The road to success is paved with good advertising.

In advertising always say what you believe, if you want people to believe what you say.

A western contemporary refused to publish the ten commandments for fear its readers would think it too personal and stop the paper.

Help your public school teacher by helping the children to attend school regularly and instilling into their little minds a love of education. Teach them to respect the teacher.

Let it be remembered that every dollar spent in patronizing a home enterprise adds to the prosperity of our little city, and with the growth of our city's prosperity comes the increase in value of real estate.

A cat seldom loves a dog much but a cat will learn that she must endure the presence of a dog on the premises, and will conclude to make the best of it, in which it shows more sense than some married people do.

The life of an editor was saved the other day by the presence of a silver dollar in his pocket. A crank shot at him and the bullet struck the dollar. Should we happen to get shot before you pay up your subscription and there is no dollar to stop the ball we shall always presume you might have saved our life.

Never find fault because a newspaper fails to give every scrap of news if you are one of the people who never give the editor any information. An editor isn't a medium or a mind reader but he gets his news the same way the milkman gets his milk, by pumping. This is true especially of that class of items known as personals. Rightly they are not "puffery or taffy" but simple personal mention, given for the benefit of the local readers, and if you have a friend or relative visiting you let us know and we will be glad to give the item proper notice.

Oregon Life

BEST FOR OREGONIANS

D. M. JOHN, CORVALLIS, OREGON
District Manager

Now that the election is over, we can scatter the dove feathers over the Balkan war fields.

Some of those campaign promises should be canned, kept in the dark and opened about two years from now.

The good cow can be changed to the poor cow by abusive treatment. If you really must use loud, violent, profane language buy a mule.

New York city has several hundred million eggs in the cold storage warehouses. Most of the hens that laid them have gone to their reward.

These reports about bumper crops pile up at such a rate that it would seem there ought not to be any bread line this winter—at least none due to lack of bread.

A woman wants to know how to control her fifteen-year-old son who won't mind a word she says. This lady is asking for information about fifteen years too late.

It seems that the Mississippi, that incomparable Father of Waters, has a rival. We refer to the steel trust which is capitalized at $1,465,000,000, and more than $500,000,000 of it is water.

Yes, these are hard times. We throw away ashes and soap. We raise dogs and buy hogs. We grow weeds and buy vegetables.
We catch fish from a four dollar rod. we build school houses and send our children away from home to be educated. And last but not least, we send our boys out with a forty dollar gun and a twenty dollar dog to hunt ten cent game. Yes these are hard times, but whose fault is it? Do not place all the blame on the president and the trusts.

Do you know that there are more people who sponge on a newspaper than there are people who sponge on their relatives?
When a man comes into the world he receives a free ad and when he dies his bad debts are overlooked by the charitable editor. All during his life he asks and receives favors from the newspapers. If they speak well of him the flattering notice is received in silence. If his acts are criticized he talks of a damage suit. He desires favorable mention and he desires it often. In fact some men have an idea that a newspaper is run expressly for the purpose of keeping them before the public, and that too, without money and without price.

Three Cheers for EDISON

Dear people, do you know that Mr. Edison has made another improvement in the music line? Such is the case. He has greatly improved the quality and quantity of tone and durability of the record. The new records will play 3000 times without any noticeable wear and the price remains the same. Mr. Edison asks you to report at his headquarters at East & Main St., Scio, Ore. and judge for yourself.

These same headquarters can supply you with a nice machine and plenty of good records to drive away dull hours through the long stormy winter that is now upon us. Come in and hear something new.

Make Your Christmas Gifts Attractive At Our Expense

Regardless of the size or value of the gift itself, which is up to a good party, put on a few Christmas cards and envelopes, and you have a gift that will last a year or more. It is quite the thing to do—the practice of giving year by year. Besides, it adds a lot to the holiday season. Perhaps you have heard that "Many a kind word in season is worth a hundred dollars' worth of gold." If not, please think now. Then you will truly appreciate this liberal offer.

A 226-Piece Assortment Free To Every Subscriber

Each piece is distinctly designed and colored, beautifully embossed in fine white ink and fully equal in appearance and quality to the "best" subjects offered in the stores at "Christmas time." There is a comprehensive assortment, a variety to meet every want and large enough for the whole family's use. It contains:

6 Large Cards	20 Medium Encls	10 Post Cards
6 Medium Cards	10 Encls	6 Encls Tags
10 Small Cards	20 Small Encls	6 Encls Tags
25 Large Encls	10 Encls	10 Encls Tags
10 "Not Open" Encls	10 Encls	10 Encls Tags

We have tried to compile every sort of our readers in this assortment—to make it complete and of the best quality. We have given a great deal of thought to a balanced variety, even including some "best" cards, so that you may "remember" those to whom you will not send gifts. It is with great satisfaction that we offer this assortment to our readers, realizing that not only the quality but the variety will favorably compare every reader's gift and who receives this package will be more than satisfied.
