

The Santiam News.

VOL. XVII

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1914.

NO. 33

Possibly About You

AND DON'T MAKE YOUR ONLY STOP IN PORTLAND

What Happened to Jones?

John Kelly was an Albany visitor Saturday.

Picture show Sunday night, 10c and 15 cents.

John Gill is very ill with an attack of heart trouble.

S. Philippi has sawed oak posts, well seasoned, for sale. Call at my home and see them.

Mrs. V. A. McKnight went up to Mill City Saturday for a visit with her son Don, and family.

A full line of spring goods now on display at John Weselys.

Mrs. Eliza Crabtree enjoyed a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Rose Rahn, of Jefferson, the first of the week.

Stock foods, lice killer, sheep dip, veterinary remedies, for the protection of your live stock, at Peery's drug store.

Potato culls for sale, 12 1/2c per bushel. Bin by Scio school house. C. U. Sandoz.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Blatchford of Salem were Scio visitors last Saturday.

Don't fail to see "What Happened to Jones," at High School Auditorium, Friday, March 13.

Our shoes for men, women and children please both your purse and your feet. -Hibler & Gill Co.

Father Lane of Albany conducted services at the Catholic church here Sunday.

Do you want a guitar? This instrument is concert size, has a splendid tone and good volume, and a substantial case, beginners instruction books, chord book, and one of advanced music goes with it. If you want a good guitar and have any sporting blood in your veins, call on A W Hagey, the jeweler, and make him an offer on the outfit.

Dr. Prill reports the following births: February 24, to the wife of Charles Chrz, a son; February 27, to the wife of Will Garland, a 9 1-2 pound girl; February 28, to the wife of Joseph Lulay, of Kingston, a daughter.

Before you send your order to Rice & Phelan or Sears & Roebuck or any other mail order house, let me figure with you on your needs and if I can't meet their prices on the same line of goods—all right, I have no kick coming, but if you can buy the same things of me at their price and terms, I believe it is your duty to give me your business. Yours for more business. -N I Morrison.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.25 per year. The price is $1.50 if paid at end of year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

What Happened to Jones?

Bob Miller of Albany spent Saturday in Scio. His son, Bill, who has been here for several days, returned home with him.

S C Brown Leghorn eggs for sale from selected hens, mated with cockerels from Shoemaker strain, 75c per 15. Guy McKnight.

Big King is expecting boat load of wire.

Buy of him, Mr Farmer and you soon can retire.

As Big King buys direct from the mill

He has the prices going down the hill.

His competitors you know are not dead but sleeping.

Big King's prices are so low they are creeping.

His price on the nine bar is 28. So you better leave your order before its too late.

-Chas. Wesely

Drs. Lowe & Turner, eye specialists of Portland, will be in Lebanon Monday and Tuesday March 9 and 10, and in Albany Wednesday and Thursday, March 11 and 12, at the St Francis hotel.

Card of Thanks

We hereby express our gratitude and thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in the sickness and death of our beloved mother and grandmother.

W E Churchill and wife
Chas. O Churchill and wife
Claude Churchill and family
Walter Churchill and family
Delmer Churchill

Ground

Green bone 7c, meat scraps 3c, dry bone 2 1-2c, cracklings 2 1-2c. Scio Meat Market.

For Sheriff

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Linn County on the Democratic ticket, subject to the will of the voters, at the primary election to be held on May 15, 1914.

W J MOORE,

Brownsville, Oregon.

Old papers one cent a pound at the News office.

1914 will be one of the most prosperous years this section has ever had and if you want to get the greatest amount of prosperity, get your hardware, implements, paints, oils, vehicles, furniture, linoleums, rugs, harness and harness supplies, in fact everything along the above lines and more, at Scio's cheapest house. N I Morrison.

Oregon News Notes

Oregon Development News in Line of Industries, Payrolls, and Products of Labor and Enterprise.

(Prepared by the State Bureau of Industries and Statistics.)

The Meier & Frank stores at Portland are to be raised to twelve stories for the entire block which they occupy at a cost of $1,250,000.

A committee of citizens of Drain in northern Douglas county has inspected the Eugene Cannery and will proceed to act at Drain.

F M Fletcher has been on Coos Bay prospecting for the location of a Beaver Compo Board plant—a line of building material.

There is a general movement among sawmill men to resist encroachments of labor organizations and conduct their industries on open shop lines.

The $600,000 public Auditorium for Portland has at last been located on Market block.

Guy L Anderson, general manager of the Sumpter valley railroad, announces expenditures of $100,000 on betterments of that line.

Toledo Lumber Company shipped 450 carloads during 1913 and the city is to have an electric light and power station built at once.

Ashland prospectors have found a lithia water spring that has a flow of 25 gallons per minute and will bottle the product.

A modern vulcanizing plant will be installed at Salem, Apr. 1.

After long delays the S P Co. bridge across Coos Bay is at last agreed upon to be the swing-draw type.

The fight to make the State Printing office an open shop has been renewed by the Employers Association of Portland.

A cheese factory is to be located at Half Way station in the Pine Valley by the Jensen Creamery Co., of Baker City.

The people of Oreno have voted to issue bonds for a municipal water plant.

The St. Helens Incubator Co. has a large order for incubators and brooders from an eastern mail order house.

Business men of Eugene are planning to have a county manufacturers' exhibit and factories' promotion conference in April.

Coos Bay paper pulp will be shipped on vessels to China and Japan for paper manufacture.

The Tumalum Lumber Co., that operates sawmills and lumber yards in Oregon Washington, will open a branch at Umatilla.

Milton will have a two story machine shop and foundry as soon as a suitable brick building can be erected.

The initiative and referendum against a franchise for the new Carver electric line from Portland to Oregon City is to be recalled.

Gus Schlagel will erect an ice

Big Rally Held

The educational rally held by County Superintendent Jackson and Supervisor Benner Friday evening and on Saturday, was largely attended and great interest was shown. The crowd on Saturday was so large that all could not be seated in the assembly room to listen to the program.

On Friday night Dep. State Superintendent F. K. Wells, delivered an address at the high school auditorium which was attended by a large crowd.

Saturday the high school building was filled with a large crowd from Scio and surrounding country. During the forenoon an excellent program was given by students of Scio schools and rural schools of this vicinity. The program was well rendered and most of it showed careful preparation.

In the afternoon the following program was given: "Industrial Clubs and School Exhibit," by Prof. F. L. Griffith, of O. A. C.; "What the School Should Do for the Pupil," by County Supervisor Benner; "County Problems," by County Judge McKnight; "County Athletics," by Prof. L. L. Marquam, of Albany schools; "Home and the School," by Prof. M. S. Lovelace, of Scio Schools.

"Linn County Fair" Best Ever

The Linn County Fair, which was staged at Wesely-Cain hall last night was one of the best home talent plays that has ever been put on in Scio. At least a dozen of the participants are worthy of special mention, and in fact they were all good, but we regret that lack of space does not permit us to go into details.

Calves for Sale

Choice young calves for sale. For further particulars call or write E C Smith, Scio Hotel.

factory and cold storage plant at Lakeview, the first in that county.

Tremendous public interest centers in the decision that is expected from the Supreme court in the test case on the Minimum wage law.

L R Fields is succeeded as Superintendent of the Southern Pacific by Frank L Burkholder, for some time district Engineer.

The tests made of Coos Bay paper pulp made from sawmill waste are pronounced very satisfactory by the Oregon City paper mills.

The Portland, Eugene and Eastern, S.P. interurban electric system has out its first official timecard, with L R Fields superintendent.

The machinery for the new Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. sawmill at Springfield is arriving and being installed.

Work has begun on the new Hunt Brothers' cannery plant at Salem, to be one of the largest in the northwest and to employ 300 hands.

The date has been set for the Marion county good roads bond election for May 15, primary election day.

What Happened to Jones?

Mrs. C. A. Parker transacted business in Albany last Monday and Tuesday.

Call at News office and see sample copies of Colliers Weekly—one of our best clubbing offers.

Call and see the latest in dress goods for spring. John Wesely.

Mrs. Stella Fleming, who has been visiting with home folks, returned to Salem Monday.

If your subscription to The News is due, better pay up now and get four big magazines, all one year, for only 18 cents extra.

Mrs. Emma Cyrus, who has been in a Portland hospital for several weeks has returned home.

Why not spend Sunday evening at the picture show? First class films, good music and admission price 15c and 10c. Show starts at 8:00 sharp.

Rev. J. W. Richardson, who has been ill for some time, is slowly improving.

For the best in paints, varnishes, wall paper, etc, investigate my line before buying. E C Peery.

Recleaned red clover seed at 12c per pound. Inquire at John Shimanek's. 33-1f

William Wallace left Monday for Hilder, Mont., to visit his sister, Mrs. J. A. Reardon.

"What Happened to Jones," High School Auditorium, the 13th.

Mrs. E. H. Hobson is visiting relatives in Stayton this week.

Buy all your magazines of us. We can give you four magazines one year with The News for only 18 cents extra.

A carload of wire direct from the factory will be here in a few days, so if you need any fencing it will pay you to get our prices. We can save you money by leaving your orders with us before the car arrives. -Chas. Wesely.

All the latest lasts in shoes on display at Weselys.

The fact is, the four magazines we sell with The News for 18c extra, represents the biggest reading value ever offered the public. Have you sent us your order? If not, send it or phone us today.

Last Saturday Deputy Sheriff J. M. Lindley, accompanied by N. I. Morrison, John Thomas and Frank Janguwita, made a trip to Jordan valley, 12 miles above Scio where they arrested Calayan Neal, who has threatened the lives of several of his relatives and friends in the past three weeks and twice hurled rocks at the head of his brother-in-law, Fred Pepperling, when he went to Neal's cabin to see if the latter was in need of supplies of any kind. Neal was taken to Albany Tuesday where he was adjudged insane by County Judge McKnight, and committed to the State Insane Hospital at Salem and was taken there that afternoon.