

If it is for a Man or a Boy

You Can Get it Here

Our line of Men's Suits is large enough that you are sure to find just the one you want.

When you buy a suit of clothes you look for three main points:—

QUALITY, STYLE and PRICE

We have spent years to make these three points meet with your approval.

Boys' Knickerbocker Suits

The suits we show are everything you want in clothes. They are made for wear and service.

Browns, Grays and Blues

Shoes, Rubber Boots, Flannel Shirts and Winter Underwear

WE CLOTHE THE MEN AND BOYS

Parcel Post prepaid

Have you taken advantage of our "parcel post prepaid offer? Many have and not one has been disappointed.

You write or telephone us your order, giving as full description as you can of what you want, and we will choose for you as carefully as if you were here. If you receive merchandise from us that is not satisfactory in every way, return it to us, and we will either exchange it or refund your money.

Free! This special service costs you nothing. You can stay at home and sit by the fire this winter when the wind blows. Uncle Sam will deliver your goods to you and we will pay the charges and it don't cost you one cent more than if you came clear to our store.

Many of our customers buy their suits in this way, because they have confidence in us and because they know that they may return it if not satisfactory.

Mail in your orders, and we will ship to you the same day Parcel Post Prepaid.

The Blain Clothing Co.
ALBANY, OREGON

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY
CORRESPONDENTS

"THOMAS TOPICS."

Mrs Gust Schieman spent the latter part of the week visiting relatives in Albany.

A L Kelly went to Lebanon Sunday.

Mr Walters of Sweet Home visited at Will Hawk's a few days last week.

Mrs A R McDonald returned home Saturday from a two weeks visit with daughters at McMinnville.

John and Frank DeWall were business visitors at Albany Saturday.

Arch Ray and Scott Turner went to Albany Monday evening.

Gladys and Harry Jones spent Saturday at J G Holt's.

Among the number attending the football game at Albany Saturday we might mention Fred and Will Mespelt, Tom and Dwight Peterson, Harvey Freitag, W F Struckmeier, W H Reynolds, Elsie Bartnik, Vada, Smith and Cletus Holt.

Mrs Boeg has been quite ill the past week, but is now improving rapidly.

Mr and Mrs M P Bishop of North Yakima, Wash, after visiting a few days with friends and relatives in this vicinity, have gone on to Calif, where they expect to spend the winter.

Mrs Mabel Freitag and Miss Tena Peterson were Albany visitors last week.

W Gray and family of Jefferson, the large breeders of A J C C Jersey cattle and brown leg horn chickens, were visiting friends in this neighborhood Sunday.

B. R. L. C.

A Night of Terror

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this! Chamberlain's cough remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers.

Country Clippings

Here is the Country Jake. Not very busy, but knowing the condition of our roads, felt very sorry for our mail carrier so ceased sending items, thinking it would lighten his load.

Mrs Eli DeLong was a Scio visitor Saturday.

Miss Blanche Green of Crawfordsville is teaching a very successful school in Dist 83. She now has an enrollment of 23 pupils.

Will Hollis and wife of Burgen Hollow visited the formers cousin Bert Hollis and family of this section a few days last week.

Miss Hazel Fleming is doing housework for her aunt, Mrs Geo Grimes.

Wm Wirth and Edgar Brown were in Scio Saturday.

Misses Gladys Smith and Ada

Clark visited school Friday afternoon.

Ed Fleming and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with Wm and Geo Grimes and families.

Mrs Clyde Rogers of Lebanon spent last week with home folks, leaving Saturday to join Clyde in their new home at Mill City. She was accompanied by her parents, Mr and Mrs G C Westenhous who went along for a sight-seeing trip in that part of the country.

Mr O'Brien and two sons were in Scio Saturday.

Mesdames Bert and Wm Hollis called on Mrs Z J Clark Friday afternoon.

Misses Laura and Lola Westenhous spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks. Miss Laura is teaching in Dist 100 on Mt Prospect and Miss Lola is teaching in Dist 98 in Burgen Hollow. They both enjoy their work and report getting along nicely. Miss Laura has taught one month without any of her pupils being absent or tardy.

J B and Wm Fleming attended a surprise dance at Wm Darts Friday eve.

Miss Lulu Clark spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Fred Rahn and sister Miss Ida visited their sister Mrs Rolla Burris of Mehama over Sunday.

Death to headaches—glasses fitted by Drs Lowe and Turner.

A bargain you can see through—Harron Glycerin soap. 10c for a big cake; three for 25c.

Button's Business College
Albany, Oregon

Guarantees positions near home, furnishes free books and supplies, pays your railroad fare to and from school each day, so that you may board at home. School hours can be arranged to suit. It takes 3 to 4 months to complete a business course. We wait one year for our pay.

Write at once to

J. A. Button, Principal
ALBANY, OREGON

Notice to Pay Up

Those knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned will please call and settle.

E C Peery.

Cases of Insomnia.

The most common cause of insomnia is disorders of the stomach and circulation. Chamberlain's tablets correct these disorders and enable you to sleep. For sale by all dealers.

A chicken dinner will be served Sunday at the Scio Hotel.

Try "Harmony of Boston" spearmint tooth paste.

Our shoes for men, women and children please both your purse and your feet.—Hibler & Gill Co.

Here's a Snap

The News now has several big bargains in clubbing offers to give you. Among the most important ones are:

The Youth's Companion the balance of this year and all of 1914, with a fine calendar, the Santiam News for one year with a year's subscription to the Feathered World—all for only $2.75. Make your children happy with a present of the Youth's Companion, and put a smile on your wife's face with a year's subscription to the poultry journal and you will all be happy.

Another big offer is the Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean, the Semi-monthly Farm and Home, together with a 226 piece Xmas package, and the Santiam News a year—all for $1.50. Call at this office and see a sample package and copies of the papers.