

The Santiam News.

VOL. XVII

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1914.

NO. 43

Possibly About You

AND DON'T MAKE YOUR ONLY STOP IN PORTLAND

Chas Rhoda was a Scio visitor Tuesday.

Caz Chrisman of Turner spent Sunday here.

R R Boroviska of Crabtree was in town Monday.

J R Gill has returned home from Newport.

Miss Helen Muzzy of Thomas was shopping in Scio Tuesday.

T Y S Ballantyne made a business trip to Albany Tuesday.

The bank inspector was here Tuesday.

Mrs Vilas Philippi of Kingston is visiting at the home of Steve Philippi.

Mrs E Cox of Springfield is here visiting her grandmother, Mrs Morris.

Wm Gorgor of Jordan went to Portland Tuesday.

Mike Bilyeu of Jordan was a passenger to Portland Thursday.

J F Wesely returned home from Portland Tuesday.

Mrs E H Hobson went to Stayton Monday for a visit with relatives.

Mr Lamplot of Crabtree was a Scio visitor Monday.

C R Nokes, the S P agent at West Scio, was in town Tuesday.

P R Bilyeu was trading in Scio Tuesday.

A daughter was born to the wife of C U Sandoz last week.

T J Munkers of Portland spent the latter part of the week in Scio on business.

John Wesely is very busy these fine days breaking in a new Buick which he bought last week.

All makes of typewriter ribbons for sale at the News office, 35c each.

Best typewriter carbon paper made, two sheets for 5c at the News office.

Dance at Wesely-Cain hall Saturday, May 16. Good music and good floor. Dancing tickets 75c.

Mrs Walter Bilyeu, who is taking osteopathic treatments at Albany, came over Friday after an absence of nine weeks and remained until Tuesday afternoon. She is improving somewhat and her many friends hope for her recovery to normal health.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.25 per year. The price is $1.50 if paid at end of year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

Lee Bilyeu of Lebanon was a Scio visitor Monday.

W A Ewing and family transacted business in Albany last week.

Mrs C A Parker and son Elden visited Saturday with her daughter, Mrs Mary Hodge at Philomath.

Mrs C A Warner was an Albany visitor Friday.

Ralph Gill of Portland came in Friday on a short business trip.

Will Richardson was an Albany visitor Friday.

W E Wilson will conduct services at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening.

To much trouble to go to church and get dinner the same day? Get Sunday dinner at the Scio Hotel.

Frank Dobrovsky was placed under arrest last Friday by Humane Officer, F M Hunter of Portland, on the charge of unmercifully beating his horses. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace, R Shelton, when he entered a plea of guilty. As repeated reports of his cruel and inhuman treatment have circulated persistently for a long time, Mr Shelton gave him a fine of $50 and 30 days in the county jail. Deputy Sheriff Lindley escorted the prisoner to Albany Saturday.

Why not spend Sunday evening at the picture show? First class films, good music and admission price 15c and 10c. Show starts at 8:00 sharp.

Friday, May 22, Good Roads Day, will be fittingly observed in Dist. 15, announces Supervisor R Shelton. The day will be devoted to improving the road that leads from Scio to Jordan. The school children as well as the grown-ups are urged to be on hand with well filled dinner pails and shovels. Plenty of work can be found for the youngsters picking up small rocks which are too numerous in this road. Don't forget the date and the place.

Many good words are being heard for F M Brown of Brownsville for the third representative on the republican ticket. His name does not appear on the ballot, so will have to be written in, as there are three to elect and only two names appear. Mr Brown is a clean, sound man who is opposed to freak legislation and useless appropriations, and you will make no mistake by writing his name after No. 52 on the primary ballot tomorrow.

Oregon News Notes

Oregon Development News in Line of Industries, Payrolls, and Products of Labor and Enterprise.

Marion and Clackamas counties are holding road bond elections May 15, that will, if carried result in expenditures of over a million dollars on hard surface highways.

The Cottage Grove Co-operative Creamery will ask to increase its capital stock to $10,000 and enlarge the plant.

The business men of Canby are trying to establish a ferry across the Willamette.

Farmers and fruit growers of the state generally are organizing against the proposed eight hour law.

Arrangements have been completed for the construction of 27 miles of logging road out of Sutherlin toward Coos Bay.

The Southern Pacific will build a mile passing track at Mohawk Junction.

About two thousand dollars has been subscribed to establish a pottery plant at Mollala.

State Labor Commissioner Hoff has not carried out his threat to have the state officials placed under arrest for not introducing the eight hour law in state institutions.

The S P & S railroad is considering building a new line from the John Day river to its new terminals at the mouth of the Columbia if better business conditions warrant the expenditure in Oregon.

A new company has been formed at Newport to put a modern halibut fishing schooner on the banks north of that place.

Hominy is said to be the only important food product not manufactured in Oregon.

The Lebanon Sand and Gravel Co has installed a lot of new machinery for a modern plant at that city.

W W Cotton is heading a movement for a farmers co-operative cannery at Gresham, and the Brownsville plant may be moved there.

The wool industry of eastern Oregon is passing through a season of the greatest activity, prices going as high as 19 cents.

The grading crew on the Willamette Valley and Siletz railroad is working as far west as Hoskins.

The made in Lane county exposition was a great success, and concluded with a made in Oregon banquet Saturday night at the Osburn hotel in Eugene.

The longshoremen's strike to force recognition of the freight checkers' union at Portland proved a failure when passengers cancelled their tickets on account of the delay.

Work has commenced on a new brick building for the Courier at Oregon City.

Roseburg people are up in arms at the threat of Governor West to annul construction of barracks for the Soldiers Home

Council Proceedings

An ordinance fixing the rate for motion picture shows at one dollar per day was passed over the Mayor's veto.

An ordinance regulating the light and water rate in and outside the corporation was passed by the council after the third reading.

An ordinance to regulate dances both public and private, and prohibit ragging and tangoing was lost by a vote of four to three.

An ordinance was passed fixing a salary for the city treasurer at $25 a year.

The following bills were ordered paid:

J N Weddle, marshal.....	$10.00
J S Stieha, city recorder.....	17.49
Walter Bilyeu, light supt.....	65.00
A L Geddes, establishing grade and making plot of city.....	200.00

For Sale—Four milk cows, two fresh now and two will be fresh in October, all young stock; two heifer calves seven months old; one yearling heifer. All in prime condition.—A Sowers, one mile northeast of Shelburn.

A good start has been made toward raising funds for a rose show the last of the month and the event seems to be assured now. Further particulars will be given next week.

If any people in Scio or vicinity suffering from disease wishes to take Osteopathic treatment and will write to me, I could arrange to practice in Scio on three days of each week. Address Dr G L Cunningham, Lebanon, Ore. Phone M 236. 43

For the next thirty days I will give you some bargains on linoleums and rugs.—N I Morrison.

Marion F Wood who is out for the republican nomination for county recorder, is a graduate of O A C, holds a state life diploma, and is well qualified for the office which he seeks. adv

Lost—A new buggy robe with burnt hole patched with black cloth. Suitable reward if returned to E A Easton or left at News office. 41 as provided by the last legislature.

Bids have been taken for the construction of the new public docks at Astoria.

The Great Northern railroad has placed orders for ten million feet of lumber and one thousand refrigerator cars.

Oil lands are being taken up very rapidly in Malheur county and many wells are being developed.

It is proposed to hold a Umatilla county manufacturers' exposition at Pendleton some time this summer.

Polk, Yamhill and Washington counties have united to put crude oil on the main roads in the county to get rid of the dust nuisance.

Mary Jane Bilyeu

Mary Jane Gumm was born in Appanoose county, Iowa, Nov 9, 1852, and died at her home in Scio, May 1, 1914.

She was married to J T Bilyeu to which union was born three children, Mrs Oscar Grisham and Mrs Wm J Unger, both of Lebanon, and Fred T Bilyeu of Scio.

Mr and Mrs J T Bilyeu lived six miles south of Scio for 35 years on the home farm, from which place they moved to Scio about 12 years ago.

Mary J Gumm with her parents crossed the plains by ox team in 1865. On the trip many hardships were endured. The train consisted of 25 ox teams, all of which came from one neighborhood. She settled with her parents near Scio where they lived for a short time then went to Washington, but she soon returned to Scio where she spent the remainder of her life. Her father and mother remained at Tekoa, Wash, where they lived until their deaths which occurred a few years ago.

Mrs Bilyeu was a member of the Christian church from which the funeral services were conducted by Rev Roswell of Stayton. She is survived by four sisters and four brothers, who live near Tekoa, Wash.

Take your baby buggy to Hagey, the jeweler, and have new tires put on. He has the machinery to do it with.

Franklin Butte Masonic Cemetery Notice

All persons interested are required to be present or represented at the Franklin Butte Masonic Cemetery Saturday May 23, for the customary clean up. Bring scythes, shovels, rakes, etc. Come early and make arrangements to stay all day if possible. By order of Scio Lodge No. 39, A F & A M.

Order your winter's wood now. Four foot old growth fir slabwood delivered at end of flume on Richardson Gap road for $1.00 per cord or delivered anywhere in Scio for $1.75 a cord—discount in ten cord lots. Phone the sawmill or leave orders at Wade's store.—The Houser-Ballantyne Mill Co.

You make no mistake when you buy a Willamette Silo. They are the best yet. See Morrison.

Eat your Sunday dinner at the Scio Hotel.

Our shoes for men, women and children please both your purse and your feet.—Hibler & Gill Co.

Stock foods, lice killer, sheep dip, veterinary remedies, for the protection of your live stock, at Peery's drug store.