Possibly About You

Fresh cow for sale.—W. T. Lee.
Ed Holland took an auto load to Stayton Sunday to see the ball game.

Watch for big posters announcing the celebration of the T J S lodge.

Found—Sat. June 22, a purse containing money. Owner prove property, pay for this ad and take same.—Ray Hassler. 49

Baseball goods at Peery's Drug Store.

My strawberry patch 4 miles north of Lebanon is now open to the public. Price 2 1-2 cents per pound.—J. S. Swink.

I have pasture for horses and cattle. Address L. T. Titus, Kingston. 44-3

Geo. Rodgers who was in town Saturday, dropped in at the News office for a chat and left a big life preserver in our strong box.

25 or more members of the T J S lodge of Portland will participate in the 4th of July exercises at the T J S hall.

Up-to-date line of neckwear at Hibler & Gill Co.

Mrs. W. R. Ray accompanied by her daughter, Miss Effie, and son Louie, who had been to Lebanon on a visit, spent Thursday night with the former's daughter, Mrs. D. M. McKnight.

New and up to date men's and boys' hats at Hibler & Gill Co.

New spring dress goods at Hibler & Gill Co. Call and see them.

John Wesely, Ben Gooch and Jack Powell went to Stayton Sunday, where they played ball with the Mill City nine against the Stayton team. The game was said to be something of a ragged exhibition, but resulted in a score of 7 to 4 in favor of Mill City.

A few potatoes for sale, also baled hay.—W. T. Lee.

Take your lumber bills to N. I. Morrison at his south side hardware store. He can give you figures at my mill 3 1/2 miles east of Scio, or delivered. He can also give you prices on all of your building material.—J. A. Miller.

The most extensive "Seeing Oregon" trip ever undertaken from Portland will be the big excursion to Lakeview next August. Business men of the metropolis will go by automobiles, covering about 2,000 miles. Alternate routes will be taken going and coming, so that an immense area of the state will be covered.

Ka's plants, 15 cents per hundred. Chas. Chr. Scio, Oregon.

Bring your best girl to the T J S picnic the 4th of July. If you have none, hustle or get the other fellow's girl and bring her, and everybody else you can and have a good time.

Buggy sale—I will close out my entire line of buggies and hacks at greatly reduced prices as I want to make room for other goods. Don't fail to call and get prices. The prices will be for cash only. Old prices will be charged on time sales.—N. I. Morrison.

Arthur Green McDonald was born on the old farm 2 1-2 miles east of Scio, January 31, 1873, where he spent most of his life until he was united in marriage to Miss Lorena Rodgers of Brownsville, on October 31, 1892. To this union were born three children; Inez, Bernice and Arden. After the death of his wife, he spent most of the time in the U. S. Navy. He returned to the home of his parents in October, 1911, and after a long illness, died June 21, 1912, at the age of 39 years, 6 months and 13 days. He leaves his parents and children, besides many relatives and friends to mourn his death.

OUTING NECESSITIES

That will add to your comfort

The following suggestions will be a great help in making your vacation a success. Pillows, comforters, blankets, broad brim straw hats, outing shoes, barefoot sandals, sweaters, soft shirts, suitcases, trunks, etc.

Our Wednesday and Saturday specials will be particularly attractive this week. Messaline and taffeta petticoats at $1.95. Remember that our coat department is completely stocked with absolutely first quality coats that need no reduction to make bargains.

S. E. Young & Son

A big time is planned for the Fourth of July celebration by the T J S lodge at their new hall in the Richardson Gap.

I carry the Kimball Weeders that are famous. Get my prices.—N. I. Morrison.

Samuel A. De Vaney of Philomath, sends us an interesting letter from the "city of learning" but we regret being unable to publish it, as our mechanical force is crippled.

The Santiam News and Semi-Weekly Journal for $1.50 per year, the price of the Journal alone. If you are not getting the Journal call at this office and get a sample copy. One hundred and fifty-six papers for $1.50. The Journal contains the cream of the state and general news, market reports, etc.

All Scioans who can should arrange to attend the 4th of July celebration at Albany. They will probably retaliate by sending a big delegation to our County Fair.

J. A. Bilyeu traded a place near town for residence property in Albany this week.

Evan Reames, the lawyer man of Medford, was in this burg last week, says Miles Overholt in the Portland Journal. Evan says he knew a burglar once who broke into a country editor's house and starved to death before he could get out.

When your child has whooping cough be careful to keep the cough loose and expectoration easy by giving Chamberlain's cough remedy as may be required. This remedy will also liquify the tough mucus and make it easier to expectorate. It has been used successfully in many epidemics and is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

Telephones and dry batteries for sale, also batteries for automobiles and gasoline engines at the telephone exchange.—J. N. Weddle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Woodworth and Mrs. Fuller came over from Albany by auto Tuesday and transacted business in this vicinity.

At the meeting of the school board Monday J. F. Wesely qualified as clerk and R. M. Cain for the three year term as director. John Gill was elected janitor of the school for the ensuing year. The financial report showed the district to be out of debt. Before the election Mr. Wesely refused to serve as clerk for another year, so R. Shelton was elected but refused to qualify. At Monday's meeting, Mr. Wesely was persuaded to take the place for another year.

L. L. Gooding left for their new home at Harrisburg last Thursday and Mrs. Gooding and the children followed the last of the week. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gooding endeared themselves to the people of Scio by their many sterling qualities, and their departure is a matter of keen regret to the citizens at large, as well as the school children. This regret is tempered with the hope that they are bettering their condition, and that in the new field of their chosen labors they will find an abundant measure of success, happiness and prosperity.

The Interlocking

A POINTER FOR YOU

Always see what you are buying before buying it. If you wish to know before buying a bill of lumber that you are going to get the very best and the most your money will buy, don't make any mistake, but bring your bill to us. We preach quality because we buy a superior stock for our trade and want everybody to know that they can buy the best from us and that it will not cost any more than ordinary lumber elsewhere. Quality, Price and Service is our motto.
