

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS.

The big County Fair is now over and everything is quiet as a hen laying a goose egg. The fair was a grand success. What a blessing to parents that there was no swing or show on the grounds as they only calculate to teach children to be spendthrifts and never realize the worth of money, which is the first lesson that should be taught to children. Most all the prize winning exhibits were taken to the state fair to be placed on exhibition.

Mrs Oscar Philpott is expected home this week from Missouri where she has been at the bedside of her mother who is afflicted with a cancer and not expected to live but a short time.

Uncle Geo Bilyeu and wife left for the state fair Sunday to camp and spend the week.

Mrs Bell Alvord went over to Albany where she has a job of dressmaking with Mrs Ficklin.

Our neighbors along the road from the Hoffman bridge east were called to the bridge Saturday to look to the interests of a road from that place to connect with the county road from Scio to Albany, which was to be viewed and surveyed, but it seems queer that although they were all out no surveying was done and but little reviewing of the road. There does not seem to be much interest taken as to whether they shall lay out the road or not.

Our neighbors, Eli and John Plummer, have sold their home near the Franklin cemetery for $3,000 and have bought Mrs Ewing's property in Scio for $2,600, so they will be city people from now on.

The Santiam Farm has a variety of vegetables and fruit for sale—cabbage, squashes, tomatoes, beets, carrots, melons, grapes, apples, pears, quinces and prunes.
