PUBLIC SALE

The following public sale notice is going the rounds of the press and is tickling the ribs of the Democrats:

Having decided to move, we will sell at public auction at the east front door of the White House, D C, on March 4, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described property, to-wit:

One elephant, smooth mouthed, age uncertain, well fed but looks thin after a strenuous campaign, small scar on right side, having been gored by a bull moose.

One set of golf sticks slightly worn. One steam roller good as new, only used one year. One job lot of postoffice fixtures.

There will also be offered for sale at the same time at Oyster Bay, the following described personal property, to-wit:

One bull moose, calved in June, 1912, but extra large for its age and imported from Africa. One big stick, slightly worn. Also three Socialist planks, good as new.

Free lunch at noon. Bull Moose sandwiches will be served.

Terms of sale—Four years time on approved security, notes bearing three per cent interest from date of sale. Twenty per cent discount for cash. All sums under thirty cents, cash in hand.

There will be nothing reserved as we positively have to move.

The Albany Herald, which under the editorial guidance of Clinton Page the past three years, has been made one of the most progressive and wide-awake dailies in the Willamette valley, has been further strengthened this week by the sale of a half interest in the plant to E M Reagan, who has been connected with the Herald for some time as advertising and circulation manager. Mr Reagan has been employed in like capacity by the Chicago Inter Ocean, Salt Lake Tribune, Portland Oregonian and other papers, and is unquestionably well fitted for that line of work, while Mr Page, who will still have charge of the editorial and local pages, is a keen, forceful writer of recognized ability. The new firm will make a strong combination for the good of the Herald as well as for the good of Albany.

As other business houses are beginning to advertise January clearance sales, the News has decided to place the subscription price at $1.00 a year. This applies to all who renew during the month as well as to new subscribers. Come in and take advantage of this bargain, as it only holds good for this month.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlains cough remedy and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by all dealers.

Don't forget to take advantage of the News' $1. subscription price when you are in town.

THE YOUTHS COMPANION FOR 1913

The Youths Companion appeals to every interest of family life, from house-keeping to athletics. It begins with stories of youthful vim and vigor, with articles which disclose the secrets of successful play in the great games, with charming tales of life at the girls' colleges. But The Companion does not surrender these readers when they have entered the more serious paths of life. Mothers will welcome the page for little children and the weekly doctor's article. Fathers will find the important news of the day as it is and not as it is rumored to be. The entire household will appreciate the sketches which touch gently on common foibles or caricature eccentricity. In short, for less than four cents a week the Companion brings into the home clean entertainment, pure inspiration, fine ideals, increase of knowledge.

Names rarely seen in tables of contents will be found in the Companion's Announcement for 1913, which will be sent upon request—with samples of the paper, to those not familiar with it. Every new subscriber for 1913 will receive free all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1912; also free, The Companion Window Transparency and Calendar for 1913, in rich, translucent colors—the most beautiful of all Companion souvenirs.
