Java, too, a native tree is used for the poles, and this also takes root, thereby retarding the attacks of the white ants or the inroads of natural decay.

Beacon to Tennyson's Memory.
The Tennyson beacon, on the edge of the Isle of Wight, which the gale has destroyed, was a landmark for all vessels entering the Solent from the west. It consisted of a tall iron cross, thirty-two feet high with the pedestal, and bore the following inscription: "To the memory of Alfred, Lord Tennyson, this cross, a beacon to sailors, is raised by the people of Freshwater and others who desired to honor him in England and America." The site on which it stood formed part of the manor of Farringford, and was one of the objects of the long daily walk which he took until within a few short years of his death. -- Pall Mall Gazette.

Oilcloth Wrinkle.
Very little water should be used in washing oilcloth, as some of it will soak through the cloth beneath and rot it. Use a flannel cloth well wrung out and wipe the floor until clean. Sal soda will aid greatly. Wipe the white spots caused by spilling any hot liquid on the oilcloth with a few drops of ammonia.
