

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

UPPER SANTIAM COUNTRY

Wallace Barnes and wife of Bridal Veil, on the Columbia, and Miss Jessie Barnes of Salem were up visiting their parents, Mr and Mrs T B Barnes.

Mr and Mrs Hayes of Tangent have been visiting with their son and family, also Mr and Mrs Barnes, the latter being a sister of Mrs Hayes. They are members of the pioneer McKnight family.

Mill City boasts of a wireless station. Eugene Morabert, long in the government wireless service, has brought an outfit with him, set it up on the Ray ranch where he lives, and picks up messages from vessels on the ocean and other points. When editors pocket books get more plerotic and apparatus becomes cheaper, each newspaper office will have a wireless.

Curtis Cole and wife are visiting her parents near Kingston. They are both employees of the H. L. Co, and Mr Cole is one of the children of Rev Cole of Bilyeu Den—a large and splendid family, a family trained in a house of righteousness and honor.

Mrs T Hennes is judge and Mrs Fred Hester is clerk on the new election board at Gates.

Hundreds of people living in the forks of the Santiam who come for an outing and to pick berries, will find that the Hammond Lumber Co. is building a railroad up Little Rock creek. They have a large force of men at work.

It seems strange that able bodied men go marching up the Willamette valley demanding work when there is common work a plenty up here. When the mill is running any man can get two or more dollars a day.

Mr and Mrs Greenhagen will move to Toledo. They will be missed.

Teamers are freighting in and out to the mines no matter what the weather is. They get $5.50 per day, single team at that.

T J McClary while doing assessment work in his mine at Quartzville contracted the grippe. He is now convalescing after a long spell of sickness. Mac campaigned Linn county twice for the Populists and later for the Socialists. He has been the regular Fourth of July orator up here for 25 years.

Mrs E H B, whose husband deserted her and little boy, has married Mr R, a splendid man. There will be no desertion this time.

Mr S, whose wife went east on a visit and failed to come back, received a letter from the little girl expressing a wish to come home. His mother went after her, hired a fast team, went to the school house, took her and started for a station eight miles away, hoping to catch the fast mail train for Chicago and get her out of the state before requisition papers could be served. Two men followed in an auto and took the child back. I am mourning about the girl without a home. It takes two parents to make a home. A similar incident happened in Scio 27 years ago. A little girl was on her way to school and was picked up on Main street and whisked to Missouri. It was an aggravated case because the father had the boy and tore the girl away from the mother, a good woman.

J R G says if the affinity business keeps up he is going to move to Scio where there are no affinities and get out of the danger zone.

His Stomach Troubles Over

Mr Dyspeptic would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury. That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you. Jno R Barker of Battle Creek, Mich, is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's tablets, then my trouble was over. For sale by all dealers."

"THOMAS TOPICS."

John DeWall and wife were trading in Scio Friday.

J K Kelley and family spent Sunday at Fred Mespelt's.

Cletus Holt was a business visitor in Jefferson Monday.

Win and Leonard Gilkey, G H Smith and Mr Gibson were transacting business in Albany last Tuesday.

Miss Leola DeWall of Albany visited last week with relatives here.

James Reiley and family visited over Sunday with relatives in Lebanon.

Will and Dolph Mespelt were Albany visitors Wednesday evening.

Miss Gladys Dayball after being confined to her home with a slight attack of tonsillitis, is again able to attend school.

J G Holt, wife and son Cletus and T M Holt and daughter Vada, were among the Albany visitors Tuesday.

Mrs Davidson and Mrs Reed arrived from California Thursday for a visit with their mother, Mrs Chapman and other relatives here.

J H Kelly and wife, W H, T M, and Mrs J G Holt attended the funeral of Grandma Calavan at Scio Friday.

A G Knapp has sold his farm on the Albany road between Thomas and Crabtree to Mr Callahan of Albany.

A "corn shelling" party was given at H A Munsell's Friday evening. A number of young folks were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

We noticed an article in the Albany Democrat last week where T M Holt had thrown his hat in the ring to become a candidate for County Commissioner at the coming primary election to be held May 15.

The people of this neighborhood are making preparations for the Dairymen's meeting to be held at Scio, Saturday, January 24. Dairying being an important industry of this place, all the farmers, and especially the dairymen, are urged to be present at this meeting.

County Judge McKnight and County commissioner Russel came out to Gilkey station Wednesday morning to view the road near that place which has been reported as being in a bad condition caused by the hauling of piling cut from the Quigley place by S E Russell and hauled to Gilkey station for shipment.

A Story a Day

A story a day for the 365 day of 1914—that is what you get by subscribing $2 for the Youth's Companion's new volume. The fifty-two weekly issues of the Companion will contain at least 365 stories, and all other kinds of good reading that can be crowded between two covers—the best advice on athletics for boys, articles on dress and recreations for girls, contributions by famous men and women, suggestions for the care of the health, etc.

For the year's subscription of $2 there is included a copy of the Companion Practical Home Calendar for 1914, and all the issues for the remaining weeks of this year, dating from the time the subscription is received.

If you want to know more about the Companion before subscribing, send for sample copies containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stanwood Pier's fine serial of life in a boys' school—"His Father's Son." With them we will send the full announcement for 1914.
