MRS. MATT MITCHELL, OF COVE, IS UNAFRAID.

Union County Lady Works Vigorously to Down "Wolf in Sheep's Garb"—Single Tax Distiked.

Although an old woman, Mrs. Matt Mitchell, who lives at Cove, Oregon, says she is never afraid to work when the cause is good.

Mrs. Mitchell's home in Union County, she says, is one of those threatened by the Single Taxers with their Single Tax propaganda. Arouned by the efforts of what she describes as "L'Ron and his BK" and their "false trash, Mrs. Mitchell has gone into the field herself.

Modern Joan of Arc.

Like a modern but apt Joan of Arc, this old lady organized them against Single Tax. At her own expense she received books on the subject of the fight against Single Tax and she distributed 200 of these herself over the great county in which she lives.

"It is people who own no real estate," said Mrs. Mitchell, the other day, "who are in favor of Single Tax, also the ignorant class, and those who take no newspaper at all. It is a shame that such men are allowed to vote at all on anything pertaining to taxation, while thousands of intelligent people, who are heavy taxpayers, must have their houses taxed away from them by such ignorant persons."

Whole Section in Arms.

"Union County is one of the counties selected by that 'wolf in sheep's clothing' L'Ron, so we will all have to help in the fight. I am an old woman, but not too old to work in a good cause."

Mrs. Mitchell says that the whole of her section is up in arms. Every property owner in Eastern Oregon, from the man or woman who owns a small lot to the wheat farmer, is fighting what is known to be a confession of their homes, declares this old woman fighter for the "common good."

Ballot Numbers Told.

Mrs. Mitchell, despite her years, worked ardently in the campaign against Single Tax. She circulated petitions, distributed 200 books, circulated cards and gave her time freely. In addition, she expended her own money in the fight.

And when a person is willing to spend real money in a fight for a vital principle it must be expected there is real enthusiasm for what she knows to be right.

The ballot numbers which will bar Single Tax from Oregon are 264, 305 and 308.

ATWELL DISLIKES SINGLE TAX.

H. C. Atwell, president of the Oregon State Horticultural Society, who lives at Forest Grove, declares that he is bitterly opposed to the Single Tax propaganda. "I shall be glad to talk against Single Tax whenever I have the opportunity," commented President Atwell. Mr. Atwell is one of the most prominent farmers in the State of Oregon and his views are considered valuable by many Oregonians.

TEAMSTER DOES GOOD WORK.

Traveling the whole extent of the country north of the John Day River, C. W. Bonham is making an ardent volunteer fight against what he feels to be the doctrines of Single Tax. Mr. Bonham makes his headquarters at Canyon City, Ore. "Although I don't get my mail regularly," said Mr. Bonham, "I am doing all I can in the good work. My friend, Phil Metcahan, can tell you of the extent of the country over which I travel." Mr. Bonham distributed over 200 copies of "Single Tax Exposed," a work by Charles H. Shields, secretary of the Oregon Equal Taxation League. This book should be read by every voter in the State of Oregon. It proves conclusively that Single Tax is not a system of taxation at all, but a means to destroy private ownership of land.

GARDINER, ORE., MAN IS GLAD.

"I am glad to note the steps being taken," remarked Fred Assenheimer, a confectioner of Gardiner, Ore., the other day, "to stamp out such an unjust law as Single Tax." While Mr. Assenheimer would benefit personally under Single Tax by reduced taxation, he declared that he did not consider it fair that he should escape while his farmer friends were taxed out of existence. "I am glad there are not many Single Tax people around here," he told an interviewer.
