Geo Warner went to Albany Saturday for a short visit with relatives.

This is the season of the year when mothers feel very much concerned over the frequent colds contracted by their children, and have abundant reason for it as every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases that so often follow. Chamberlain's cough remedy is famous for its cures and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

Mr and Mrs R Y Morrison and little daughter drove over from Dallas Saturday evening for a short visit with his uncle, N I Morrison, returning home Monday.

Here is a message of hope and good cheer from Mrs C J Martin, Boone Mill, Va., who is the mother of eighteen children. Mrs Martin was cured of stomach trouble and constipation by Chamberlain's tablets after five years of suffering, and now recommends these tablets to the public. Sold by all druggists.

Elder H. W. Cottrell, president of the Western Oregon Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists will lecture at the Christian church Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30 p.m. You are cordially invited to attend.

Do you know that more real danger lurks in a common cold than in any other of the minor ailments? The safe way is to take Chamberlain's cough remedy, a thoroughly reliable preparation, and rid yourself of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

Guy McKnight returned from Mill City Saturday evening.

E M Kimball, the Jordan miller, was a Scio visitor Saturday.

John Frost was transacting business in Scio Tuesday.

SCHOOL NOTES

The fourth grade is carrying on a contest in arithmetic and the class has been divided into two sections.

All the pupils of the primary room were present last Monday, the first time in two weeks.

Delbert Meritt was the winner of the third grade arithmetic contest a few weeks ago.

The program given by the Intermediate boys was well attended by the parent and the Grammar grades were also present. There were several contests in which the other grades were permitted to compete. Prizes were given to the winners.

For opening exercises Tuesday morning, Mr Gray gave a review of the life of Juquin Miller, the Western poet, who died a few days ago. The students enjoyed the talk very much.

Gertrude McLain has returned to school after an absence of a week.

The Literary society will give their monthly program next Friday afternoon after recess. Everyone who takes an interest in the school work is cordially invited to attend.

The school garden which has been started in one corner of the city park is progressing rapidly under the care of Miss VanSlyke and the agriculture class.

Shelburn Items

Mrs McLain returned home Tuesday after spending two weeks at the bedside of her brother who is still quite sick.

Ralph McDonald was unable to teach school the first two days of this week because of the grip.

Malcolm Miller is still very low with illness.

Mr McLain sold his four yearling jersey heifers Wednesday to Mr Zeller of Thomas at $70. Mr McLain has worked up a good band of jersey cattle the last few years.

Inez Hiron was down with lagrippe the first of the week.

Lawrence Shelley, Chas Hull and Claude Churchill were subpoenaed last week to appear in court.

Everybody is busy these fine spring days.

Mill City items are unavoidable left out this week, but will appear next. We will try and do better next time, Nick.

The News made a mistake last week in the ad for Indian Runner duck eggs. The name should have been G A Morgan instead of Platt.
