MILL CITY.

The rock crusher has been moved from here to the ridge between Jordan and Lyons. Some awful roads down there.

Dr. Denham and Supt. Olin took a ride to a logging camp on an electric tricycle. It left the track and the doctor is laid up with a broken leg.

The C. & E. R. R. Co. has been putting in the block system along at stations.

The railroad company is to put down heavier rails.

Think of a town the size of Mill City without a railroad depot. They occupy one rented room about 18x24 feet which is occupied by two agents, used for office, express office, passenger depot and piled nearly full of express matter and freight at times.
 They use a box car for freight also.

The base ball register reads as follows: Mill City won over Stayton, Gates beat Mill City and Mill City got the game a second time from Stayton 7 to 2.

Thurston Thomas of Jordan and Mr. Burton of Lacombe have been putting in a new telephone line along the railroad track to the Summit, making connection with central at this place. It is one continuous line from Lacombe around the head of Thomas' creek. John Mares, fire warden for timber companies, was around inspecting the line.

Mr. Ellis Shepherd from Crooked River, Crook county, has been visiting relatives here and at Solaville.
 He has bought a farm at Waterloo.

The mill company is building about eight more miles of track up Quarta-ville way.

Huckleberries are going to be plentiful.

A son of one Smith living near here went fishing and did not return and no trace of him can be found. The boat he used was caught 85 miles below in the Willamette.

Perhaps the most pleasing incident of the season was the presentation to Mr. T. B. Barnes of an Odd Fellows jewel or medal. It was granted him by the Scio lodge and sent to the Mill City Odd Fellows to present to him. He was called before the lodge in regular session and full regalia and presented to him in an appropriate speech. Mr. Barnes responded in his cheery way and received an ovation at the close. He was given the freedom of the hall and marked respect shown him in every way. T. B. was at one time city marshal of Scio and filled other positions. Mrs. Barnes is a member of the noted McKnight family.

 berries. He has a fine lot at the right
