Santiam Farm Topics

Scott and Dean Turner went to Albany Saturday on business.

Viola Philippi was in our section Saturday looking for fat swine and and fresh cows.

Our smallpox family is all out of danger and able to wait on themselves, which is a great relief to the neighbors.

M C Gaines is pulling out of his attack of sore throat and cold.

G A Griffin has rigged up his chopper and is passing the time zrlinding corn for his winer supply of bread stuff.

Johnny Lee had the misfortune to slash one of his feet with an ax, making a very painful gash.

Some good, kind hearted neighbor who appreciates accomodations is putting out poison and killing all his neighbors dogs. Thursday night he got Uncle Pit's favorite dog, Friday night he got Geo Sutherland's fine Bezal hound and Saturday night he got the Pie Eater's white Spitz, which he would have refused $100 for, as he was my main stay in my berry and garden business as he kept all the chickens out of the garden and was always ready to drive up the cows. I assure you I am a little squeamish about the head.

Miss Dorothy Small returned home Monday after working for Mrs Matt Smith or Providence for some time as her health was failing, so she was not able to do the work.

The good wife of the Santiam Farm was called over Monday to see her brother, Isaac Crabtree, whom she found suffering with a severe attack of neuralgia in his head and otherwise afflicted, so she moved him to our house so we could minister to his wants, as we always run a free hospital.

The Santiam Farm highly appreciates reading the items from other correspondents in the News, as it helps make the paper quite interesting for all the readers, to learn what is going on in different sections and I assure you our editor is highly elated over so many sending in items last week, so let's all do all we can to help the cause.

Henry Ray and daughter Manda are both on the sick list with colds and grip.

Thomas Small is reported to be among those on the sick list which has knocked him off his feed.

Mrs Lou Titus and husband are now staying with David Horsburgs as they have all had a roundup with smallpox.

(We had to leave out one of the Pie Eater's best articles again this week, however it will appear net week, and we know he's good natured anyway, and won't kick.—Ed.)

PIE EATER.
