Things To Do

A number of young people of the social set gathered at the T M Holt home Sunday where an enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Miss Margaret Brock spent Sunday with home folks.

Will Mespelt went to Albany Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs Wm Huntley.

The Sommer family gathered at the farm where Frank Sommer now resides for a family reunion. Mrs Sommer and all her children were present except Herman Sommer of Talent, and Mrs Clarence Beauvamp.

W H Holt who has been at Albany with Com T J Butler, returned home Tuesday. Mr Butler has been ill for several weeks with bronchial pneumonia but is improving now.

Miss Elsie Freetag spent Sunday with her sister Mrs John Dodge of Jefferson.

W Cletus Holt was at Scio Saturday on business.

Misses Lillie and Alta Schieman were Albany visitors Sunday.

Miss Ora Weddle of Scio visited last week with Miss Aurelia Cyrus, returning home Saturday morning accompanied by Miss Cyrus.

Harold and Donald Reiley visited at Fred Mespelt's Sunday.

Mrs James Bryant who visited with her mother, Mrs J N Jones, the past week returned to her home in Albany Thursday.

Wm Schultz of Albany was in this neighborhood last week looking after business matters.

Mrs E C Smith returned home Sunday evening after a visit at Salem.

The new bell at the Riverside school was placed on the building Saturday. It can be heard several miles and in fact is almost as good as the Liberty bell.

T M Holt went to Salem Saturday morning where he witnessed the opening of the Oregon Electric Bridge across the Willamette at that place. He says it is a fine structure and the opening was attended by a large crowd.

Miss Sylvia Holley of Albany was visiting Mrs Chapman over Sunday.

Mr and Mrs J H Kelly made a business trip to Albany Friday.

Mr and Mrs Muncey of Lebanon visited Sunday at A R McDonald's.

Charles Baum was called to Albany Tuesday evening on account of the illness of his wife who went there Monday on a visit.

You often hear people knocking the home paper and refusing to advertise, but S B Holt says it pays to advertise in the Santiam News for he offered a fine registered Poland China pig for sale and sold him to Jas Dawes a stock raiser of Mill City. Mr Holt informs me, however, that he still has one fine male pig that he will sell cheap if taken immediately.

E C Smith, our enterprising stock and produce buyer, made a trip to Tillamook county last week and purchased a number of fine grade Jersey and Guernsey heifer calves, which he distributed among the farmers of the neighborhood. We believe this is a move in the right direction and Mr Smith deserves praise for his interest in the matter. Ernest says he had a fine trip at the coast and enjoyed the mountain scenery very much.

The Unhappy Medium.

A French woman of noble family, who had been unfortunate in her marriage, one day said to a party of friends who were dining at her home:

"I should like to be married in English, in a language in which cows are so faithfully kept."

"What language, I wonder, was she married in before?" one guest remarked.

"Broken English, I suppose," replied the other. — Kansas City Times.

The Way Out.

"The trouble is," said Wilkins as he talked the matter over with his counsel, "that in the excitement of the moment I admitted that I had been going too fast and wasn't paying any attention to the road just before the collision. I'm afraid that admission is going to prove costly."

"Don't worry about that," said his lawyer. "I'll bring seven witnesses to testify that they wouldn't believe you under oath." — Harper's Weekly.

Well Preserved.

"I told Miss Knox today," said he, "that the only word that properly described you was 'peach.'"

"Indeed?" replied Miss Bute. "I suppose she said something 'real nice,' as usual?"

"Well, she said: 'I suppose that is the proper word. At any rate, she looks well preserved.'" — Philadelphia Press.

For Hair Health

If Rexall "93" Hair Tonic does not improve the health of your scalp and hair, we will pay for what you use during the trial.

We could not so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it to the same people if it did not do all we claim. Should it not prove entirely satisfactory our customers would lose faith in us, we would lose their patronage, and our business would suffer.

If your hair is falling out or you suffer any scalp trouble, we believe Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do more to eradicate the dandruff, give health to the scalp, stimulate new hair growth and prevent premature baldness than any other human agency.

We want you to make us prove this. We ask you to risk no money whatever. Buy a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, use it according to directions for thirty days; then if you are not entirely satisfied, come and tell us and we will promptly hand back the money you paid us for it.

We won't ask you to sign anything, nor even to bring the bottle back. We won't obligate you in any way. We will take your money word. Could anything be more fair? Could we do anything more to prove our belief in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and our honesty of purpose in recommending it to you?

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as spring water and has but a faint, pleasing odor. It comes in two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00. You can buy Rexall "93" Hair Tonic to this community only at our store:

Perfume For the Blind.

"A characteristic common to most presents given to the blind is perfume," said an asylum worker. "They fairly reek with it. The inmates of the home I visit received holiday presents by the wholesale. They were of every description and came from diverse quarters. Some had been made by the donors, some had been bought, but all smelled of the sachet bag. People who would shrink from a scent bag attached to a present for anybody else literally pour perfume on gifts to the sightless. Their intention is most kindly. Somehow they fancy that what the eye lacks the nose must make up for, and on goes the perfume." — New York Times.

Their Quitting Time.

Some men are as honest as the day is long, but quit at sundown. — Atlanta Journal.
