NO. 4

LOCAL and GENERAL

Items of General Interest Concerning Scio Residents and Others

Trespass notices for sale at the News office.

G W Platt and wife were Scio shoppers Saturday.

New spring dress goods at Hibler & Gill Co. Call and see them.

Mr and Mrs Carpenter returned from their outing at Newport the latter part of the week.

For the next 30 days we will have a special sale on clocks. We have the largest stock ever brought to Scio and will sell them at a discount of 10 per cent off for cash. Now is the time to get a bargain. Don't miss it. A W Hagey.

Mrs Geo Rodgers has the thanks of the News office for the most beautiful bouquet of Dahlias we have seen this year.

One hundred head of young goats for sale; 58 nannies, $2 per head.—G A Morgan, 2 miles northwest of Scio.

Dr Sanderson and John Wesely and families arrived home Thursday from a two weeks outing in the mountains. They report a splendid time and the capture of a big buck deer—almost.

The Santiam News and Semi-Weekly Journal for $1.75 per year, the price of the Journal alone. If you are not getting the Journal call at this office and get a sample copy. One hundred and fifty-six papers for $1.75. The Journal contains the cream of the state and general news, market reports, etc.

W F Gill and W A Ewing arrived home Saturday from a two weeks outing at Cascadia.

Anyone who can use a new $75 typewriter for $40, call on or address the News before August 20.

Prof Wilson and family spent Sunday in Albany.

Sunset—the Pacific Monthly and the Santiam News for $1.75.

D H Bodine was over from Albany Monday attending a meeting of the fair board.

Single comb Black Minorcas pure Northrup strain, good layers and prize winners; a few young cockerels for sale at $1 a head. Call or phone, I G Faltus, Thomas, Or.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.

John Stieha went to Newport Sunday.

Buggy sale—I will close out my entire line of buggies and hacks at greatly reduced prices as I want to make room for other goods. Don't fail to call and get prices. The prices will be for cash only. Old prices will be charged on time sales.—N. I. Morrison.

Hunters report deer more plentiful than in any former year. The great number of doe and fawn seen indicate that the game laws are being generally respected.—Albany Herald.

Herman Eckert and wife of Portland spent Sunday here at the home of Mrs Morris.

W S Gussalms, a farmer living near Fleming, Pa, says he has used Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy in his family for 14 years and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy and takes pleasure in recommending it. For sale by all dealers.

County Supt Jackson and wife of Albany spent Sunday here at the home of Mrs Jackson's brother, E C Feery.

Dr Lowe the well known physician will be in Scio right after the fair. The wise will wait for him.

Dr A G Prill and J F Wesely and party returned Saturday from a ten days outing at Marion lake.

Bob DeVaney and family returned Monday from Newport where they spent a very enjoyable vacation.

Dr H A Foster, chiropractor and drugless physician, announces that he has secured office rooms at the residence of W J Chromy, 3d door south of telephone exchange. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 2 to 5 p. m. If you are suffering from stomach, heart, liver, kidney, bowel or female trouble, constipation, headache, rheumatism, dropsy or appendicitis, you should call and make appointments for future treatment as his time is limited here and he will be able to treat only a few patients.

Roe Phillips had the misfortune to get one of his hands pretty badly mashed in a hay baler Saturday. Dr Prill arrived home just in time to dress the injured member and he is now reported to be on the mend.

Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly decreased, writes Lindsay Scott of Temple, Ind. For sale by all dealers.

Chris Bilyeu has cleaned out the old meat market building where he will run a lunch counter during the fair.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale by all dealers.

Call on Hagey the jeweler and see the Western $1.00 watch. This is the best dollar watch on the market.

New and up to date men's and boys' hats at Hibler & Gill Co.

When you want your engines and other machinery repaired, or any kind of turning done in wood or iron, your saws filed and gummed, call on H S Johnson, Scio. Prices reasonable. Wood saws built to order.

M Alexander arrived home the last of the week from a trip to southern Calif, going as far as Los Angeles. He returned with the firm conviction that Scio is good enough for him.

Ann Hiron was in town Monday attending a meeting of the board of directors of the Linn County Fair.

Wood wanted on subscription at the News office.

J T Loftin the well driller is working near Scio now, and anyone wishing wells drilled leave word at Morrison's hardware store or phone 256 Lebanon. 3-4

Sam Gaines was creating a disturbance on our streets Tuesday.

I was cured of diarrhoea by one dose of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, writes M E Gebhart of Oriskany, Pa. There is nothing better. For sale by all dealers.

Geo Rodgers had business in town Saturday.

A C Kahn was a Scio visitor Saturday.

A few Plymouth Rock cockerels and pullets for sale; also some yearling Plymouth Rock hens. I wish to close these out by Sept 1.—A P Hiron. 4-2

Scio is located on a beautiful townsite. If you don't believe it, take a walk over the steel bridge and view the creek from either direction and judge for yourself.

One of the most common ailments that hard working people are afflicted with is lame back. Apply Chamberlain's liniment twice a day and massage the parts thoroughly at each application and you will get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.

Otto Bilyeu and family were Albany visitors last Thursday.

The good roads movement is already bearing fruit as the large increase in the number of automobiles seen on our streets will prove.

Try the News for fine job printing. Prices reasonable.

Write and register at once.—E. Clemens Horst Co., Independence, Oregon.

The school fair and exhibit of products grown and made by the school children of Albany and vicinity is to be held in the Alco gymnasium on August 23 and 24. The exhibit is to be taken to Scio for exhibition at the county fair the following week. The best goes from there to the state fair at Salem.—Albany Herald.

Mrs Emma Howard and Miss Maude Irvine of Heppner arrived here a few days ago for a visit with their grandparents, Mr and Mrs Wm Beard, and other relatives. They expect to remain until after the fair.

Mrs T W Dille and son Dean of Oroville, Cal. are visiting relatives and old time friends in Scio and vicinity.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railroad telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good change for advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under supervision of R. R. and Wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

If your competitor talks about you, put him on your pay-roll. No matter what he says, just so he talks.

Mill City Items

Hay, grain and vegetable crops are fine but fruit is scarce.

The principal of the school at Granger, Wash, has been visiting his father-in-law Jos Turnidge during the past six weeks. He and his wife, formerly Stella Turnidge will return home soon.

Mr and Mrs Don McKnight from Scio are domiciled in the Wallace Barnes house. They are welcome additions to Mill City society.

Bassett Bros have returned from their land hunting trip. They report some fine locations on the Colville Indian reserve, soon to be opened for settlement.

Miss Verna Geddes has gone to the coast to camp with relatives for a couple of weeks.

John H Geddes of Jordan has been perambulating around these parts lately.

Made Davis has returned from Calif, improved in health and glad to get back.

The Odd Fellows block is nearing completion.

The electric companies have been compelled to enter the courts to see whether they are to be prevented from developing their enterprises along the Santiam.

Trask of Fox valley is now delivering milk to the denizens of Mill City.

Wm Turnidge and Newton Lewis recently made a shipment of moss to a Portland firm.

It is reported that the mill is to be enlarged to four times its present capacity.

Robt Shaw manager of the Hammond L Co spends most of his time in Astoria. Joe Rankin the supt has been transferred to Albany and Mr Bertram takes his place here.

Royal Shaw and Mr Baltimore accompanied by another man received a severe shaking up recently when the railroad motorcycle they were riding jumped the track.
