children everywhere. For sale by all

"Political Parties in Oregon" should be in every public and school library in the state. A High School history teacher praises the author for the ease with which one can follow and understand the various phases of the subject, rendering it valuable and interesting alike to the mature scholar and the young student. It is likewise indispensable to the private library, whose owner assumes an interest in Oregon history. Two dollars a copy at News office.
