

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Geo Bilyeu has Carlton Merry of Lebanon drilling some wells on his farm.

Ceci Crumes is having his barn remodeled and a new roof, which adds to the appearance of the place.

Oscar Philpott and Mr Merritt were out the middle of the week looking for a farm to move to this fall.

Pitt Wallace is progressing nicely with his new barn.

David Horseburgh is preparing to build a new stock barn on his pasture farm, as he is well supplied with a herd of fine Jersey cows.

Our road boss, Billy Richardson, is doing some good work grading our road. He intends starting the rock crusher Monday and covering the ground with a good coat of crushed rock.

Business is rushing out here these days.

The Farmers Educational Union and the Bohemian Lodge will join hands in celebrating the Fourth at the Bohemian hall near the Richardson bridge. All are cordially invited to attend as we will have some fine speaking and a general good time. Bring along your basket and all your friends.

The boys in our part have a new game to amuse themselves by corralling three or four of the neighbors' bulls on Sunday, breaking them to ride and learning to be bronco busters.

James Poindexter of Portland was up last week spying out a location. He says Portland is no place for him. He reports his wife nicely recovering from a serious operation some two weeks ago.

Mrs M C Gaines is slowly on the mend.

All who want currants, red raspberries, cherries and gooseberries, come on at once. Loganberries are also ready, 15c.

Get Rid of Your Rheumatism

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do it if you apply Chamberlain's Liniment. W A Lockhard, Homer City, N Y, writes, "Last spring I suffered from rheumatism with terrible pains in my arms and shoulders. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and the first application relieved me. By using one bottle of it I was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.
