Oregon Agricultural College

Farmers' Week

December 8 to 13, 1913

This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon.

Farmers' Co-operation will be the leading topic as a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home-maker.

Winter Short Course

January 5 to 30, 1913

The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in general agriculture, horticulture, animal husbandry, dairying, poultry keeping, mechanic arts, domestic science and art, commerce, forestry and music. Numerous lectures and discussions on Farmers' Co-operation, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address H. M. TENNANT, Registrar, Corvallis, Oregon.

Farmers' Business Courses by correspondence without tuition.

A Woman's "No."

"What's the matter?"
"She has rejected me again. She says this is final."
"Did she say how final?" inquired the older and more experienced man.
—Washington Herald.

Sounded Like It.

"Father, my watch is mentally deranged."
"Why, my son, a watch can't be mentally deranged!"
"Mine is. The jeweler told me it had lost its balance."—Judge.

Plenty of Practice.

"I met your friend Dudley today."
"Yes? I haven't seen him for a long time. I suppose he stutters as badly as ever."
"Oh, no! He's quite an adept at it now."—Philadelphia Press.

Had It In Large Doses.

Doctor—Yes, what you want is a change of climate. Er—what is your profession?
Patient—I'm the second mate of the liner Ann, just home from Australia.
—London Opinion.

Declare War on Colds

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces resistance."

To which we would add—when you take a cold, get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's cough remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.

Red Cross Seals

Stamp out Consumption by buying Red Cross Christmas Seals.

Red Cross seals are sold everywhere.

Why not spend Sunday evening at the picture show? First class films, good music and admission price 15c and 10c. Show starts at 8:00 sharp.

Cured of Liver Complaint

"I was suffering with liver complaint says Iva Smith of Point Blank, Texas, and decided to try a 25c box of Chamberlain's tablets, and am happy to say that I am completely cured and can recommend them to every one." For sale by all dealers.

MILL CITY.

The dance given by the basket ball club Thursday evening was well attended.

Art Rhoda of the north fork spent Sunday in Mill City.

George Bertriam is sick with the mumps.

Miss Albee, the primary teacher, will take the teachers examination the last three days of this week. Three high school girls, Mavia Hunt, Bessie Lettenmiar and Eva Downing will have charge of her room, one each day.

Dewey Flatman is attending school after a long absence.

The high school had quite a little excitement Wednesday afternoon when the Freshman class in performing some experiments succeeded in tipping over an alcohol lamp, causing quite a fire but it was soon put out.

George Sutherland, the Scio lamp agent, has been canvassing here the last week and also visiting friends.

Mr and Mrs George Rodgers and daughter Gladys of Scio spent Saturday and Sunday in Mill City visiting at the homes of Wm Downing, Lawrence Hoey and Clyde Rodgers.

One on uncle George. He thought he could go home on Sunday morning, but on account of the motor not running on Sunday, he had to stay over until Monday.

The high school will have a declamation contest Friday night at the opera house.
