Oregon Agricultural College

Farmers' Week

December 8 to 13, 1913

This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon.

Farmers' Co-operation will be the leading topic as a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home-maker.

Winter Short Course

January 5 to 30, 1913

The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in general agriculture, horticulture, animal husbandry, dairying, poultry keeping, mechanic arts, domestic science and art, commerce, forestry and music. Numerous lectures and discussions on Farmers' Co-operation, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address H. M. TENNANT, Registrar, Corvallis, Oregon.

Farmers' Business Courses by correspondence without tuition.

Troubles of an Amateur

"I thought you had gone to raising bees," said the man from the city. "I don't see any sign of them around here."

"I had half a dozen colonies of the finest bees I could get," answered the suburbanite, "and a whole library on bee raising, but they swarmed one day, and while I was looking through my books to find out what was the proper thing to do when bees swarmed the blamed things flew away, and I've never seen 'em since."—Chicago Tribune.

Never.

She: We women are all misunderstood. He: Well, you never saw one who tried to make herself plain, did you? Cincinnati Enquirer.

No, Indeed.

SIBBONS: Do you believe any man is rich enough to do absolutely as he pleases? CYNTHIA: Not if he's married. Philadelphia Record.

A coward never forgave. It is not his nature. French Proverb.

Declare War on Colds

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces resistance."

To which we would add—when you take a cold, get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlains cough remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.

Red Cross Seals

Stamp out Consumption by buying Red Cross Christmas Seals.

Red Cross seals are sold everywhere.

Tonight.

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlains tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by all dealers.

Why not spend Sunday evening at the picture show? First class films, good music and admission price 15c and 10c. Show starts at 8:00 sharp.

Cured of Liver Complaint

"I was suffering with liver complaint says Iva Smith of Point Blank, Texas, and decided to try a 25c box of Chamberlains tablets, and am happy to say that I am completely cured and can recommend them to every one." For sale by all dealers.

The Family Portraits.

"What would you say of a man if he should hang the portraits of his family on the outside of his house?" asked a builder who has put up some of the finest residences in the city.

"I might say he was crazy," responded his friend.
"Softly, softly. The man I have in mind is far from that. He's only in love with his family," went on the builder. "He has just had a costly dwelling built on Fifth avenue opposite Central park. Over the street door the medallion portraits of his wife and two children are chiseled in marble by a noted sculptor. Strangers often stop to admire the work of the artist."—New York Sun.

A Case of Caste.

A German professor praised American democracy at a Boston dinner. "You have equality here," he said, "and the gods, I am sure, look down on you with grave nods of approval. "But how the gods must laugh at the silly social distinctions which prevail abroad. I know, for example, of a cabinet minister who on an electioneering tour was invited to dine with two village political lights—a garbage man and an ash man. "The minister accepted the invitation with pleasure, and the garbage man also said he would be there, but the ash man spoiled everything by refusing to sit at table with a garbage man."—Exchange.

Identified Himself.

The great tenor Mario once had to give a free exhibition of his magnificent vocal power in court in order to gain freedom for himself. He had been arrested in Madrid in mistake for a mischievous political agitator and in vain proclaimed his identity to the powers that be. Finally he was told that if he really was the famous singer his voice was a certain means of convincing the court of the truth of his claim. For seven or eight minutes Mario held all within hearing spellbound, and he was then allowed to take his departure, with profuse apologies for his arrest and detention.
