LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

Santiam Farm Topics Farming is about completed, but M. C. Gaines still has 50 acres to sow to complete his spring farming.

The people south of Scio are now all rejoicing as our road boss has men and teams grading the hills on the Randall farm and making us a good road, so long needed.

Buyers over the country are picking up all the loose cows they can get at any price. Who is going to furnish the cows in a few more years, I'd like to know.

Geo. M. Bilyeu has been quite poorly with inflammation of the bladder, but is improving now.

Berries—Santiam Farm, strawberries in the patch 20c, gathered 25c. Gooseberries 25c on bushes, gathered 30c. Loganberries and currants in season. — S. W. Gaines.

Our rain is gladly welcomed as we were needing it very much.

S. W. Gaines and wife were over to Albany Tuesday on a short visit with Mrs. Gaines' sister, Mrs. Rebecca Morris.

Cliff Griffin came home Sunday from the big show in Scio Saturday night and was quite sick and had to lay up for repairs. I rather think he smelt a hawk.

The Crabtree road boss, John Griggs had all the subscription workers ordered out Monday to begin at Crabtree and come this way as far as the work held out, but the rain Sunday night delayed the work for a day or two.

Isaac Crabtree was over the past week trying to rent a new place, as he does not like his present home east of Scio.

sites in a degree unequalled by any other cream separator. They are close skimming, easy washing, easy running and durability. We offer to prove this right on your farm.

A POINTER FOR YOU Always see what you are buying before buying it. If you wish to know before buying a bill of lumber that you are going to get the very best and the most your money will buy, don't make any mistake, but bring your bill to us. We preach quality because we buy a superior stock for our trade and want everybody to know that they can buy the best from us and that it will not cost any more than ordinary lumber elsewhere.
Quality, Price and Service is our motto.
