

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Farmers are having a time with clods as most of the land was plowed too wet and the sun and wind dried it up before they could work it.

Mrs Bell Alvord and a gentleman friend drove over from Stayton Monday for dinner with the former's mother Mrs Gaines.

John Griffin came over Monday evening to his mother all knocked out with the grippe. He has been waiting on Mr Montgomery who has been sick for a long time.

"Strawberries—At the old reliable Santiam berry farm after Sunday, the 10th, at reasonable prices—20c on the vines, 25c picked. All are assured good measure and first class Oregon berries. So come and be assured of good treatment and fair dealings.—S W Gaines.

Mrs M C Gaines is still quite poorly and Dr Davis was called in consultation with Dr Prill who decided she must have a nurse as she is in a critical shape.

The Pie Eater is a little shy on items this week as work is more interesting.

REPUBLICAN VOTERS SHOULD BEWARE

Party Should Be Represented on National Committee
By a Republican

The Republicans of Oregon are entitled to have a Republican named as the National Republican Committeeman from this State. C. W. Ackerson, who claims to be a Republican, is a candidate. He registered as a Progressive January 5, 1914. Then signed petition of H. W. Coe to be Progressive National Committeeman. Then cancelled his registration as a Progressive and immediately filed his candidacy for membership on Republican National Committee. Has been an intimate and convenient understudy of the Progressive National Committeeman and seems now to be in combination with him in an attempt to shanghai the Republican organization. His candidacy is being actively backed by parties hostile to the Republican party and having personal interests and private personal grudges to serve. His erratic and excitable temperament has frequently led him to flood the columns of the press with violent attacks upon the Republican party and vicious personal abuse of prominent Republicans and life-long residents of the State.

It is a grave abuse for parties who are not Republican to register as such. It is a graver abuse for outsiders to attempt the capture of a political party to gratify a personal grudge and to promote party discord. It is an abuse against which fair-minded men of all parties will rise in protest. We can never have a reunited party by pushing to the front political bores and men who are political reformers simply for the sake of office. Having been a Republican only twenty-four hours when he announced his candidacy for the highest honorary position in the gift of the party, is some indication of what Mr. Ackerson's motive was in registering as a Republican. As Hon. Ralph E. Williams is the only Republican who is a candidate for Republican National Committeeman, we feel warranted in urging all loyal Republicans in the state to give him their earnest and enthusiastic support.

Fashion.

There exists a strict relation between class of power and the exclusive and polished circles. The last are always filled or filling from the first. Fashion, though in a strange way, represents all manly virtue. It is virtue gone to seed, a kind of posthumous honor, a hall of the past. Great men are not commonly in its halls. They are absent in the fields; they are working, not triumphing. Fashion is made up of their children.—Emerson.

Breaking It Gently.

"I understand, sir, that you are the possessor of a swollen fortune."

"Well," gruffly answered the beautiful girl's father, "what is that to you?"

"I merely thought that I would give you due notice of my intention to help take the swelling out of it. Myrtle and I are going to be married."—Chicago Record Herald.
