SANTIAM FARM TOPICS.

Charles Apple and family of Munkers were up Sunday visiting their old time friend and neighbor, Mrs Martha Smith of Racoon hollow.

John Griggs and wife of Crabtree were over Sunday laying in their winter supply of Kentish cherries which the long rain has not damaged though all other varieties are spoiled.

Grandma Poindexter of St Johns is up visiting with her daughter Mrs M C Gaines, also her brother James and wife are with them. Mr Poindexter is looking out for a small tract of land for a home in the valley as he has resided at Condon for the past 20 years and since securing a new wife he wishes to live among God's people.

M C Gaines and wife of Crabtree called at the Santiam Berry Farm recently for their winter supply of Kentish cherries and red currants. James Poindexter and wife have also recruited a winter supply of currants as they expect to return to their home at Condon. They are now out on their honeymoon and taking in the sights of their lives as they are both old batches of 56 and 43.

George Bilieu reports from Breitenbush Hot springs that he is improving every day and having a time such as you read about in the Bible. He will celebrate at the springs and then return home.

While raising Mat Smith's barn last Wednesday M C Gaines and Mr Asher yoked in a scuffle which resulted in M C falling on his shoulder and breaking the cap of the shoulder, and has laid him up for repairs. He will have to quit playing like boys.

Mr Meiser of east of Scio and Mrs Ellen Dorris of Albany were callers at the farm Wednesday for their winter's supply of currants and strawberries.

Now is your time to get your loganberries as they are ripe and fine as satin and price is starvation to the farm. 15c on the vine, 20c picked and delivered in Scio. Red Cuthbert raspberries 20c on the vine, 35c picked. Currants 20c on the bush. Vegetables if wanted.

PIE EATER.

I have a car of buggies, hacks, surreys and wagons that has just arrived. Call and examine them. They may be just a little foxy for you, but the price is right.—N I Morrison, Scio, Ore.

Moving picture show Sunday evening at Wesely-Cain Hall.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers.

B. R. L. C.

His Impression.

"What were her reasons for refusing you?"
"Well, it sounded like an essay on eugenics, geneology and finance."—Judge.

Charity.

The kind of charity that should begin at home is not the kind that consists in being kind to yourself.—Phila delphia Ledger.

The secret of success is constancy of purpose.—Lord Beaconsfield.

Not True to Life.

The son of a man who had been a great philanthropist welcomed a visitor to his office. The talk turned on the career of the father of the young man.

"It was a great blow to everybody—my father's death," lamented the youth. "By the way, here's the last portrait painted of him."

He led the visitor to where hung on the wall a large portrait of the dead philanthropist, depicting him as standing erect with his right hand in his pocket.

"A fine piece of work," said the visitor grimly, "but it's not true to life. Nobody ever saw your father with his hand in his own pocket."—Popular Magazine.

And It Came True.

"Have you ever had a dream that came true?"

"Yes! I had one only a few nights ago that came true. I dreamed that I was going to receive a telegram which I would be afraid to show to my wife."

"And you got it? Was it from another woman?"

"Yes."

"Say, old man, I am surprised"—
"Wait! It was from my mother, who notified me that she was coming to visit us for two or three weeks."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Consolation.

Stout Party—He called me a colossal ass. Friend—Well, you are large, you know.—London Mail.

Sassy.

Lady—Why, you naughty boy! I never heard such language since the day I was born.

Small Boy—Yes, mum. I s'pose dere wuz a good deal of cussin' de day y'u wuz born.—London Tit-Bits.
