LINN COUNTY FAIR FOR 1912

Industrial School Fair to be Held in Connection with it Promises to be Big Event

The school childrens industrial work for this county promises to be a big attraction at the fair. Under the energetic labors of Superintendent Jackson and assistants a most elaborate premium list has been secured from the business and professional men of the various towns of the county. The list comprises 180 premiums at a cash valuation of over $530.

Space will not permit of giving the full list here, but some of the prominent ones are mentioned to call attention to the fact that the school children should get busy and win some of these valuable premiums.

INTERESTING STRAW VOTE

On the way to San Francisco the members of the Oregon delegation held a straw vote on president with the results as follows: Men's votes—Taft, 102; Roosevelt, 44; La Follette, 5; Clark, 10; Wilson, 10; Harmon, 8. Women's votes—Taft, 12; Roosevelt, 12; La Follette, 2; Clark, 2; Wilson, 4. For United States senator from Oregon, 35 men voted for Bourne, 22 for Lane and 101 for Selling. Ten women voted for Bourne, eight for Lane and 24 for Selling. On a ballot regarding the question of women's suffrage, 85 men favored it and 84 were against it, while 35 women voted in favor of the ballot and 11 did not favor it. The men voted exactly the same way on the question, "Should the women continue to wear skirts if granted suffrage?"—Salem Statesman.

FLY SONG

Pretty soon the fly will be with us again and the following clipped from the Chicago Health Bulletin is highly suggestive:

Ten little flies
All in a line;
One got a swat!
Then there were nine,
Nine little flies,
Grimly sedate,
Licking their chops—
Swat! There were eight,
Eight little flies,
Raising some more—
Swat! Swat! Swat! Swat!
Then there were four,
Four little flies,
Colored green-blue;
Swat! (Ain't it easy!)
Then there were two,
Two little flies
Dodged the civilian—
Early next day
There were a million.

Fly campaigns should be planned immediately and inaugurated early in anticipation of the coming of these pests rather than delay such plans until the battle is made too difficult for successful issue.

With the consolidation of Sunset and the Pacific Monthly under the title of Sunset—the Pacific Monthly, the publishers will spare no money nor pains to make of Sunset—the Pacific Monthly a magazine of which the West can well afford to be proud. It is making a specialty of its beautiful color illustrations. In addition to its superb color work, it is publishing clean, bright, readable stories and interesting descriptive articles. The subscription price of Sunset—the Pacific Monthly is $1.50 per year, but by a special arrangement we are able to offer for a time both Sunset—the Pacific Monthly and the Santiam News for $1.75 per year. Specimen copies may be seen at this office.

Try the News for fine job printing. Prices reasonable.

Notice to the Public

The two leading magazines of the Pacific coast, the Pacific Monthly and the Sunset, have been consolidated under the title of "Sunset—the Pacific Monthly."

It is the intention of the publishers to spare no money nor effort to make Sunset—the Pacific Monthly a credit to the West and a magazine of national value and importance.

To introduce it to new readers, we will make the following special offer: Send 50 cents in stamps, and we will put your name on our subscription list for the next four months, and will send you free a copy of the superbly illustrated Mid-Winter number, and also the famous Sunset Indian poster, securely packed in a mailing tube. It will make a beautiful ornament for your front room or den.

Send your order to Fred Lockley, Northwestern Manager, Sunset—the Pacific Monthly, Portland, Oregon. 31

BOOKLET ABOUT PRODUCTS EXHIBIT

Illustrated with twenty-two half tone views of state and sectional exhibits at the land show of the Northwest Development League, a booklet has just been issued telling about the Northwestern Products Exposition to be held in Minneapolis, November 12 to 23.

This booklet, says the Northwestern Products Exposition, has been organized "to give information about the American Northwest; to create a knowledge of the possibilities, opportunities and fascinations of the wonderland of America, and to exploit in the most truthful and authentic way the resources and potentialities of Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon."

Will A. Campbell, secretary of the Northwest Development League, who managed the "Land Products Show" in St. Paul last year, will be general manager of the Northwestern Products Exposition.

TATT'S PROGRESSIVE POLICY

I am a progressive, but—
I think the people should rule, but—
The people may be fit to rule, but—
Corrupt judges might be removed, but—
Trusts should not be permitted to control the courts, but—
The will of the majority ought to prevail, but—
Just rights of a minority should be protected, but—
Labor ought to be treated fairly, but—
I want tariff revision downward, but—
I favor conservation of natural resources, but—

I favor universal peace, but—
I favor a presidential preference vote in every state, but—
I want a free and untrammelled convention, but—
What labor needs most, God knows, but—
