School Notes

The normal class has been doing some observation work in the lower rooms.

Not long ago a member of the normal class received some actual training during the absence of the primary teacher.

The High School organized a literary society Thursday, with Forest Woodmansee as president, Thomas Stuart, vice president and Gertrude McLain, secretary. A program committee and also a committee on by-laws and regulations were appointed by the president. The program for Friday, Dec 6, has since been arranged and the name "The Web-foot Owl" has been adopted.

Nelda Wendt, the former librarian, has been succeeded by Christine Shindler. The library books have been rearranged and checked, and Christine has taken up her new duties.

The junior and senior classes finished the dramatization of The Courtship of Miles Standish last week.

The physics class sent for a bottle of ether the other day. Are you experimenting on how to get some sleep?

Anyone wishing to find a cheap boarding place, apply at the "Bachelor's Hall," Christine Shindler, prop.

All the students are enjoying their vacation this week and it is hoped that they will resume their work with no lack of enthusiasm because of it.

In last week's paper there was a mistake in the ranks of the 8th grade pupils. It should have been Ledmela Kukacha I, Elsie Monroe 2.

He Laughed Till He Died

Taylorburg, Ohio.—Abe Skinner, the village pessimist, laughed himself to death from reading Biff, the Great American Magazine of fun which is making greater strides than any other magazine before the American public today. It is a magazine that will keep the whole family in good humor. The staff of Biff contains the greatest artists, caricaturists, critics and editors on the continent. It is highly illustrated and printed in many colors. It will keep the whole family cheerful the year round. You can afford to spend 50c a year to do this. Send this clipping and 50c today to The Biff Publishing Co. Dayton, Ohio, for one year's subscription.

The News unavoidably comes out late this week on account of a big legal notice, which is found at the last minute cannot be used until next week.

Call on Hilber & Gill Co. for your shoes. Up to date line.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railroad telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good change for advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under supervision of R. R. and Wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION FOR 1913

The Youth's Companion appeals to every interest of family life, from house-keeping to athletics. It begins with stories of youthful vim and vigor, with articles which disclose the secrets of successful play in the great games, with charming tales of life at the girls' colleges. But The Companion does not surrender these readers when they have entered the more serious paths of life. Mothers will welcome the page for little children and the weekly doctor's article. Fathers will find the important news of the day as it is and not as it is rumored to be. The entire household will appreciate the sketches which touch gently on common foibles or caricature eccentricity. In short, for less than four cents a week the Companion brings into the home clean entertainment, pure inspiration, fine ideals, increase of knowledge.

Names rarely seen in tables of contents will be found in the Companion's Announcement for 1913, which will be sent upon request—with samples of the paper, to those not familiar with it.

Every new subscriber for 1913 will receive free all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1912; also free, The Companion Window Transparency and Calendar for 1913, in rich, translucent colors—the most beautiful of all Companion souvenirs.
