The Whole Business.

A very young housekeeper went to market to purchase a spring chicken. After selecting one and inquiring the price she said:

"Isn't 3 shillings rather high?
The poulterer in our road only charged me 2s. 9d. the other day."

"With the feet on?" asked the salesman.

"No. I believe, now you mention
it, the feet were cut off," she replied, with some hesitation.

"I thought so," said the man at the stall. "When we sell a fowl
here, ma'am, we sell it feet and all."
—London Telegraph.
