

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Oscar Philpott and wife were out Saturday rustling a farm to rent or lease for a term of years as they have given up going to Missouri. We hope they will find a home near us as we hate to give them up.

Miss Bertha Smith was out home over Sunday from Scio where she is attending school.

Mrs James Craft gave a quilting Saturday with several ladies present and a nice dinner.

Goat shearing is now on in full blast. Jas Pielt can shear a goat as quick as a woman can peel a potato.

Fred Sturges has finished his job of hauling wood out of the creek and loading on the cars at Gilkey station.

Frank Pruitt is slashing timber for Mr Horseburg for the wood.

Mrs M C Gaines is having a young lady, Miss Green stay with her while she is in poor health.

M C Gaines is in the market for goats as he bought a nice bunch of Wm Richardson and is prospecting G A Griffins band.

Louis Conser is again in the market for a nice girl or young widow who wishes a nice home and a bright future. He says he is tired of batching as it is no way for young man to live, with a good home for a nice wife.

Our Farmers Educational Union No 102 of Richardson Gap met Sunday. They took in a new class of members, had a good time, ordered 50 sacks of No 1 sugar, and contemplate ordering two to four tons of salt, 500 lbs of rice and other necessities as soon as prices are established. It is the place for all farmers, and we solicit you to join us for your own protection. We see what the Union has done in the east, as well as Washington and eastern Oregon and it will do the same for us. So come along, make no delay. Farmers are waking up, as they have been gouged long enough by men who have their hooks baited to catch suckers.

The Santiam berry farm has completed a new machine for cleaning gooseberries ready to cook, which is a wonderful labor saver.

Mr Ramsey of near the Richardson bridge who had a slight stroke of paralysis is slowly improving. The union appointed a member to sit up with him.

Mrs George Miller of Shelburn is visiting her friends, Thomas Smalls.
