From the way the weather has been the past few days it leads one to think that the Fall rains have set in.

The Santiam Farm has grapes galore for all who wish them at $1.00 per bu., or 20c per gallon, as I have about 100 bushels for sale; tomatoes at 75c per bushel, sweet corn 75c per sack.—S. W. Gaines.

Wm. Brenner, Bill Young, N. I. Morrison and Haman Shelton who were summoned to Portland last week as witnesses in some land cases, returned home last Saturday night, but will have to return to Portland again next Monday.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.

Dr. Hobson is having office rooms fitted up adjoining Dr. Sanderson's dental parlors. The same reception room will be used by both.

Trespass notices for sale at the News office.

George Garland of Crabtree who was in Scio Friday was a pleasant caller at the News office. He states that his boy who was operated on for appendicitis in Albany a short time ago was brought home the last of the week.

Mr. Ohlemer had some excellent films for his moving picture show last Sunday evening and also had one of the biggest audiences of the season. If you have not as yet attended any of the regular Sunday night shows, do so and you will want to go again.

Announcement Extraordinary

One Week Only at Hibler & Gill's Store

City advantages in millinery right at home, Tuesday, October 29, remaining one week.

Salem's largest and most popular milliner, Mrs. O. C. Locke, will have a complete line of ladies' misses and children's hats, from her modern and up to date millinery store in Salem.

Miss Stella Fleming who is well known to many Scio people will be in charge.

This gives the people of Scio and vicinity the advantage of having a large and correct stock of millinery such as never seen outside of larger cities, besides being able to meet with Miss Fleming who is thoroughly abreast of the newest in millinery.

Up-to-date line of neckwear at Hibler & Gill Co.

Oscar Pomeroy of Independence was in town Sunday visiting relatives.

New and up to date men's and boys' hats at Hibler & Gill Co.

Perry Bilyeu of Crabtree was a Scio visitor Monday.

Are you in need of the very best graniteware on the market? I have a large assortment that is a dream of beauty and durability. Drop in and take a look at it whether you purchase or not. Scio's leading hardware and implement house located on the south side of bridge.—N. I. Morrison.

Mike Bilyeu was transacting business with our merchants Monday.

Ed Daley has been very busy the last few days putting the finishing touches to his cozy new home.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's cough remedy for 15 years says Eos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., 'and consider it the best on the market.'" For sale by all dealers.

N. I. Morrison went to Salem Wednesday as a witness in a civil action.

Mrs. T. K. Sanderson went to Portland Friday for a visit with relatives.

Get one of Morrison's Heaters or Ranges if you want your wife to be happy and contented. If not get one of some other fellow. Morrison only keeps those that do the work, do it right, and at the right price.

Rudolph Wesely who was trading with our merchants Tuesday, was a pleasant caller at the News office.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. F. H. Brogan of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it. For sale by all dealers."

Notice—To all whom it may concern: All persons wishing to have dry feet this winter should secure a pair of the famous Cahn Nickelsburg High Top Shoes. For sale by Blatchford Bros., Shelburn, Oregon.

SCIO MEAT MARKET
McDonald Bros., Props.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO

Following are items taken from the old files of the Scio Press, the predecessor of the Santiam News. Items of interest will be given from time to time.

Some wretch stole about $50. worth of meat from Will Brenner's smoke house during the fire.

J. A. Crabtree who lives on the Franklin Butte, killed an owl a few days ago that measured 4 1/2 feet from tip to tip.

Lawrence Elmer Cole was born on February 15, 1885, drowned in Thomas creek just above Scio, April 25, 1890, aged 5 years, 2 months and 11 days. Body recovered and interred May 21. Lawrence was a bright and interesting little boy and his loss is deeply felt by the family and the little fellow's many friends. His body was found Wednesday afternoon just above the bridge. He was very badly decomposed and from all appearances had been covered with sand. The body was prepared at once and buried, and was followed to its last resting place by a large number of relatives and friends.

With this issue the Press is one year old. We have heard it intimated that it was to die with this issue and for this reason a few have seen fit to discontinue their ads and paper. Kind friends we are here to assist in building up our town, and in order to publish a paper that is a credit to our city, we must have the support of its citizens. If you want us to stay with you send in your work and help us live. We assure you that if you pay for the paper you will get it as we have no intention of robbing anyone. Send in your subscriptions and get the first chapters of the celebrated story, "The Mandarin's Daughter," which commences in this issue.

About 1:30 Tuesday morning the people of this quiet little town were suddenly awakened by the ringing of the firebell, and everybody turned out to see what the matter was. It proved that the principal business of the city was on fire and could not be saved, so the firemen's attention was turned to keep it from spreading, which they done after some hard work. The fire started in the rear of S. M. Townsend's grocery store and everything being so dry it spread rapidly, leaving nothing on the block on the east side of Main street but Goins brick. Everybody worked nobly, women and all, saving goods, etc. The losses are as follows: Smith & Stantey, milliners, $750; S. M. Townsend, groceries and dry goods, $3000; L. Mayer, bakery and groceries, $2000; Moltby & Carey, harness shop, $750; Shelton & Bilyeu, saloon, $1500; E. Goins, $500; S. M. Daniel, $400; Johnson, Hibler & Co.'s loss by removal and damage will be about $1000. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, but no clue has as yet been found.

Wood wanted on subscription at the News office.

Club's Members to Rally Moose

VITUPERATIVE ABUSE MAKES ROOSEVELT VOTES.

Portland Businessmen Turn From Old Parties to Progressives Following Vicissitudes of Old Line Attack.

Two hundred members of the Portland Commercial Club, including some of the most influential businessmen in the city, have organized a Roosevelt Club of their own, and are spreading the Bull Moose gospel throughout the business world. These gentlemen were formerly of other political affiliations, but turned to the Roosevelt banner because of the great mass of abuse and vituperation that has been poured upon the Colonel by the big metropolitan papers ever since the Chicago election.

"It must be obvious to any fair-minded man," said one of those Roosevelt supporters, "that the attack upon Mr. Roosevelt is being overdone, and is inspired by his political enemies. The Senate probe into his former campaign expenses, and the senate's absolute ignoring of the campaign expenses of Mr. Taft, are enough to cause any fair person to swing his sympathies to Colonel Roosevelt. There can be too much of anything in this world, and as far as I and my friends are concerned, there has been too much of this attack on Roosevelt. It has been overdone, and because I believe it is being purposely magnified and prolonged, I am for him from now on."

Wilson Approves Roosevelt Party

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE GIVES BOOST TO PROGRESSIVES.

Need of Present Times is "Open Road" Along Which True Government of People May Move, is Point of Speech.

Woodrow Wilson, candidate for President upon the Democratic ticket, is one of the men who have enunciated common sense arguments in favor of the Third Party. In a recent speech Mr. Wilson said: "I used to meet men who shrugged their shoulders and said 'what difference does it make how we vote? Nothing ever results from our votes.' I suppose you know the fame that is behind the new party that has recently been formed—the so-called Progressive Party. It is a force of discontent with the regular parties of the United States; it is a feeling that men have gone into blind alleys, and that they now propose to find an open road for themselves."

Better argument for the Progressive Party and its need could hardly be offered. Even Senator Beveridge, who is doing all that he can to bring success to the Roosevelt banner, sets forth the same argument, only in different words. Mr. Beveridge says: "The root of the wrongs which hurt the people is the fact that the people's government has been taken away from them. Their government must be given back to the people. And so the first purpose of the Progressive Party is to make sure of the rule of the people."

Many Songs for Campaign. Something of the old-time election enthusiasm has been aroused by the Progressive Party campaign, and for the first time in many years the presidential struggle is being enlivened by the singing of the multitudes. A book of Progressive Patriotic Hymns has been issued by the Bull Mooseers, and these songs are features of the Bull Moose meetings everywhere. One song, "Captain of My Soul," has been adopted from Roosevelt's favorite poem—"I am the Captain of My Soul"—and is a protest against individualism as opposed to old-time boss rule.

FIRST BIG SALE OF THE SEASON

JUST AS WINTER APPROACHES

Chambers & McCune frankly admit that a backward season and an overstock forces them to adopt this sale plan rather than carry over hundreds of garments. It's an opportunity that every woman, miss and child should take advantage of, for never before has such low prices been quoted on Ready to Wear apparel so early in the season. A large circular announcing the price concessions has been spread broadcast and out of town people who do not receive one should send their names and addresses and one will be sent by return mail. The Sale starts Tuesday, October 29 and ends Saturday, November 9. The finest stock of suits, Coats, Dresses and Millinery, larger than all other Albany stores combined, will be on sale at lowest possible prices. One of the leading features of the Sale is that all garments will be altered free of charge and express prepaid to out of town patrons. If you don't receive one of the circulars, just drop a card to Chambers & McCune, Albany's leading Cloak and Suit Store, Albany, Ore. It's more than worth your while.

Why Congressman W. C. Hawley Should be Re-Elected to Congress.

Because in point of ability, experience and qualifications no opposing candidate can favorably compare with him.

Because of large abilities and efficiency is added his known honesty, manhood and a character without blemish.

Because born in Oregon he knows her needs and has already secured millions of dollars for public improvements in the First District.

Because he travels thousands of miles over his district annually conferring with his constituents and learning their needs.

Because it has been proven that he is industrious, able, efficient and successful in serving all the people and not a favored few.

Because he has been a faithful public servant, working up to a position of influence in national affairs so that Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, his associates of all parties and constituents generally, praise him in terms similar to those used by Governor West after a visit to the National Capital, when he said in an interview: "In intellect, oratorical ability and devotion to the interests of the people, Hawley stands head and shoulders above the great majority of the members of the National House of Representatives." (Paid Adv. Cong. Com, 1st Dist.)

If you want to spend an enjoyable evening, don't forget to attend the moving picture show next Sunday night.
