Dr John Gill was over from Lebanon Tuesday.

Mrs M M Peery of Springfield is visiting at the home of P H MacDonald.

Mrs Herman Eckhardt came up from Portland Saturday for a visit with Mrs P H MacDonald.

Our shoes for men, women and children please both your purse and your feet.—Hibler & Gill Co.

Come out and see the photograph at Wesely-Cain hall Sunday evening.

J W Robey of the Kohler & Chase Piano Co. was over from Corvallis on business Wednesday.

For Sale—A nice roomy cottage in first class condition.—R M Cain.

For Sale—A bicycle in first class condition, for $10. Enquire at this office.

Does it pay to advertise? Jim Wann thinks so as he sold three thousand bushels of potatoes as a result of a two line ad which he placed in the columns of the News a few weeks ago.

Frank Dallison and little son of Calgary, Alberta, accompanied by Miss Black, arrived Saturday for a visit at the home of P H MacDonald.

Dr S L Brown of Portland visited over Sunday at the home of E D Myers. Mrs Brown who had been here for sometime, accompanied him home Monday.

Mrs Newt Crrbtree and little daughter of Portland who have been visiting at the home of Mr and Mrs L W Pomeroy, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs F W Arnold and Miss Grace Gill came over from Albany Saturday for a visit at the home of their parents, Mr and Mrs M C Gill.

Mrs J Y Turner of Waterville, Wash., who has been visiting at the home of W A Kimsey of this city, left Monday morning to visit her father, J W Richardson of Scio.

Dr Hobson left Tuesday afternoon for Stayton to join Mrs Hobson. From there they expected to go to Seaside for a week's outing, after which they will take in the Cherry fair and visit with Mrs Hobson's parents at Salem, returning home about July 6.

O E Holdridge and wife of Yoncalla spent several days here the past week visiting the latter's parents, Jesse Baird and wife. Mr Holdridge, who owns a general merchandise store at Yoncalla, was in business in Scio nineteen years ago, in the building now occupied by John Wesely. He notes many changes and improvements in Scio.

At a meeting of the Commercial Club last Friday evening it was decided to adjourn through the summer months, as it is hard to get an attendance through the busy season. Should any matters of importance come up at any time the president will call a meeting. The next regular meeting of the Club will be held the first Friday evening in October.

The Postscript.
Crawford—is the postscript always the important part of a woman's letter? Crabshaw—It is when it's from your wife. That's where she always mentions how much money she wants.—Judge.

Her Ideal.
Neil—Miss Antique says the only reason she has never married is because she has an ideal. What do you suppose her ideal is? Belle—Simply a man who will propose.—Philadelphia Record.

Flattery.
She (angrily)—Here's some fool man saying that all women are naturally dishonest.
He—Well, dearie, aren't you always stealing our hearts?—Baltimore American.

Bright Man.
"Why didn't you send your man to mend my electric bell?"
"He did go, madam, but as he rang three times and got no answer he concluded that there was nobody at home."—London Opinion.

He Remembered.
"Were you in Venice while you were abroad?"
"I forget. Were we, husband?"
"I don't see how you can forget Venice. That's where we got that good spaghetti."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Humor From the Judge.
"A soldier's bill is like a bulldog's," said the magistrate at Woolwich police court. "When first you look at it you think you have been robbed, but when you go through it carefully you feel sure you have."—London Mail.

Did the Best She Could.
"Hang it all, Helen, didn't you promise at the altar to love, honor and obey me?"
"Yes, dear."

"And didn't I positively forbid you to pay more than $25 for a new hat?"
"Yes, dear, but I found I simply could not love or honor you if I obeyed you."—Fun.

The Servian Wall.
The Servian wall was the first enclosing wall of ancient Rome and named for Servius Tullius, who is supposed to have built it. It was built against the cliffs of five of the famous hills of Rome, crossing the valleys between them at the narrowest part and reinforced at its weakest points by embankments and ditches.

MORAL EXCELLENCE.
Moral excellence is man's highest glory. Men everywhere and in all ages have rendered it their homage, but never more so than in the present time. Nothing in this age can take the place of it or atone for the want of it.—Rev. Dr. A. A. Willis.

I have a car of buggies, hacks, surreys and wagons that has just arrived. Call and examine them. They may be just a little foxy for you, but the price is right.—N I Morrison, Scio, Ore.

Jordan is planning on a big Fourth of July celebration. Some of the features promised are a big basket dinner, baseball game, horse races, foot races, bucking contest, etc, and a big dance in the evening.

The Waring-Leslie Medicine show has been playing to full houses every night this week at the Wesely-Cain hall. Black face comedy, sleight of hand and music keeps the crowd in a good humor, while a small part of the evening is devoted to the sale of medicine. Everyone pronounces it a good show.

Ask anyone that knows anything about harvesting machinery and they will tell you that when it comes to light draft and durability, there is no machinery on the market that can compare with the Deering line.—Blatchford Bros., Shelburn Ore.
