UPPER SANTIAM EVENTS

Perry Blyeu of Crabtree was up shaking hands with old friends recently.

John A Shaw and J K Weatherford of Albany were seen wandering around and through the big mill.

Mr Carter of Gates was sawing logs for the Schroeder mill and a log rolled over him and broke his left leg. Last year he was cutting logs at Hall's camp and a log rolled over him and broke his right leg. The ladies at Gates gave a basket social and raised a good sum to help him financially.

Bob Robertson and wife are visiting with his parents. He is one of the engineers on the Camel E.

Grape vines and walnut trees that were frosted have put forth new leaves and the grape vines are forming new bunches.

Now is the time to spray with arsenate of lead in the proportion of one lb of arsenate to 25 gallons of water.

Some say that the 20-year panic is on. President Wilson has evidently foreseen it and expects the regional bank business to pass it over. No doubt it will help. No use, however, to get panicky. Cut expenses in two; spend one dollar where you spent two; do without that new automobile; patch your pants; cut the legs of your overalls off way above the knees and turn them around; leave your money in the bank.

The saws and some of the new planers were started in the Hammond mill last Monday. Scores of men are coming from below and going into the lumber woods. Ed Thompson has begun the building of a one track railroad to carry the lumber from the yard to the planer.

The shoemaker has the frame work of a two story building up to take the place of the one burnt down.

Mr Patterson has the lumber on the ground to build a dwelling and a new lively barn.

The Odd Fellows have begun operations towards building a new block.

J L Weaver announces that he will open his store again in the new block. A fire in Mill City does not "hender."

Riley Thomas was seen sitting on the porch at the hospital. His hip was so badly hurt that there was danger of his being a cripple for life. His many friends will be gratified to know that he himself says, "I will be as good as new."

Eph and T Henness and Ted Lake went to Elk Lake fishing. They came back disgusted. The fish were "non est."

Get Rid of Your Rheumatism

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do it if you apply Chamberlain's Liniment. W A Lockhard, Homer City, N Y, writes, "Last spring I suffered from rheumatism with terrible pains in my arms and shoulders. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and the first application relieved me. By using one bottle of it I was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.
